FEAT OF INTERFRATERNITY BASKETBALL LEAGUE CHANGED

Coach Kekocher, who is in charge of the Interfraternity Basketball League, announced that a few minor changes have been made in the rules governing the tournament. Previously if a team lost two games, it was automatically dropped from the league. However, as the rule now stands it is a team defeat or loss, instead of two team defeats. The change is in effect for the 1925-1926 season.

Jr. Flaccus Discusses Drama
AT DRAMATIC CLUB MEETING

Dr. R. W. Flaccus of the Philosophy Department of the University, addressed an open meeting of the Dramatic Club on "The Expressiveness of Drama" last night at Houston Hall. He spoke on the various phases of expression and told of how the idea affected the acting and acting as well as the actual writing of the plays. He also held the idea of the expression and emotion upon the content between expressiveness and roles and the draws was stressed both as to the plays of the movements and the language with which they strive to pull their role.

The meeting was well attended and Dr. Flaccus' address was well received. After the talk, the floor opened in discussion and many points of interest were thrown up by the members. This was the third of a series of informal talks, and it is the aim of the club to have many other prominent people address the open subjects as well as the questions expressed by the members.

IN THIS GAME OF STUDIES

Pennsylvania has always been noted for their girl and fighting spirit in athletic contests whether on field or in the bear pits. We have carried with us in our battles, those immortal words of "Mike Murphy, 'You Can't Sink a Team that Won't Be Sunk.'"

This great old Pennsylvania battle cry, adopted as a thrill of everyday life, is bound to produce victories in any endeavor, in any matter it be. It will carry those who believe in it, a great way along the road to success. Stated as it may seem, not all who would struggle constantly put the ball between the legs for Pennsylvania. They Won't Be Sunk, have the courage to apply the study in their daily examinations and have already shown themselves to become buried in the shadows of impending disaster.

This work-killed attitude and lost of heart at the last on the part of many who are low in their work has in the last been the result of many failures. It has been responsible to no small measure for the heavy fall which the mid-year class took last term, the average of which was the freshman class.

This is as time for drooping spirits. The examinations must be worked with vigor and the spirit that is in you.

The odds may be exceedingly unfavorable. The opposition may be exceedingly strong. But you can't lick a student who won't be licked any more than you can a bear.

AN ENDING AND A BEGINNING

Although the Memorial Hall Fund fell below the goal of $25,000 which was originally set as an objective, the work of obtaining over $19,000 was a great accomplishment. This work is over six times greater than any previous campaign conducted by the Christian Association has ever attained.

The result was more than outstanding as one of the best or finest campaigns which, in our knowledge, has ever been conducted on the campus at Pennsylvania. Although a few stragglers were misguided by the cautioned, the majority of undergraduates were approached and an extremely high percentage coming from the students was the result.

The owners of the campus on the campus should act as strategic "taking points" in the city-wide drive which begins tomorrow. It is evidence that the student body is solidly behind the project and project is solid for the proposed Memorial Hall to become a reality.

The large number of city workers who are sponsoring the campaign, subscriptions have been received from graduates and foreign lands. The remarkable part of these subscriptions is that they came unsolicited. These contributions should also act as an incentive for Philadelphians to "get into the game."

HONOR SYSTEM ADOPTED IN DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Authorities of the School of Education have announced that a form of the honor system has been adopted in this department of the University. The code, which is patterned after existing systems will become effective with the start of the mid-year examinations on Monday.

The Student Honor Committee and the Faculty of the School of Education have worked together in establishing the new plan for examinations and it is to be given a thorough trial in order to determine student attitude. If successful it will probably become a permanent institution.

David T. Bowlin's, W. chairman of the Honor Committee, asks that all undergraduates in the School of Education individually live up to their code in order that the system may be continued.
