UNIVERSITY PLACEMENT SERVICE NOW IN TRANSITION PERIOD, SAYS CLEWELL

"We are now in the transition period," declared President Charles C. Coffin, director of the Placement Service, when interviewed yesterday. "We are in a period of change where students are being placed in the work of their choice until accurate requests from industries for positions, our plan of action includes first of all, publicity work. We must educate officials of industrial and commercial concerns to appreciate that we can be of material assistance to them, by supplying men whose qualifications particularly fit them for the positions offered.

Attention will be given to various parts of the country where we have conducted successful programs in the pioneer work of ours. We have been trying every conceivable aid to the students in that particular area. In the meantime, we are looking for such institutions as are lacking in the labor of the group.

SOCCER TEAM HUMILIES JAY-VEE COMBINATION

Defeats Junior Varsity Eleven in Last Post Season Match With Mountain Saturday

By taking the odd goal in three, the University soccer team defeated the Jay- Vee combination on River Street yesterday afternoon. Coach Gough had previously sent the men through a long series of fundamentals in an effort to improve the fundamental in the backfield and in the head of the backfield.

Before starting the game, Coach Gough explained to the Jay- Veers the meaning of the control of the ball, the necessity for the control of the ball, and the rules of the game. The Jay Veers were instructed to control the ball, to leave the net. The other Varsity soccer team will be the only team to be used in the final matches of the fall tennis tournament.

STUDENTS MUST ARRIVE EARLY

Lorenzo Adams, young coach of Pennsylvania's fencing gymnasium and co- coach of the gymnastics team on Franklin Field yesterday, announced that "tall stature" will be the principal attribute at the fifth annual men's fencing tournament held in the basement of Franklin Field on Saturday at 8 o'clock. Coach Young, in his annual address, will speak, it is expected, on football activities at the University.

For the second time this season, President Getman has asked the Varsity gymnastic team to present an original intercollegiate football program on football activities at the University this afternoon.

The Pennsylvania State University gymnastics team has recently been defeated by the Maryland 10th in a practice match at River Street.

UNIVERSITY PLACEMENT SERVICE

Now in its sixteenth session, has been attended by the fact that discussions have been conducted with business representatives in the area. These discussions are aimed at helping students to find employment. The service has been expanded to include the placement of graduate students as well. By making these contacts with business representatives, it is hoped that the students will be able to find employment upon graduation.

The service is open to all students who are registered in the University of Pennsylvania. It is suggested that students who are interested in finding employment upon graduation should contact the Placement Service as soon as possible.

The Placement Service is located in the Second Floor of Johnson Hall.

ELI AND HARVARD DENY NEW EASTERN CONFERENCE

Yale Declines to Enter Any Football Conference Which Fails to Count Red and Blue

HARVARD HEAD SILENCES RUMORS

Yale athletic officials have denied the report that an Eastern Football Conference would be organized in 239, consisting of Harvard, Princeton, Cornell, Dartmouth, Brown, and Yale. The officials stated that they had not heard of the rumored conference and that Yale would have no part in it. It is stated that Yale is substantially committed to the triple agreement with Harvard and Princeton, having been reestablished after Harvard's reported private plan to drop Princeton and play Michigan.

Yale football coach admitted that Yale would sign an agreement to enter a conference of Eastern Universities that did not include Pennsylvania. Yale is unable to play regularly under the existing conditions. Another reason why Yale could not enter a conference is that it has an expensive football plant, making it necessary to arrange as many games as possible.

Princeton, having been reestablished, is on the market for an Eastern Conference.

A conference agreement, calling for both home and home series with all the members, would be impossible for Yale to enter, according to the official view. In addition to this detail, William J. Wingfield, director of athletics at Harvard, had made a statement releasing the claim that Harvard planned to enter an "Eastern Football Conference" with Yale, Princeton, Cornell, and Brown. An official statement from the Big Red was made, saying that the administration had not been consulted on the matter, and that there had been no discussion as to any proposed football conferences, and hence no plan to enter any conference, in football was his statement.

Sarah Bent became first woman President when Pennsylvania meets Illinois at Champaign on October 30. She will face one of the Champions finest in her opponent's backfield. "Frosty" Peters, a running back and drop-kicking star, was recently dismissed a freshman in the Campuses Fire Department. The Illinois back will be an agitator to help fill the end of the present football season.

Yale Golf Course Now Taxed

Several hundred acres of land and numerous buildings belonging to the Yale University golf course were listed on the taxable property tax list by the Board of Assessors at New Haven recently. The University, it is expected, will appeal this tax to the State Board of Revaluation. No protest was made against this action, however.

Princeton offered to retain the old Indian Point student club in a Push button signal with 89 students, and a second house, 45 S. 40th St. Bell phone

A PROGRESSIVE STEP

H. G. Wells in a recent article has asserted that "A time must come when Oxford and Cambridge, Yale and Harvard will no longer be at the centre of the intellectual life of the world than the Monastery of Mount Athos or the Lorentzian Centre of Science."

The same position was taken by Professor E. Zell in an article on "Oxford and Cambridge, Yale and Harvard?" Mr. Wells vividly mentions not only that the present competitive college system is no longer a model for the best American universities, but also that Princeton is not a typical college, as the alumni who would prefer to select Pennsylvania's cheer leaders and song leaders would form a solution to the problem.

Princeton takes the first step towards providing such a solution. The statement published in the Newsleaf on this subject suggests that the step may be a solution to the situation described in the Wells article.

In 1927 the Princeton faculty limited the Freshmen and Sophomores to a four-course plan. The system was designed to allow each student enough extra time for the proper completion of his work, particularly the intellectual work that might be needed. Whether the faculty found this instruction a success is not yet known. But it lends itself to the idea that the competitive college system, the intellectual circles desired, or not, is an uncertain question. The prediction does not make a bright future for us or our descendants.

Princeton has taken the first step towards meeting such a need and has published the statement. The Newsleaf suggests that the step may be a solution to the situation described in the Wells article.

In preparation for the opening of physical education classes, the I. O. E. C. headed by the University of Pennsylvania, held a general meeting to discuss the appointment of a new head coach. The alumni who would prefer to select Pennsylvania's cheer leaders and song leaders would form a solution to the problem.

The council on Athletics has apparently selected the "Join the Navy." At this time, the world would try to buy tickets to the game next fall.

There is no way of finding out how to disguise himself as a hollow ball when the condition comes for the tickets on Ellis Island.

We apologize for not allowing more time to write everything else, but it took some time before we could finalize and present the article. The Princeton News is not a student publication. We have assembled a number of articles for our own use. The news is to be presented as an advertisement.
