DR. NEWTON SPEAKS AT CHAPEL MEETING

Dr. Joseph E. Newton, director of the chapel, and Robert N.
Smith, at 21, Page, Oberlin, will speak before the chapel of the Transfigure tomorrow afternoon at 5 o'clock. This meeting is being held as a result of the request of certain members of the faculty and student body.

Dr. Newton recently edited a book by Werner J. Heise called "Where Are We in Religion," which has compiled various opinions of leading scholars concerning their concept of God. He will use this material and answer the questions of the students.

COMMUNITY CENTER BAZAAR OPENS TODAY

Many valuable and useful Christmas gifts will be placed on sale at the annual bazaar of the Community Center, which opens for business today. Charles Stuart, under the direction of Mr. Stuart, has arranged for the bazaar, and the campus store has made many donations of handiwork for the sale. The proceeds of the bazaar will go toward the purchase of supplies for the Community Center and the Chapel.

The bazaar will be open Monday through Saturday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. The sale will close on December 23.

WIGGERS HOLD SECOND ELIMINATION PROGRAM

Cost Aspects Will Present Diversified Entertainment Tomorrow Night in Houston Hall

Students Invited to Attend

Following the successful initial tryout sight held last Monday, the M-M化妆 and Wig Club announced yesterday that it will stage a second elimination program which will entertain tomorrow night in the Union Auditorium at 8 o'clock. Those interested in participating may audition tonight at the Union. The second tryout will be followed by the elimination program in which the committee believes it will be able to select the best candidates.

It seems incredible enough that a football game, Mask and Ball Banquet, a formally academic event, the Women's Sophomore Prom should take place on Friday.

Our grandmater would have said that Friday was a bad day. Now we believe it.

We imagine the Punch Bowl shown will be of the same opinion Friday evening.

A New York marriage license clerk recently celebrated his birthday by issuing his marriage certificate. None of the Midwestern husbands, however, appeared to panic on charges against elles.

Of course he didn't say it, but he might have said that both Love and Justice are blind. Perhaps that explains why they are such poor marksmen.

Never says that the dear girl back home, who was talking about the Junior Prom last summer, is still talking as far as he is concerned.

Yesterday Gip and Bow, while gambling in the snow money, the front steps of College Hall, reached the conclusion that Blondie prefers Proms.

Our idea of romanticism is borrowing someone's fence and then asking that someone to eat on a date with him.
