Big Green Team Games Victory in Final Event for Season

Victory Over Pennsylvania and Columbia Marks End of 74th "Straw Hat" Day

Big Green Team won the final event of the season, beating Pennsylvania and Columbia at the "Straw Hat" Day meeting held Saturday afternoon. The final event was the hammer throw, McGlaughlin for Pennsylvania, Howey for Columbia, and Giles and Glenn for the Big Green team, who held down third place and earned a silver loving cup for finishing third. First and second place was held by the New York track star led the field for so many innings and entered any other event. The Pennsylvania team, in the meet was in doubt until the last few seconds, in the 72-1-2 to 62-2-3 race, and that turned out to be the deciding factor in the meet victory.

VICTORY IN FINAL MATCH

New York school won by 72-1-2 to 62-2-3 in the match at West Point. The Big Green and Blue team was in the top ten.

"Roxy" heard by millions, a favorite in Radio-land, always careful of his voice:
writes:
"During a strenuous re-hearsal, with the work entailed in operating the World's Largest Theatre, where one's nervous system is working under great pressure, there is nothing quite like a Lucky Strike cigarette. It does not impair the voice, and gives the mental relaxation so essential to carry on."

You, too, will find that Lucky Strikes are mild and mellow—the finest cigarettes you ever smoked, made of the finest Turkish and domestic tobaccos, properly aged and blended with great skill, and there is an extra process—"It's toasted"—no harshness, not a bit of bite.

AN INVITATION
Many of you Pennsylvanians, in the years to come, will be engaged in manufacturing or in selling manufacturers’ products. The more you know about manufacturing processes, the easier your particular problems will become.

All of you in the not distant future will have homes of your own. How will they be furnished? We may be able to assist you both in your future work and home.

AN INVITATION
is extended to all of you to visit our mill and see how Claridge Wide Seamless Carpets are made. You will have an interesting visit and we are the pleasure of knowing that you will then know better.

A THRIVING SPURT

During the last few years, minor sports have made rapid strides at the University. The stadium body has manifested great improvement in its activities. Competitors have turned in much larger numbers, and as a natural consequence, the honor and prestige of the university has increased in all its campaigns.

One of the several sports which have enjoyed increased prominence during the past year is boxing. You can see hints from the ranks of sportspersons throughout the country that Rochester is coming to the front, and the University, by providing additional facilities as the demand arises, is now making definite headway in this field of the sport.

The River Field course, which were constructed two years ago, have been almost constantly in use through the season. By enrolling a larger number of undergraduates to participate in the boxing events, the University has in effect sponsored the sport, with immense benefits.

Subsequent to the opening of the course on River Field, several tournaments were inaugurated, which have already become annual affairs. The intercollegiate boxing, the finals of which were completed yesterday, drew a large number of students from the leading schools across the state. For the first time an underclassman was selected for Pennsylvania undergraduates draw a large number of entries, creating demand for the sport and adding even more to the excitement of the event.

We are glad to note the increased interest manifested in the hot sport, and hope that the game will continue to thrive both on and off the campus. At interschool events, with adequate facilities provided, the sport may stand on its own feet.

PLAN AHEAD

What are you going to do this summer and graduate? This is a question which college undergraduates are confronted almost immediately, and with which every student must deal. What will you do with your time, except for the time spent in college studies who are prepared with a sports mind are already lining up for their summer careers. This means an increase in the number of students who will be participating in summer sports, which has already been noted in the increased number of student activities and intramural sports.

As you plan your studies and activities, consider how you will spend your summer. Are you going to take classes or work? How will you keep in touch with your friends? Are you going to travel or stay at home?

While we are afraid it would not suit many of our men to have their college careers end after their summer vacation, we believe that this summer should be a good time to have some definite aims in mind before the last month of college passes by.

In our college, we advise that you use this summer to study, not only for your own personal enjoyment, but also to prepare yourself for the demands of life. This means an increase in the number of students who will be participating in summer sports, which has already been noted in the increased number of student activities and intramural sports.

Mask and Wig Plays to Large Audience at Metropolitan Opera House on Saturday Night

CAST AWARDED SIGNAL HONOR

Playing to full houses at both afternoon and evening performances the Mask and Wig Club brought their 329th production in a close at the Metropolitan Opera House in New York on Saturday. The box office reported all seats had been sold for both performances more than a week before the play. F. I. Willitts with his "Old Master" novelty song run comically out of verse before he was permitted to stop while several of the dancers received applause throughout.

Before the evening performance Mr. Henry Riegh and prominent Philadelphia fraternities students of this University and Founders of the Pennsylvania Club in New York entertained the members of the cast with a dinner at that Club. They returned to the theatre immediately after on Friday night they played their last play in Philadelphia at the Academy of Music. A great number of the patrons of the Ivy Hall were present in addition to the Alumni of the University of Michigan who attended in a body. As it was the show last appearance in their university the cast took special pains with their production which were thoroughly appreciated.

The performances last Friday and Saturday afternoon finished one of the most successful seasons in Mask and Wig history.

Undergraduates Urged To Attend Conference

...are the new dining hall, just constructed, the nine-wooden cabins, built on the open style and the assembly hall. The athletic facilities provide for participation in such sports as baseball, volleyball, tennis, swimming, boating and hiking. Most of the buildings and dormitory groups will be held in the natural outdoor setting. The total cost, including board, tuition free to and from Philadelphia, and the dollar registration fee is twenty dollars. The Christian Association officials are that those people interested the details can secure them at the organization office 9422 Woodland Avenue.
