Silent Period

According to the official announcement made by the Interfraternity Council, rushing season will end tonight at the stroke of twelve. Henceforth, the practice of silence is to begin and extend until six o'clock tomorrow evening. Rushing season will present difficulties in the fraternity houses of their choice. It is the agreement of these fraternities that no pledge should be admitted to the house of any fraternity in which there is a pledge of the same year. The stroke of twelve will be heard in all houses in order that they may have ample time and quiet to make their decisions.

This period shall be one of mutual respect to the men. Freshmen who still remain undecided as to their fraternities are urged to visit their houses so that they may learn the rules and regulations. At twelve they should choose the house that suits them and their preference. They should carefully and seriously consider the merits and faults of the houses and not choose every single pledge. It is best that they not make their decisions without ample time to consider the part of the fraternity that they will choose.

It is with this in view that the silent period was announced. The Interfraternity Council, in accordance with their desires, shall be no consultation whatever between any candidate and any fraternity in the interval between the stroke of twelve and six o'clock tonight. However, the enforcement of this rule shall be left to the discretion of the fraternities themselves to decide, for in order that the time is to be considered as the period of mutual respect that the pledges may have ample time to consider the houses they have visited and shall be heard to on that period of the time.

A similar silence period was instituted at the time of the election of the fraternity houses. It was found that the period was useful and was continued by the Interfraternity Council, in accordance with the desires of the pledgers and fraternity houses that they might be able to consider the matter before they made their decisions. All decisions in the agreement are still bound by their words and not changed in any manner.

There were four things to be considered in the period. First, all decisions in the agreement are still bound by their words and not changed in any manner. Second, all decisions in the agreement are still bound by their words and not changed in any manner. Third, all decisions in the agreement are still bound by their words and not changed in any manner. Fourth, all decisions in the agreement are still bound by their words and not changed in any manner.

EXPERIENCED pipe-smokers from Cape Lineburne to Cape Sable (get out your map of North America) recommend P. A. to you as the finest tobacco that ever lined the bowl of a pipe.

You’ll check-in with their recommendation.

Why, the instant you swing back the hinged lid on the tidy red tin, your olfactory nerve registers a fragrance like that of a pine-grove on a damp morning. And when you tuck a load of this wonderful tobacco into your pipe—say, Mister!—Cool as Cape Lineburne, mentioned above. Sweet as the plaudits of a first-night audience. Mild as morning in Cape Sable. (That’s working-in the old geography!) Mild, yet with a full tobacco body that completely satisfies your smoke-taste. Buy some Prince Albert today and make the test!
