FIGHTING SQUAD.

When questioned concerning the views he held in regard to the elimination of scoring, he agreed quite well with "Ted" King and Bill Bong, football coaches at Yale and Princeton, respectively, who have expressed the opinion that scoring in football should be abolished.

"I believe that the complete elimination of scoring from football would be a good thing for the game. Certainly it would be much better for the players, and it would add much more excitement to the game."
CHEER PENNSYLVANIA

"CHEER PENNSYLVANIA"
One of the first duties of all enrollees at the University is to become familiar with the traditions songs and cheers. It is evident that this is necessary in order that our teams

Choreography is not all that which contributes to the overall appeal of the team. The cheerleading team is responsible for creating an atmosphere of excitement and enthusiasm among the spectators. This is achieved through synchronized movements, cheers, and the use of props.

The cheerleading team is an integral part of the University's athletic programs, and its members play a significant role in boosting team spirit and enhancing the overall experience for both the players and the fans.

The cheerleading team is an excellent example of how sports and culture come together to create a vibrant and dynamic campus life. Its members not only support their teams but also contribute to the University's rich heritage and traditions.
