W. L. SELLSCHALL TAILLIES TWICE

After trailing 4-1, at the close of the third quarter, the University's Spring Valley soccer team scored three goals in the final period to win 7-4 over the Penn women's soccer team. Allotted time for each match is limited to 60 minutes. Six minutes are allowed for half-time. A scoreless match or a tie after 30 minutes of extra time results in a 1-1 tie or replay.

The final score was 4-1-0-3, with the final score being 1-1-0-3. The Penn logo is composed of a red and blue circle, with the number 1 and 0 in the middle. The Penn logo is composed of a red and blue circle, with the number 1 and 0 in the middle.
Since this Day is now a thing of the past, but this year it was strangely unique. To our knowledge, this is the first day of this kind in several years at which it did not at least threaten rain. We hope that this strange phenomenon will not descend as it has in previous years, as none of those atmospheric miracles.

But we were supposed to write his tune. So for this paper, we understand, but he wired that he could not get back from Annapolis. Perhaps the ship's call beat the event's notes.

or maybe "I was just a sailor's sweetheart."

Anyway, it's a wonderful day outside; every girl and her chums are strolling along Walnut Street, and the basement of Hamilton Hall is like an oven even with the absence of cooking.

And they have decided to have a column even though the freshmen are busy assigning and the newspapers are as hard to find on the shelves that went into the strike at the News-Hat Day game.

Of course, the apprehensions are not included among the Pennsylvania subscribers, so it appears that this is mostly between Fred Fother and ourselves.

The Yellow Cab Company is busy figuring out how much nobody is able to request from the Class of '20.

The trend of urban population increase at the expense of the rural districts is receiving a severe setback.

And the market for black caps has just jumped six points.

What with the undergraduate obvious May Day and the autumnal procrastination about Fairmount Park recently ended, the University seems to be in the grip of a back-to-nature movement.

Nancy is not looking for the head of the Student's Field Club to see if they paid in subscriptions and made their help for the Roosevelt at the freshman's expense.

Alumni and seniors coming Nancy are just fraternity readyting chairman gratifying kicks back for next season.

Well, Fred, it's about time for somebody to remark that the lights aren't what they used to be.

The apprehensions have been tolerating the freshmen that the positions and the discipline committees are still making rules without modifications and other roughhousing.

Just between you and us, we're darned glad who's a junior.

And you know, yourself, that you glory in the knowledge that you raise the freshmen with an iron hand all the year and then escape kicking.

So long, Fred.

Large gifts which have been made. The administration of the School of Dentistry has already formed a committee to help raise funds during the campaign.
At a conference on April 25, the alumni of the Wharton School decided to appoint a committee to inherit itself in the development of the plans which resulted. The alumni of the College have planned a similar conference for May 6. The alumni of the School of Fine Arts and the Engineering School are also planning such committees, afloat with the Veterinary School alumni.

JOHNS HOPKINS OWNS EIGHTH WORLD WONDER
To Johns Hopkins University goes the deserved honor of possessing the eight largest wonder of the World. This out-costing beauty is larger than a perfectly healthy moose—with four legs.
Appropriately it is to lie all together,
not large and ago, with a strong, true offsort in our respect, the four legs. The two front ones are normal, but the hind ones are short and suse but two in each.
This unusual feat causes everybody to and two before the ever-growing singing volumes. Evidently in appreciation of the fact that he has accomplished something that no human being has ever done: awaken-off a class of Johns Hopkins students.
Since his arrival he has been phone employed many times daily. Being only a year old, it is not known whether or not he will be able to offer the world any property. As present he is under the observer of the Biological Department.
