FOOTBALL COACHES AIM TO PERFECT OFFENSIVE SYSTEM BY NEXT GAME

"Lost" Young and Assistant Coach Work on Correct Weaknesses Shown by Saturday's Game

The opening game of the season with Franklin and Marshall College Saturday at Franklin Hall "Lost" Young and his assistants on the football staff are now devoting their energies to the study of the weaknesses shown by the University of Pennsylvania in the opening game of the season.

A remedy will be sought in next week's game, which will be played against the Pennsylvania "Blackbirds," which are generally conceded to be a strong team.

SOCIETY AIDS AMERICAN STUDENTS AT VIENNA

Austria-American Institute of Education
Founded to Broadcast Details of Austrian Facilities
TO ORGANIZE SPECIAL COURSES

Under the auspices of the American-Austria Society the Austria-American Institute of Education was founded to bring about closer contact between the United States and Austria in the field of International Education. Albert H. Washburn, Austrian Ambassador at Vienna, is honorary chairman of the Institute.

The task of the Austria-American Institute will be to give full information to all Americans desiring to know about opportunities for study in Vienna, living conditions, traveling expenses and the like. After their return the American professors and students will be assisted in their scientific work. Their stay will be made as profitable as possible at a minimum of cost.

Lists of schools and other institutions to be visited will be prepared and letters of introduction given. Ethereal contact with cultured Austrians, who speak English, will be established. Opportunities for exchange professorships and teaching positions will be considered as the necessities present themselves.

Special courses on art, music and education will be organized in addition to the already existing internationally famous courses in the Medical School.

The Houston Hall Store, owned by the University and operated by an “Alumnus,” was created by the Board of Trustees of the University for the purpose of taking care of the needs of the students. The Store was placed in Houston Hall so that the support of this building would be partly derived from the profits of the Store. Consequently your patronage of the Houston Hall Store directly benefits you in improving facilities which can be afforded you in this building.

for economy’s sake

The cheap and uncertain pen costs much more in the long run. The Lifetime® is the pen of no rep-case costs. So accurately is it built, and so unfailingly does it perform, that we unhesitatingly guarantee it without reservations whatsoever.

And because it is also a beautiful pen, built of enduring green Radite, it is a pride of studentdom—and a coveted possession always. Spot it by the dot—at better dealers everywhere.
