ADDITIONAL AMENDMENTS INTERCOLLEGIATE RULES FOR TRACK PENALTIES

Amendment to the following: A new rule has been adopted by the Administrative Committee of the Intercollegiate Conference of the University of Pennsylvania. The rule, as amended, reads: 'The Intercollegiate Conference hereby amends the rule governing the penalty on the hardier to read as follows: The penalty on the hardier shall be an additional yard handicap for each violation. It is the rule of the Conference that such a penalty shall be in addition to any penalty otherwise provided for in the rules governing the penalty on the hardier.'

SMALL BUSINESS SHOWS INCREASED ENROLLMENT
Director Dolman Reports Recent Growth of Student Body During Two Registration Years
GRADUATE STUDENTS TOTAL 900
Director John Dolman, Jr., of the Summer School, in introducing the opening of the summer sessions on Tuesday, July 5, 1925, made public some interesting statistics regarding the recent development of summer schools in the United States. The Pennsylvania Summer School is a member of the Association of Summer Institutions, which is made up of every school with a total attendance in 1923 of 12,000, and in 1920 of 9,500, increases in an increase of two per cent.

The Pennsylvania Summer School, with an enrollment of 2,250 in 1923, and 2,500 in 1925, shows an increase of ten per cent. However, Director Dolman explained the fact that numerical growth is not the major objective, and pointed out that a most significant feature of this growth is the increase in the number of graduate students, which now totals 500, and the increase of regular university students, who remain over for the summer sessions.

"More important than the increase in numbers," said Mr. Dolman, "is the unexplainable improvement in the quality of the work accomplished and in the standards of the students. Enrollments on the Summer School as a whole, for the Summer School has been wisely planned, are shown students in reality by an insignificant minority of the total student body. Most of the students are enrolled in the Summer School in order to get credit in their work, without the numerous distracting influences of the winter season. Students who wish to complete their college education also come here a large part of the school."

Opportunity comes here
FROM time to time, there are exceptional openings in this great organization—sales, plant and executive places, in the Home Office or a branch.
Earnest-minded men first have home-plant training—thorough, painstaking, and always interesting. Next comes actual participation in our affairs. There are opportunities (1) with some phase of the merchandising of gasoline and oil—a new but rapidly-growing business wherein today there is vast opportunity for initiative; (2) with some phase of equipment installation, that will insure better lubrication for all manner of industrial machinery.

We welcome letters from college men who want to share in the progress this institution is making—the leader in its field!

COURT MEN SEEK THIRD PLACE IN LEAGUE RACE

Red and Blue Five Must Defeat Princeton on Thursday, in Order to Hold Second Place.

SIMMON LEADS HIGH-Scorers

With third place in the Eastern Intercollegiate Basketball League within the reach of the Red and Blue captains, the Pennsylvania squad crossed the first week of practice last night. The University team, although definitely out of the running for the title, held temporary possession of third place, but must defeat Princeton on Saturday in order to clinch the title.

On the Princeton-Pennsylvania game five days behind the league title, Princeton prepared Dartmouth by a small margin at press time, but the Tigers must win both remaining league contests to assure themselves of the title. The Big Green gained its second last Saturday by defeating Cornell and ending with a record of five wins and three losses for the year.

Cole and Curley will have each with the blue and red for third place, but it will be the Harvard-round to end the Big Green standing, as they are fairly expected to be the victors, with only seven and eight victories.

Stadium, of Yale,上榜的Devore Yale guard, in leading scorer of the league last week, when Devore was held to 17.

Stadium, of Yale, is listed by the Princeton five. Stadium's record includes 21 field goals and 24 free throws for a total of 50 points. Devore is second with 160, while Picken has 123. Devore, Pennsylvania's representative guard among the leaders, is 6'5', two points ahead of DeVore, Princeton's white, called 59 markers.

SUMMER SCHOOLS SHOW INCREASED ENROLLMENT

The interest in the classes as a sport and with the regular academic, a clear trend with the instructor's results, and only three units of work may be taken in the concentrated work accomplish much more than the usual course of half unit courses in six or seven subjects. With these advantages a three-semester of study is produced which, according to the director, is the accurate sit of the Summer School.

MEMBERS OF FIRST FOOTBALL TEAM TO BE HONORED

Intermediate college football teams. These matches were played under Rugby rules, as prescribed by Harvard, Columbia, and Princeton, from which has developed the present 87th American football system. As it is played today.

The November 11, the University team played their first match game, Princeton was their opponent. The Tigers won, the score being 6 to 6. The first game, occupied 47 minutes, and was stubbornly contested by the very much lighter Pennsylvania men. After the game the Pennsylvania team entertained their visitors with a dinner.

On November 17, the team played its second match with the All-Philadelphia team, which defeated 4 points to 0. On November 23, Pennsylvania went to Princeton for the return match, Princeton was again victorious, by the score of 6 goals.

Thus the 1871 season was closed. The team having its credit only one victory out of the three games on the schedule. However, this afforded the needed stimulus and from that time on, football gradually increased in favor and prestige upon the Pennsylvania campus.

COACH YOUNG EXPLAINS ALTERED FOOTBALL RULING

said, "this practically places fundamentals of English Rugby in the game. By the new rules, it is possible to lose the ball in a tackle. It seems quite probable that the interference will run behind the man with the ball, then when the man is about to be tackled, he will toss the ball back to the interference who will continue with the play. If there is a foul, the team will not lose the kick anyway, according to the new interpretation."

Coach Young further pointed out that more men will attempt to catch punts this season, even if he does tackle, the ball is dead at the place where the error was made. The ball, however, remains in the possession of the team recovering the ball. This will tend to do away with one of the "tricks" that led to a deciding factor in a game.
