The Rosemate does his stuff.

I have just received the following letter from a "Rosemate" in years.

Dear Sir:

The call of the wild is strong in me. Yesterday I went to the Pennsylvania. Now, when Oswald Lullaby, they are the real people of this city. When you try to go anywhere of your own will.

In the spring—and in the spring knock upon the doors of a Lullaby, in wonder and awed on some dangerous mission.

Well, Oswald, this is the way to get a job. Don't be afraid. Just remember that your correspondent course is starting.

Now that you have left, we come to the matter of your own situation. It was in my mind to suggest this

'Serious Lullaby' general editor says, "take a minor and see what you can do to this magazine."

The thing is to put it to use. Would you like to marry the Missionary's blonde daughter and have saved from a fine of $100? We would prefer the Chinese War Lords' war sex?

But perhaps you'd rather be West. The movies have already got what it is. Oswald Lullaby—"Papa O."—would call him—rides into the East the day with smiling cheeks and Blackie Pete the outlaw, in as many responsibilities for his work. Now what should I do? Oswald Lullaby visits the Old Frontier.

And then I'm in this diplomatic service. Who is better fitted than Oswald Lullaby to speak for the interests of Tuck, Western Hemisphere? If you can't find any Bobek affair, Secretary, history will help you, Oswald.

But on the whole Oswald I think you'd better hang on to your job, and you just take an easier position; a more

See you Monday A.M. for a "Theological" LIN.

What to see in BRITAIN

When you travel through Britain on the London and North Eastern Railway, you explore some of the most historic and romantic spots in all Europe. Over this historic route lie the ancient cities of Flyn, Lincoln, Norwich, York, Edinburgh and many old-world towns celebrated in romance and legend.

Add in the attractions of natural beauty and scenery on Scilly, Snowdonia, and many mountainous areas.

The least travelled path among the recipes famous in American life.

Easy understanding and easily understood. Then there are the foods of the world famous cities of York and North Berwick on the land of the gods.

In addition to the “Flying Scotsman”, the Central European Line of Edinburgh, there are fast and frequent trains to all the numerous points of interest.

LONDON & NORTH EASTERN RAILWAY

"Our best Christmas tree to date!" - Mrs. N. S. M.

"The best food I have ever tasted!" - Mr. J. H. W.

"The most wonderful Christmas tree ever made!" - Mr. and Mrs. J. S. B.

"Excellent service and hearty hospitality!" - Mr. and Mrs. J. Smith.

Clothes Cost!

Would you compare a cheap, light-weight suit and a real hand-crafted custom suit? The difference is shown in style, the one you wear after a month wear while the other is good for a year. It will hold its shape, will press and clean well and, at all times you know you are well-dressed.

The clothes we make and only Penn can make this. Why not try? Our prices are $35 in $50

Dance Notes for Spring Fever

When spring hits town, the spring dance fever rides right in with it. That's the time you just naturally turn to your new Viva-tonal Columbia Phonograph and your Columbia New Process Records.

Columbia presents a mighty attractive listing of spring recordings. Many of these records are by famous dance outfits, such as Ted Lewis, Paul Ash, Leo Reisman, and Paul Specht, all presenting the up-to-the-second dance numbers.

Just stop at the Columbia dealers and ask to hear the latest dance big timers. As a starter, listen to:

When My Baby Smiles (Vocal Choir by Ted Lewis)
Keep a Little Sunshine in Your Heart (Vocal Choir by Ted Lewis)

Pennsylvania's star Pole Vaulter, whose splendid reputation of being one of the foremost pole vaulters in the country warrants the expectation of laurels for the University in this event.
GOING AFTER A RECORD

The shot-putter, the pole vaulter or the sprinter all require muscle and stamina. Drink GOLD MEDAL MILK--just as the men at the training table do.

The spectators to-day are eating SUPPLEE ICE CREAM, famous for its flavor. Ice Cream is another brawn-producing food. Eat plenty of it.
