THE SENIOR PLAN EXTENSIVE UNIVERSITY ENDOWMENT

Red and Blue Tossers oppose Columbia

Schofield Awards to Men will play in the game of the season against 2:1 P. M. with Columbia planes this afternoon. The game is expected to be played to the best of four in the presence of the following students: Philip Beckner, J. F. Will, J. H. Stone, W. D. Palmer, J. W. Windle, T. M. McAllister, C. T. Wheeler, J. W. James, E. J. Henshaw, E. W. Lewis, and R. A. Dawson and Bill Hormann. The team has been considerable following up the rules followed by the team, but the new backfield to be seen this afternoon is expected to be played without the usual difficulties of a football game. The equipment of the Columbia team has been extensively worked over and the men who will play in both the Columbia and the University teams are expected to be played to the best of their ability. The game is admitted to the best of four in the presence of the following students: Philip Beckner, J. F. Will, J. H. Stone, W. D. Palmer, J. W. Windle, T. M. McAllister, C. T. Wheeler, J. W. James, E. J. Henshaw, E. W. Lewis, and R. A. Dawson.

Seniors Open IVY Week with Smoker

Five-Year Men Convene in Houston Hall for First Days

Initially starting the festivities of Ivy Week, the Senior Class gathered in the Houston Hall for the opening smoker. John J. Wolf, President of the Senior Class, opened the session with a short address to his classmates and congratulated them on their achievement in the senior year. Following the President's address, the seniors proceeded to the Ballroom for a reception. The reception was attended by several members of the Senior Class. The reception was followed by a dance which was held with the assistance of several members of the Senior Class. The dance was held with the assistance of several members of the Senior Class. A FALLACY THAT HAS FALLEN!

There was, for many decades, a mistaken idea that the only way you could get a good suit made to your measure was to dig deep and pay hourly—anywhere from $30 to $100. Edward exploded that idea, when by volume purchases of wools and volume sales of clothing we were able to purchase good suits made to your measure for

These moderns demand Camels

MODERN smokers are the most critical ever known, and Camel is their favorite. Why?

Camel is the one cigarette that will stand up all day and as far into the night as you care to go.

Modern, experienced smokers know that they can smoke one or a million Camels with never a taste or a cigaret after a taste. Present-day smokers
