Pennsylvania swimming team achieved a decisive defeat in the C. C. N. Y. matches last night in the Westheight Hall pool. The final score being 48-14. The Red and Blue team was in good physical condition and displayed a great amount of determination throughout the meet. The water police, however, intervened to the by a 30-13 score.

The first event in the swimming meet was the 20 yard dash which was easily won by Captain Wilson in 25 seconds. Holmes finished a close second. chlor took first place in the 440 yard swim and Blue won the third while a large lead over Bawtham of C. C. N. Y. The time was 6-3-5. The Nortyers took first place in the Fancy Flying event, Barham winning. Von Uhl and streaming was second and third places, respectively for Pennsylvania in this event.

In the backstroke race Captain Wilson took another first place in one minute. 25-5 seconds, while Eichler took an other second. Epstein, one of the outstanding members of the New York team came in first in the breast-stroke in which no second place was awarded to Bawtham, who was the leading athlete. Johnson and Chace took the first two places respectively in the 200 yard. The time was 20-5-0.

The next of the water polo game was at 6-3-10 at the end of the first half. Von Uhl and Underhill reaching for Pennsylvania. At the beginning of the second half the rival team increased its score to 25, while Underhill made two points. The C. C. N. Y. team then made good points which trimmed them 15 more points, making the final score 50 to 15.

SENSORS RESPOND TO APPEALS OF RECORD FOR STATISTICS

Improvement in the test being shown by seniors in their appeal to the appeals of the Class Record board according to students' latest announcement. The Board has been working hard to amend the material necessary for the publication and has for some time been requesting the Seniors to cooperate with them in this work. As a result a great mass of statistical blanks have been turned in within the last few days. The final date for turning in the remainder of the statistical blanks is next at hand and it will be important for any who have not turned in the material up to that time to submit his signatures for publication in the Record. The time limit has been extended four times and it is necessary for the fourth time to hand in the outstanding blanks within the next few days. Further solicitations may be expected later but no further statistical blanks will be received.

Finale has attracted the attention of Coach Robertson, although he lacks the time, and consequently he has been in the interest of his team. Five men, Lewis B,are, Barham, Brown, and Hughes are entered in the mile relay. Coach Robertson has not announced the week will comprise three races that will complete. The fifth man will be chosen as an alternate.

Yonkers Franklin Field was monopolized by freshman runners on fields where in order to secure the best possible material for a first year relay team. Hufford, a veterans team proved to be the outstanding milk, while Soner was the half mile. Watson-Tulli, former captain of the Statehigh-Pennsylvania State team tied with both teams in the 220 yard dash. Martin Bell, Penn Charter graduate will be used in this event. A quarter mile is the only man lacking to complete the team.

MENtors oppose award to seniors in J. V. BOAT

The establishment of the award was naturally cheered by the fans, and it was hoped that it would lead to a protest of the award, according to the newspaper report. The current president of the award, however, did not make any such protest, but instead instructed a strong and determined letter to the Homecoming Committee, asking the president of the committee to reconsider the award.

At the annual meeting of the General Alumni Society of the University, which will be held in a few days, the committee is expected to make a strong and determined letter to the Homecoming Committee, asking the president of the committee to reconsider the award.

Pennsylvania's Athletic Heroes Are Full Worth of Such Recognition

Speaking of finding things, we have just found an on tape column which was prepared by one of our undergraduates a few days after the Resolution. Due to the present nagging interest that is being generally displayed in antique and things old, we are reprinting the "mould column" here.

Ye old Mill is grinning fiercely again and its grid desk shows a glaring balance. Trespassing was taken with great jubilation by ye Green Mountain Boys and the campus is filled with沿装 and staff parties. Ye bunch of our worst Pennsian was found in his saddlesack nosing ye venerable spouse to nibble at ye Greek Inn with the well known results of stimulants and stimulations. Ye mid-year exhibition in frappage has been corrected and the sisters will be returning on Friday with corresponding grades.

Ye faculty both deemed that the timing of horsecar to the forces petrol that the esquire college is prohibited and alumnists shall be punished by censure and reaction upon the south wall of the college.

Shippers who persist in staffing ye chief with wet loaves shall be punished before ye student body and shall be meted in ye furnace with ye earlums of ye class.

Ye Socratic must be made short for the reason that ye editor must become himself to a class in propinquity in preparation for taking of the declaration of independence.

Pennsylvania In Sport

Pennsylvania's athletic heroes are full worth of such recognition. Their merit certificates are great, and although we received the mail of the students for their feats during competition, this formal acknowledgement of their work adds dignity and improvement in leaning those with whom it is associated the name of Pennsylvania in sport.
