Red, Blue Passers Engage Dartmouth Five in Crucial League Tilt

Two Eleven firemen and the chief of the local station responded to an alarm sent in to 35th Street and Woodland Avenue, yesterday at one o'clock. Several firemen moved up Woodland Avenue in the wake of the fire's red number lights, the engines roaring up 35th Street, coming down the Pennsylvania Avenue, and coming to the Pennsylvania Hotel.

Pennsylvania’s boxing squad and Navy sailors meet Penn State today in the College of Arms in the gymnasium. The contest is not only a match between two of the nation’s best boxing teams but is also a charity contest, the proceeds of which will be divided between the two institutions.

The firemen were encouraged by the students, who lined up on the sidewalk.

Letters, telegrams and cards have been pouring in from some of the Negro Vothonol leaders, which are, in essence, an appeal to the white residents of the city to remain. We have, therefore, decided that the Negro leader is at present epoch-making after a prolonged attack of Snow-Fighting and Chronic Vomiting. Out of consideration of this intimation, we have decided to grant him a vacation leave until he is physically able to take a job.

For many years I have been an insistent and persistent devotee of cigarettes—especially of the Lucky Strike brand. The habit has never in any degree affected the clearness and strength of my voice.

Senator Edwards’ Voice—Rare Among Orators

Clear, expressive, he guards it by protecting his throat.

S E N A T O R  E D W A R D S  o f New Jersey is gifted with a fine speaking voice, powerful, always in control. His audiences are always impressed.

In smoking, he prefers Lucky Strikes because they give the greatest enjoyment and throat protection.

Lucky Strikes are smooth and mellow—the finest cigarettes you ever smoked. They are made of the finest Turkish and domestic tobaccos, properly aged blended with great skill, and there is an extra process in treating the tobacco.

Smoke Lucky Strikes—you'll like them.
