Freshmen's First Social Affair To Feature Tea, Queen Crowning, Prom

Queen Crowning at Midnight in Penn-Sherwood, Walt Simpson's Band Will Be Featured at Dance

The winning queen, who will be crowned during the intersession of the freshman dance, first social activity of the Class of '58, will be chosen at a tea to be held before the Prom in Stotesbury Hall from 4 to 9 p.m. A gentle of queen candidates should reach Malcolm A. Winger, Stotesbury Hall, 2102, by October 28.

In order to be preliminarily eligible for the freshman week end contest, the queen candidate must be a member of a freshman sorority and must have been elected a freshman student leader. Any member of the freshman class, therefore, may compete for the top honor in the Tea, when Queen of Sug instantly becomes a freshman queen at midnight Friday, October 24, at the Penn-Sherwood Hotel.

In order for the occasion. Coronation of the freshman queen will be held at the new Penn-Sherwood Hotel. In the past three years the coronation has been held at the Penn Hotel.

To purchase corsages for the occasion. Coronations, a silent auction will be held at the Houston Hall Infor- mation Desk, 209, between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m.

Those interested will be informed that corsages will not be sold at this auction. Proceeds of the sale will be donated to the University Assembly, which is donating the cost of the freshman queen. Present for the affair, which will be attended by students from the University of Pennsylvania, will be the Army game.

FATHER DIVINE

FATHER DIVINE: Father, I am not the same person that I was forty-five years ago. I have been a missionary and a teacher of Truth. I have spent the last forty-five years teaching the people the ways and meanings of God. I have been a teacher of Truth and have been an example of what it means to be a living example of God. I have been a teacher of Truth and have been an example of what it means to be a living example of God.

FATHER DIVINE: Mother, I am a teacher of Truth and have been an example of what it means to be a living example of God. I have been a teacher of Truth and have been an example of what it means to be a living example of God. I have been a teacher of Truth and have been an example of what it means to be a living example of God.

FATHER DIVINE: Son, I am a teacher of Truth and have been an example of what it means to be a living example of God. I have been a teacher of Truth and have been an example of what it means to be a living example of God. I have been a teacher of Truth and have been an example of what it means to be a living example of God.

FATHER DIVINE: Daughter, I am a teacher of Truth and have been an example of what it means to be a living example of God. I have been a teacher of Truth and have been an example of what it means to be a living example of God. I have been a teacher of Truth and have been an example of what it means to be a living example of God.

FATHER DIVINE: Brother, I am a teacher of Truth and have been an example of what it means to be a living example of God. I have been a teacher of Truth and have been an example of what it means to be a living example of God. I have been a teacher of Truth and have been an example of what it means to be a living example of God.

FATHER DIVINE: Sister, I am a teacher of Truth and have been an example of what it means to be a living example of God. I have been a teacher of Truth and have been an example of what it means to be a living example of God. I have been a teacher of Truth and have been an example of what it means to be a living example of God.

FATHER DIVINE: Friend, I am a teacher of Truth and have been an example of what it means to be a living example of God. I have been a teacher of Truth and have been an example of what it means to be a living example of God. I have been a teacher of Truth and have been an example of what it means to be a living example of God.

FATHER DIVINE: Student, I am a teacher of Truth and have been an example of what it means to be a living example of God. I have been a teacher of Truth and have been an example of what it means to be a living example of God. I have been a teacher of Truth and have been an example of what it means to be a living example of God.

FATHER DIVINE: Child, I am a teacher of Truth and have been an example of what it means to be a living example of God. I have been a teacher of Truth and have been an example of what it means to be a living example of God. I have been a teacher of Truth and have been an example of what it means to be a living example of God.

FATHER DIVINE: Grandchild, I am a teacher of Truth and have been an example of what it means to be a living example of God. I have been a teacher of Truth and have been an example of what it means to be a living example of God. I have been a teacher of Truth and have been an example of what it means to be a living example of God.

FATHER DIVINE: Great-grandchild, I am a teacher of Truth and have been an example of what it means to be a living example of God. I have been a teacher of Truth and have been an example of what it means to be a living example of God. I have been a teacher of Truth and have been an example of what it means to be a living example of God.

Poll Shows AB's Need Economics
by Stuart Feldman

More than half of all American college graduates with Bachelor of Arts degrees know nothing about every day business and are unable to read even simple financial reports, according to a survey conducted by Ralph Block, Chicago businessman, reported in the New York Times.

College presidents and deans agreed that the poll stated that some courses in business education should be available to all students and that an understanding of basic business is necessary even for lawyers, doctors and scientists, who will have to deal with business transactions, and accountants, who will be required to sign business papers.

The survey shows that there is a great lack of interest in the field and industry through surveys such as Shulman's and the poor performance of AB's who have been found "unwillingly liberal" when hire.

The poll also suggested that the business curriculum should include practical how-to-do business courses.

The Arizona State University, according to its President, Richard H. Marvitz, is planning to offer a year's course in economics and business in 1956.

The survey showed that AB's who have been found "unwillingly liberal" might hire several of those
