"Mr. George A. Richardson has been elected Vice President in charge of the Relations of the University with the Public. The development of this branch of the University work is an evidence of the growing interest of the public in educational institutions and of the responsibility of universities and colleges to the public.

"Mr. Richardson received the degree of A. B. from Princeton in 1907 and is the son of a graduate of our Medical School. He comes well equipped for the work. Upon graduation he entered newspaper work and for a number of years acquired important editorial positions on the New York Sun. Following that he engaged in the business of promoting the relations of Colleges and Universities with the Public.

"For the past two and a half years he has acted as Director of the University of Pennsylvania Fund. During that time he has been brought into intimate contact not only with the Administration but with the personnel of the entire University as well. At the Commencement last June the honorary degree of Master of Arts was conferred upon him by the University of Pennsylvania.

"It is expected that an announcement as to the appointment of the other Vice President, who will relieve the President of a portion of the purely educational administrative work, will be made shortly. In defining the duties of the Vice President the Trustees have provided that these officials shall sit with all the Board and report personally concerning their work and for a number of years acquired important editorial positions on the New

"DO YOU KNOW

"That every phase of life, all the emotions of the heart, mind, and soul that are portrayed in the works of Shakespeare, Milton, Dante and all the greatest writers of all time, are more beautifully and vividly presented to us in the history of the universe as recorded from the first chapter of Genesis to the last word in the Book of Revelation in the Holy Bible?"

"The most liberal and uplifting knowledge of our relations and duties to the great Creator and our fellowmen is obtained from the Word of the Lord, which is illuminated and interpreted by the most learned and godly of men. The story of Creation, redemption, and the work of Redemption is the Ordeal of man's soul, and the history of the world is but a shadow of the greater work that is to be accomplished in the World of the Future."
