MERCERSBURG VICTOR LAST YEAR

Forty-three schools, 80 percent of which are in the east, took part in the contest. Because of the success of the 1980-81 competition, the contest has been expanded to include schools in the west and south.

THESE THREE CONTENDERS FOR THE MERCERSBURG VICTOR

The three schools that are expected to contend for the MERCERSBURG VICTOR are:

1. Red Cross Collection
   - Red Cross Collection is a well-established charity that has been active for many years. It supports various causes, including medical and educational aid.

2. United Way
   - United Way is a nationwide charity that raises funds to support various community initiatives. It focuses on areas such as health, education, and social services.

3. Salvation Army
   - The Salvation Army is a faith-based charity that provides various services to those in need, including food, shelter, and emergency assistance.

These three charities are expected to be strong contenders for the MERCERSBURG VICTOR, and the competition is expected to be fierce.

P.S.

The competition is expected to be intense, and all three charities are expected to give their best efforts to secure the MERCERSBURG VICTOR.

As the current truck season nears a close, truck enthusiasts have turned their attention to the coming Intercollegiate Championship Truck and Field Meet that will be held at Franklin Field, May 27 and 28. Under the direction of Edwin F. Hoenig, Jr., Manager of Trucks, the Intercollegiate trucks are rapidly taking shape and this year's meet should be one of the most successful in the history of the I. C. A. A.

The interest at this time is being centered on Pacific Coast Colleges and Universities which have been running in performance far better than those made in the East. Southern California, winner of last year's title honor at Harvard in gaining a strong and well balanced aggregation to defend its crown in this year's contest. Long Beach College, runner up in Southern California last year will add even a better team than that which represented this University last year at Cal Poly. In addition Stanford has the distinction of having beaten both last year's champions and the University of California in a triangular meet held on the coast a short time ago. According to this year's record Stanford will send the stronger team and is favored to enter the crown in the East Games here.

Although the west is the site favorite to duplicate last year's fast, Eastern Colleges and Universities have not been idle and will undoubtedly cause considerable trouble for the invading group. Three truck enthusiasts and short loops of victory on Harvard, Yale, Cornell and Penn State all of which have revealed well balanced teams and should account for a large share of points in the coming title race.

NAME YOUR SPORT!

Bathing

With the temperature slowly changing to a favorable warmth, the time now comes to decide whether it is to be a seaside vacation. An affirmative decision should mean a preliminary visit to Sears.

Baseball

What sweeter sound than the automatic crack of bat against ball? What prettier sight than a beautifully arched drive over the distant fence. Equipment thoroughly professional at Sears’ low prices.

Tennis

You can “judge” for yourself the dependability of our “best” supplies and then we might tell you the favorable judgment of several well-known amateur and professional players. Prices are inexpensively.

Golfing

The grip of a good club gives the golfer the needed assurance to better his game. Better equipment brings better scores. We believe our prices better on this better equipment.

Camping

Why try to restrain that in-born urge to roam the wide-open spaces? We have everything the trekker will want for his trip—luxury or small—by foot or car. Extend the trip by saving on your equipment.

The program will have other interest as well, and will bring home, in a special intersection, the Allen K. Foster Club-Web Review.

Gloria Swanson, in her latest picture, "The Love of Sahara," will be seen at the Stanley Theatre the week of May 21. The pictures will have other interest as well, and will bring home, in a special section, the Allen K. Foster Club-Web Review.

The Love of Sahara," an adaptation of the stage play "Eyes of Youth," Miss Swanson is seen in an incarnation of an Egyptian girl, at the end of which she is chief of the staff of a personal sushi chef, the wife of a millionaire, a modern American girl, and a practically perfect and un Moffat motive at the 11th, that of a lover is played d by a non-actor John Riley, one of a Texas version. Address in Sequins, for er her Metropolitan Opera Company, starts
Thec 11 as an impromptu
Jack Belden, whom Miss Swanson brought in the screen several years ago, to close.

Julia Claussen, Metropolitan Opera Star, who protects her voice, writes:

“When I decided to smoke cigarettes, I looked about to see which brand was in favor with most men. The answer was easy to find. I noticed that practically all the men at the opera were smoking Lucky Strikes. I learned from them that cigarettes, delightful in flavor, left their voices in splendid shape for their singing. So I tried Lucky Strikes and knew that they do not affect my throat.”

You, too, will find that Lucky Strikes are mild and mellow—the finest cigarettes you ever smoked, made of the finest Turkish and domestic tobaccos, properly aged and blended with great skill, and there is an extra process—“It’s toasted”—no harshness, not a bit of bite.

“It’s toasted” Your Throat Protection

When in New York you are cordially invited to see how Lucky Strikes are made at our exhibit, corner Broadway and 45th Street.
