TOWNE CLUB RETURNS
PLAYS FOR REVISION

Several of the stars who have been appearing in previous Towne Club productions will be returning for the next set of plays. Among the actors who will be appearing are Miss Helen DeLourme, Miss Marjorie Smith, Miss Gladys Swift, Miss Betty Keene, Mr. W. Howard Mills, Miss Margaret Hope, Miss Mildred Hill, and Miss F. H. Smythe. The Towne Club's plan is to present plays in the evenings, as well as in the afternoon, in order to give the students more time to review their assignments. This will enable the students not only to perform their obligations on stage, but also to review their studies during the day.

The plays will be held in the evening at the Towne Club, and tickets will be available at the box office. The Towne Club is located at 1234 Main Street, behind the Towne Hall. The plays are scheduled to begin on November 21, and will continue until December 21. Tickets can be purchased at the box office, or by calling the Towne Club at 555-5555.

The Towne Club's goal is to provide a venue for students to showcase their talents and gain experience in the performing arts. The club is committed to providing a positive learning environment for all students, and is dedicated to fostering creativity and artistic expression.

To learn more about the Towne Club's upcoming performances, or to volunteer, please visit the Towne Club's website at www.towneclub.org. You can also follow us on Facebook at https://www.facebook.com/towneclub. For any inquiries, please contact us at info@towneclub.org or call us at 555-5555. We look forward to seeing you at the Towne Club!
NEW COLLEGE ENTRANCE TEST SYSTEM POPULAR

Nahunse Murray Butler declares Principles Against Method of Examination Are Gone

"The old philosophy in favor of individual college entrance examinations and rankings, made without any regard to the policies of other colleges or secondary schools, have been forever done away with," said President Nicholas Murray Butler of Columbia at a dinner of the College Entrance Examination Board, held to celebrate his birthday (2053). President Butler was instrumental in the formation of the board.

Still further drastic changes in examination methods were predicted by Dr. Wilton Farrand, Headmaster of the North Academy and one of the principal secondary school superintendents of the board when it was established. He said the tendency was toward requiring every candidate for college entrance in his school complete a certain uniform schedule of work and the opinion of the teacher as to his "qualification for going on with advanced work, which will be treated mechanistically," he said, "will be the weight that experience has given to the records of that school and the judgment of that teacher to devise, and will be supplemented by a written examination, and in all probability by an interview."

All this will be taken into account in getting the final decision. "Probably the character of the examinations will undergo a radical change. The board will become less of an exacting examination and more tests of method and power. The school record will show its preserved cover, while the examination will be the way in which the work has been done." The headmaster said the board was going to be able to bring about such a change as quickly as the subsequent of the college would decide it to be desirable. In fact, the change is already in progress, and has advanced further than many of the new college entrance examinations are now in the process of being invented.

President Butler expressed satisfaction with the way the board has developed.

When one reckons the arguments that were advanced by men mistakenly named sensible against the organization of the board and the obstacles that face the board in the way of its successful operation by college faculties or for small colleges, he must view with satisfaction and entire resignation the judgment of the board. The board is new hence and the substantially untested support which has been given to the work by secondary schools and colleges everywhere is gratifying.

"Twenty-five years ago," he said, "the college entrance examinations in the United States were given by several colleges with similar purposes. I am not referring to the entrance examinations for the several private institutions, for the members of the several faculties at the several private institutions. They regarded themselves as private institutions and each improved his own particular school and was able to do with the school of whatever he chose to do with the school. The college made no attempt to agree among themselves, either as to what subjects should be prescribed for admission or what con-

A DOLLAR FOR HUMANITY

Once again in the familiar appeal, "Four Cents," voiced by the Students' Committee organization, the American Red Cross. The slogan is a part of the annual appeal and is designed to earn for the organization funds needed for Thanksgiving for the purpose of making money to carry on its program of helping in time of disaster.

The appeal is addressed to each of the2,500 or more students who have been open on the campus, but unless the response is as good as those of similar charitables which have preceded it, the results will not reflect the prestige of the institution in a great degree among the members of our student body.

The amount called for by the Red Cross and each individual to contribute. Such an amount would not be a defect to the budget of any student in the University, while the individual would feel that a certain amount of good has been done if every under-graduate would contribute his share towards reaching a goal which really means the welfare and future of many thousands of lives which are saved by the Red Cross and its individual to contribute. Such an amount would not be a defect to the budget of any student in the University, while the individual would feel that a certain amount of good has been done if every under-graduate would contribute his share towards reaching a goal which really means the welfare and future of many thousands of lives which are saved by the Red Cross and in general and inter-racial service to humanity. No man who receives the appeal can conscientiously refer to his share to the rest.

AND HERE’S THE STORY!

LAST August, one of our directing executives, while in London, made his annual call at the offices of Messrs. Thorton & Wright. He saw there a large surplus yardage of those luxurious Scotch overcoats which come from the banks of the Tweed and the Isie. (The kind that in Thorton & Wright counts regularly sell at $65 to $75.) Then and there he bought them at a substantial concession. They came out of the shops a fortnight ago (our British brethren work at a slower pace than we)—embar- ked on the S. S. Belgium—landed in Philadelphia just two days ago.

And in a few days more they’ll land on the backs of several hundred Philadelphia scholars who know that an opportunity to buy a genuine Thorton & Wright Overcoat at $44.50 never knocks twice.
