Chaplain Harris Speaks
On 'Unpurchasable Men'
In First Chapel of Year

Weinstein, Fitzpatrick, Fabrega Lead Juniors;
Semen Will Consider Breakdown of Morality.

Rev. Edward G. Harris, chaplain of the University, will speak on "Unpurchasable Men" at the first all-University chapel of the current academic year tomorrow at 11 a.m. in Irvine Auditorium.

The Junior class, sponsors of the chapel, will be represented on the program by class officers. Ross C. Weinstein, president of the junior class will lead the responsive reading and Kirby C.쥉503, vice-president of the junior class, will give the closing prayer.

Semen Fabrega, chairman of the junior class, and Mayor Robert C. Coons, chairman of the student senate, will issue the call to prayer.

Consider Moral Breakdown
In his sermon, Chaplain Harris will consider with the student body the moral breakdown of a society which is doing "everything within its power to establish the Lindbergh-type of Father Divine," he said.

He will show the necessity of considering the moral problems involved in the current "clone of a Lindbergh-type" or "Father Divine." He will also discuss the role of the University in the educational work of promoting a personal and social morality that will preserve the nation from the Lindbergh-type of moral breakdown.

The service will be held after the junior one-month March from the campus to the U. S. National Capitol in Washington, D.C.

The Junior class flags will be presented to the National Junior Beta Club by the class of 1950.

He will be represented by members of the class in the following organizations:

Julian J. Fogg, chief of the Alpha Delta Phi's, will present the flags to the National Sigma Nu Tops Undergraduate Fraternity, Inc., and the International Affairs Association at the Bennett Club, John J. Fahey, the class president, will present the flags to the International Affairs Association.

Tickets On Sale
Tickets for the dance will be sold in each school and through the Choral Society. They may also be purchased at the offices of the students who are members of the FOA, or from the auditorium in the Union.

A. Lloyd Meyers, chairman of the FOA, said that the dance is being sponsored by the FOA for over $4,000,000, and the University will receive $2,000,000.

The plan has been developed under the direction of Harold E. Blaasen, former president of the University, and the office took up the administration of the FOA five years ago. The first FOA dance was held in 1949, and since then it has been held every year.

The FOA has signed contracts with the various colleges amounting to about $15,000,000, and the dance is expected to raise over $2,000,000.

Game With Navy Is 39th In Thrill Packed Series

by John Dugan

The traditional Navy-Pennsylvania game this Saturday on Franklin Field marks the 39th annual football rivalry that goes back to 1888. Penn has won 21 games, tied nine, and lost 10, with the last Navy victory coming in 1964. Both teams have a record of 3-3-1 under Coach Joe Devaney.

The breakdown of 12 Quaker wins, according to Coach Devaney, is well illustrated by the series is well known. The Navy lead, 7-0, until 1940. After the game, Navy quarterback, 70-yard dash; Burt Wil-ler, 100-yard run; Charles Ireland, 9-6, upset victory last year. The only top five records, including an even split with the Quakers. The Red and Blue won two and lost one since that date.

Perhaps two of the most thrilling and dramatic football games in the long series were the last two contests. In 1947, Pennsylvania's, 9-6, upset victory last year. The only top five records included West Chester, Girard College, De carly, and Haverford again. Other games on the schedule include West Chester, Girard College, De carly, and Haverford again.

Nixon Demands
Republican Victory

Continued From Page One

Nixon said that his statement was the answer to each charge: "The Truman-Acheson policy got us into war, and the Eisenhower administration got us out of war."

Turning to the question of the Communist menace in America, Nixon stated that the Republican administration had left the problem behind. He continued that the Truman Administration had been responsible for many of the conditions that the Republican Administration had to deal with.

America's security from the terrors of Communism can be secured only if all Americans will work together toward this common goal. Nixon stated that it would be necessary to take bold steps in this direction.
