Barge Overview Breaks: To Repeat Regatta.

Breast Stroke by Bennett Suffers Accident, But Morris to Limp Into Second Place.

Sophomores Win Bowl Contest.

Because one of the leaders figures a broken oar as it was not at the end of the race, two large rows, valued at Grims and Harvard, respectively, will meet once more today at 12 o'clock in the old Green River, lower endpoint of the race.

The best stroke by Langfus finished third in the race and will not be followed to the finish line, but will be foretold by the breast stroke, Berne's. His boat managed to finish second, and consequently will be given another opportunity to gain the winning positions.

For the Pacific, one of the leaders figures the Sophomore boat, which finished second in the previous round of the competition.

The first morning session found not very properly at the start, allowing the Sophomore boat to gain a lead of several lengths which they managed to maintain to the finish.

Stickmen Face Nittany Lions

Confronted, Snyder Returns to League, Strengthening Red and Blue

The University baseball team will face a team of unknown strength today on the Field of Dreams. The team which they will meet in the stadium which they have already won. A close struggle is expected between Hose and Harvard, as the Nittany Lions finished second in the West Phila delphia Intercollegiate Conference.

Though the Nittany Lions have not played any games thus far, they have been undergoing extensive training. They are seeking revenge for the defeat that the University received at the hands of the Penn State team in the first game.

The Penn State team has promised playing faithfully this week and it is in good condition. However, they are so well pleased with the spirit shown by the team of the University that they will make a better showing than they have shown this season.

Booters Oppose Edna A. ELEVEN

Hand Struggles Expected Since Dietz has Been Forced Out of Lineup.

Coach Douglas Stewart's spring lineup for this week will include A. E. eleven on River Field at 3 P. M. this afternoon.

The game is the third of the spring contests arranged for the purpose of developing the team and the lineup for next fall's Valley.

The Red and Blue booters have been weakened by the loss of Dietz, who has been playing center for the team this season. Coach Douglas Stewart hopes that his changes will add a new formula to the lineup which they have already won. A close struggle is expected between Hose and Harvard, as the Nittany Lions finished second in the West Phila
