OARSMEN PREPARE FOR DERBY RACES

Red and Blue crews next meet Yale and Colgate in Phila. this year. The regatta is expected to be a strenuous one, and the crews have made many alterations in their training and tactics to meet the coming event. Pennsylvania has been meeting regularly throughout the season, and the men have been working hard to bring their crews up to par. The regatta is expected to be a keen one, and the fans are looking forward to a great showdown.

UNDERGRADUATES ASKED TO HELP FLOOD REFUGEES

Working with the University by supplying literature and contribution boxes. John Wolf, president of the Beta class, is drawing up plans for the drive and will appoint a committee to head the drive. Pennsylvania has offered its support and the success of the drive depends entirely on the student body. The condition of the flood area is such that immediate aid is needed and the promptness with which our drive can be conducted will be a strong factor in its success.

President Coolidge has realized the seriousness of the situation and has ordered all relief to be sent to the flood area. The support that the homeless people have received to date has been far from adequate to meet their needs and the help which we can give is more than welcome to the people.

writes:

"My teachers, Trabello and Richard Bartelemy, all impressed upon me the solemn warning that I must always treat my throat as a delicate instrument. Yet every artist is under constant strain. Sometimes we get real relaxation in smoking a cigarette. I prefer Lucky Strikes—which both protects the throat and gives real enjoyment."

You, too, will find that Lucky Strikes are mild and mellow—the finest cigarettes you ever smoked, made of the finest Turkish and domestic tobaccos, properly aged and blended with great skill, and there is an extra process—"It's toasted"—no harshness, not a bit of bite

WHEN YOU NEED A CAR

For a Special Occasion

EVERY now and then there’s a social event that almost demands you have a car for a day or an evening. In which case you’ll find it mighty convenient to step into our station—select your car and be on the way—yourself at the wheel.

You rent a car in about two minutes. No red tape. No annoying questions. And our service has this decided advantage—the cost is so low you can afford to use a car frequently if you wish.

The only requirement is that you be qualified and competent to drive a car. That’s all.

Next time you want to go somewhere—days, evenings or week-ends—we invite you to one of our cars. You’ll like the service.

Ride in Groups and Split the Cost

It costs no more for five to ride in one of our cars. Plan a trip with three or four others—divide the toll—and the trip to each is so small you’ll never miss it.

After noting Mary SWAN again it seems as though the day might be said would surely be a feebly chilly.

So Min has paused on, over the Hall of Fame, and his native fare will be condensed, blue fenders and all, in the cozy room in a spacious house, saving plenty of breath, and then placed in the gap that is made when the men go out to the Conferences for the Experiment that Swimming Pool.

It is expected that Fortuna will hold that spot quite near, and yet to retain fast names, will make a perfect in the same pose in original, a water tests.

It certainly is wonderful the power that Min had over the women.

We felt that these ladies were quite thinking with us, and now it is up to New Orleans to carry on the tradition that has lasted since the days of the tides, and beds.

We felt that we are no match for such splendid spirits as the young ladies have at their disposal, and are not the means concerned for Fred writes most of our own tricks for them.

The start of spring and a baseball victory were too much for a very select group of students who played a good bit of recreation in the most agreeable weather.

As usual, the boys got a little rough, and it was feared for a little that Arthur Whiting, who was on the track with the bridge on his hip, would be called upon to tell the boys a hell story in the presence of the firm.

RED AND BLUE TOSSETTS OVERTAKE LEHIGH NINE

Both sides entered two times in the ninth, and Stanford went up the second. Pennsylvania's last hit was on two walks, two sacrifices, and an error.

The winning run was made in the seventh inning when with one out, Todd, as singles, stole second, went third on American's balk, and scored, with Armstrong, by Cornell's last single. Armstrong kicked it to third, and with a missing throw on Todd, the score is tied. In the eighth, Stanford had little trouble in knocking the invaders in the last three innings.

Some close decisions by the umpires, uncertain fielding, and the batting activity of both teams kept the score on the rise. Stanford scored four times in ten innings. Stanford fanned twice, and those two hit four out-of-area. Cornell started at bat for Pennsylvania, with two hits in three times up, while Roosevelt tapped the lefthand basemen. The Red and Blue strutters whose averages dropped today still attempt to receive them in the game with Vincy on Saturday.

Chairman Bridge of the Ticket Sales Committee reports that there are still a few tickets remaining and that these will be on sale in Houston and Logan Halls today and at ten o'clock this evening. He also announces that the committee will be relieved of the task of taking the tickets at the door and of dealing with "wanderers." Full charge of this has been assigned to the police and to a squad of patrolmen.

The committee for the sale several hours after the sale are expected to sell ticket, and today will be used by the Event Decorating Company in preparing the decorations for the broadcast of the music and in installing the final lights for the mailing purposes.

Woe Unto You Who Forget The Date

Every man has about five dates a year that he must, at all costs, remember—so jot down on your calendar a week in advance—Straw Hat Day and link there-with the name The Campus Shop.

Once a top-piece of stiff and clumsy aspect—now a hat of dashing and spirited youth—the Straw has returned with sudden new-found brilliance. You'll see them everywhere.

Perhaps you think you can't wear a straw—Then permit us to suggest the Guilford-Bacharach straws—There's some sort of magic in their lines which transforms any face they may adorn—perfectly proportioned —pitched and poised.
