FLORICS OF FLITZ "R", N.C.

All you lovers stand up and sing praises to Saint Patrick and his lucky square. St. Patrick even if it is a dirty little.

And just to avoid confusion, the rest of you had better stand up too.

In a recommendation of day of green embroidery; we will place the striking and wear your green square on the festive day.

We have the gratitude of the day and the love of the men who give us a national holiday.

G. E. Fremont, R. M. F. M.

First of all, when Columbus discovered Ireland, it was not admired Ireland, but Shamrocken, because of the snakes and the many people sleeping there. And Columbus was then in Ireland (Note: was the only way you could get a drink in those days) and he would have been a permanent resident there had not Patrick O’Dowdine moved in and signed apartment house.

Now it happened that this Pat was very fond of his “shugs” and tried to make an agreement with Columbus, who killed the poisoning for a snake bite. Columbus raised in nearly in favor of his new neighbor's eye, fished out on his eye by shining up all night swearing a little boy to make Nice Blue.

Pat began to go with the Dago Elite and then discovered (that he had drunk his wife’s K инo Washing Tablet, etc., etc.). For the act Mrs. O'Dowdine and Pat set on the floor and thus indirectly, the Dago Elite made Pat an enemy.

He found Columbus in the same surroundings, still in his old, in one of the old stores of the old Pat. Pat pulled on an O'Connell's arm and then, and then he should recover, because he never said to all the snakes out of Ireland for Bobcay, by playing "Ain't Still the Rush's Right" on his impromptu set of Irish Pipes.

This Shamrocken was removed Ireland, because Pat's middle name was Haggerty.

But so the you will not be confused, do not for a moment think that this Pat who chased the snakes out of Shamrocken was the Saint Patrick whom we celebrate.

You, might! It is necessary to understand that the men in Ireland should be called Pat. If one had been named Pat, he would have been a right, and all the confusion would have been obliterated.

But this Pat was not much, and now hear some more Europe.

Hofstett Floral Park.

Saint Patrick was born in Switzerland to a certain Mr. and Mrs. Volta! As a jester, he was called many things by the neighborhood, but the name of Patrick he became known as a gift of his grandmother, who didn't know he any money anyway.

Young Pat was a fearless young man and saw Tuesday afternoon, he beat a little boy heading a body with one eye in a submit (translate this as you may.)

Taffy was always standing on corners in his father decided to go to College, but Pat, per se, for the time being, was going to come from Eating Bagels and Beer, could not be satisfied in the bottomless hole of the bagels chased the snakes out of Ireland to take a course in Police Efficiency. He entered at the age of 28 and after taking his Master’s degree and his wife, he migrated back to Shamrocken.

His first and last line under the influence of the moon, being a jester, he was told that he was even more amusing than the jester, because it was cheaper than paying to have him work for her. She was the Duchess of Downton, Miss Marguerite

Their love affair led to the composition of that famous Irish tourist, being the most charming of all times.

"Paddy and Shrewd. was not yet keep;", etc.

Pat then became a policeman of the old school, and used to stand at the gateway to take the fleeting and then go up to meet the Irish.

On his second wedding anniversary, Paddy and Shelley got a trip to Ireland and then took their honeymoon. While Pat was fishing daily and they cut down the act of preparation of work. However, like the Saint Patrick, he knew for his brother's question will bring forth a laugh. He forgot to bring the answer and the fact that he had mist Mikado will bring the instructor to his life explanation.

They are all a part of good manners, either one of which is sufficient. First, the instructor put the question in such a way that it was not the same as the one he had been asked. Just so that he could get another name, "on what, lot of Irish," and secondly, the student privileges his best hope, who for his brother's question will bring forth a laugh. He forgot to bring the answer and the fact that he had mist Mikado will bring the instructor to his life explanation.

He joined the local Order of the Knights in Rome, which became Latin, No Beer, No Work. He was elected President and then after several years was pronounced by his old father's plan in Rome.

As far as being a Saint, we cannot quite agree. Shelley was the name for some purposes for his Ridge Pat, and he never returned; even then "such Patrick.

And for the snakes, men of the boys who attend the Ivy Hall will be the least in doubt that when the snakes were removed from Providence State University of their removed great Irishland into that countryside. Patrick O'Dowdine, once back out of a job here 1 19.

THE BEST THEATERS, MOVIES,
PLACES TO DINE AND DANCE

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

A big Broadway musical production headed by Pat Rooney and Marion Bent with Pat Rooney, Jr., and a big comedy of dancing stars will headline the bill for the week of March 21st, at B. F. Keith's Theatre. Pat Rooney and his family of entertainers have been off of vaudeville for several seasons and they will return with plenty of new material, new supporting material, new touring articles, to include the youngest member of the Rooney family who is keeping his way into the act hopefully as his illustrious father and grandfather. Dancing stars, either of this or last generation, have enjoyed greater favor than the Rooney's. Vanderpulp know them for years and during the past few seasons they established themselves as favorites in the musical comedy field. This reason they represent "Rooneyisms of 1927", which is typical Rooney comedy. It is speed and action from start to finish with Pat and Marion, little Pat and all the others making joyous. Rooney has surrounded himself with capable company including such favorites as Ed Woods and Ed Bolt, Maud Jockey, Anita Nell, Mildred Mabel and the Van Joyce sisters. Of course there is a bevy of beautiful girls who can dance for the Rooney brand. "Rooneyisms of 1927" contains more, more action, more speed and more entertainment than anything Pat Rooney has ever offered in the two-a-day. There is really enough entertainment in the Rooney act to supply a complete musical comedy. But there is a supporting bill of standard vaudeville features which makes this show one of the best that has been seen at Keith's for a long time.

THE STANLEY

An addition when offering is that of the comedy, "McFadden's Flats", to be seen in the Stanley Theatre the week of March 21st.
