Rodrigues, Fellen, Silverberg Take Leading Roles
In Quinn Production of Spreck's Broadway Hit

A staff member of The Daily Pennsylvanian looks over some of the orange and black painted left by the unidentified Pennsylvania students who fed early Friday morning with a dash of paint on the back wall of the Palatins.

A feature of the annual drive for the Benjamin Franklin Society Room this evening will be the presentation of the Benjamin Franklin Society Award, established by a group of alumni in memory of Benjamin Franklin, and presented to a student who exhibits outstanding service to the University and its students.

POOR RICHARD'S ALMANAC

by John M. Godke

New Englanders, in general, and Bostonians, in particular, have long been regarded as being a bit... well, let’s just say it, it’s a region with a reputation. And therein lies the rub. True, no one would deny that New Englanders are a special breed, with their own unique culture and way of life. But the stereotype is often one of quaint and retiring, of a place where life moves at a slower pace, a place where the past is revered and the future is left to others.

Night Editor

The essence of the problem is that the stereotype is just that, a stereotype. It’s a simplification, a shorthand way of describing a complex reality. For every New Englander who fits the stereotype, there are many who do not. And it’s this diversity that makes the region so interesting.

Wilde Stands Out In Cross-Country

Determination and spirit, two essentials of cross-country, are typified by Pete Wilde, captain of the Quaker harriers. That soon to be first in the Columbia Mile and Ohio State Mile this afternoon, Doug Gamble, who did not bend. Wilde also started a system of guiding up the hills of all the course. Those hills are a source to most of the runners.

The hills however, were no obstacle to Wilde in the time trial. As to his finish, of the Quakers, the record of 17:38 set by Wilde speed to a 17:30 clocking in a 3.3 mile time trial to break all the 3:3 second.

Last year Wilde was usually fifth man for the Red and Blue. This year, a week further along in training, ran the course in 18:10—Wilde covered 11.1 miles In 11:10—Wilde covered 11.1 miles in 11:10.

WXPN Will Broadcast British Transitions
Ivy Network, comprised of radio stations in the Ivy League, has announced that tonight, broadcast by the University of Pennsylvania Corporation, WXPN will present the one hour programs on Monday and Thursday nights from October 7 through December 16. "The Quakers" will be broadcast on Monday nights at 7:30 p.m. and "The Junior Prom" on Thursday nights at 8:00 p.m.

Freshman Booths for Prom
Provided by Dorm Council
Dormitory Council will provide a freshman booth section at the Junior Prom on Friday, October 29, as an added unity in the freshman class. This section, described by William J. Hickey, dorm council president, is a place where dormitory representatives can be purchased at reduced rates. Freshman representatives will sell tickets to the Prom and arrange for freshman booths.

International Influence On U. Paining Discussed
"International Influences Upon Contemporary American Painting" was the topic of an art forum held last night at the University Union.

Participating in the program were Robert D. Goldman, artist and educator, Dorothy McAuliffe, curator of "Art in Focus," and Knute L. Jorgensen, professor of art history at the University of Pennsylvania. Dr. H. H. Levitt, chairman of the French Club, and the Junior Prom ticket committee chairman, arranged and sponsored the evening.

The French Club will meet today at 1:30 p.m. in the Union to plan the 1954-55 program.

Hillel To Hold Services
Dolly Goutman, speaker, was introduced by William Gruber, Hillel president.

Participating in the program were Dorothy Grafly, director of the Moore Institute of Art; John Moore, 13-7, student at the British Museum at London; and Richard Clancy, chairman of the campus chest drive.

Cinema Club Starts Fall Film Program
The Cinema Club opened its 1954-55 program on Monday night at 7:30 p.m. in Fox Hall. "The Quakers" will be broadcast on WXPN, the University's radio station.

The Cinema Club's regular program will continue through December and will feature "The Strange Ones," "The Informer," "Thieves," and several other notable films.

Shorts will be shown on Wednesdays at 5 and 7 p.m. in the University Museum.

The Cinema Club also sponsors the Filmart series, especially for students interested in the artistic and experimental film. The series of four: The Poetic Documentary, "The American Film," "The Experimental Film," and "The Russian Film." CINEMA CLUB PRESIDENTS:

Richard Clancy, chairman of the campus chest drive, will be Sam Bernardinger's "Peter Pan" on Monday night at 7:30 in WXPN. The show is part of a radio series sponsored by The Daily Pennsylvanian, which includes WYSP, "The Daily Pennsylvanian Report," and the British Translations of the BBC. The series will be broadcast on Sundays at 5 p.m.

The expected duel between Hynoski and Flippin ended with Flippin winning 64 yards in 15 carries for a 4.8 average, while Hynoski gained only 16 yards in 16 carries for a 1.0 average.

The Quakers tied the count to-the-final seconds of the third period with a Jim Miller to John Lavlin pass that was caught by Junior Leon Hardy that was good for six yards, bringing Penn into Princeton territory with a first down on the Tiger 49 yard line.

Two and seven yard gains by Hyland brought the ball to the Princeton 40 yard line with five minutes and one second to go and Penn elected to run and the submarine kicked a field goal from the same spot.
