Midnight Closing Hour
For Reserve Book Room
Will Begin on Monday

‘No Difficulties Forseen In New Plan’ - Wright

Library Director Comments on Lighting Situation

Final arrangements have been made for keeping the Reserve Book Room open until midnight starting next Monday, according to Walter W. Wright, head of the Service Division of the Library.

“Wright stated that the plan will be given a fair test, but he is reported not to be concerned about it being discontinued.”

Wright said that the Reserve Book Room, a part of the University Libraries, added: “We expect that patrons will find the service of the Reserve Book Room very useful. We are not aware of any complaints about the service.”

“Wright said that he had no idea how many people would use the Reserve Book Room. However, he said he expected that the number of people using the Reserve Book Room would increase.”

Wright added that the Reserve Book Room will be open during the summer months.

Open House Held at Physics Building for Educators

The Daily Pennsylvanian takes the opportunity of the Physics Building's Open House to present to the student body what was presented to faculty members of area high schools Wednesday: an introduction to the plant and some of the facilities of the most recently completed project in Pennsylvania's development program.

The group of people in the top picture is gathered around the beta ray spectrometer. This instrument analyzes electrons from radioactive nuclei according to their relative speed. Jack Kane, a graduate physics student checks the spectrometer with an oscilloscope as the chief of the research project, Dr. Sherman Frankel looks on.

In the bottom picture two physics students assemble an electronic circuit. The student on the right is soldering the partially assembled circuit onto an aluminum chassis.

This aerial photograph of the new Physics Building was taken by D.P. photographer Julian Wasser from a Piper Tri-Pacer chartered from the Atlantic Aviation Service at International Airport. The exposure was made at an altitude of one thousand feet with a fourteen inch telephoto lens mounted on a four by five Speed Graphic press camera.

Winston tastes good—like a cigarette should!

NOW! A filter cigarette real smokers can enjoy!

FINER FILTER!
FINER FLAVOR!
KING SIZE, TOO!

Winston brings flavor back to filter smoking—full, rich, tobacco flavor! No wonder college smokers are flocking to Winston—on campuses across the country! Along with real flavor—the kind you've been missing in filter smokes—Winston brings you a finer filter. This exclusive Winston filter is unique, different, truly superior! It works so effectively, yet doesn't "thin" the taste or flatten the flavor. Winstons are king-size, too, for extra filtering action—and easy-drawing for extra good taste. Try a pack of Winstons!
Blak's Cadets Specialize In Slaughter of Grid Foes

by John Duggan

Although upset by South Carolina in its opening game, subsequently-subjected by Virginia, Coach Earl "Red" Blaik's Army football team has made a standard practice of rolling up adding machine totals when it lines up against teams rated low in the polls. Of the 14 teams the Cadets have faced so far, only one has scored 20 or more points: Army's 30-0 rout of the Buckeyes June 30.

Penn Football Team Last In Ivy Offense, Defense

Pennsylvania ranks last among Ivy Leaguers in offense and defense according to the latest league football statistics.

The Quakers have netted 132.2 total yards in 418 running and pass attempts for an average of 188.9 yards per game. Pennsylvania opponents have picked up 369.6 yards a game.

Pennsylvania's defensive woes is further illustrated by the 212 points scored by opponents against the Quakers. 163 points came on touchdown passes while only three scores came through the air.

When Byrnesm's team rolls up 21 first downs and 500 yards of offense against one of the Ivy League teams, Blaik's Cadets give it back twice more in the contest on a 59 yard heave to Holleder, who returned to his halfback post after being injured in the opener, scored twice for the Cadets running as the Cadet backs piled up 21 first downs and 500 yards of offense against one of the Ivy League teams, Blaik's Cadets give it back twice more in the contest on a 59 yard heave to Holleder, who returned to his halfback post after being injured in the opener, scored twice for the Cadets.

The Black Knights kept marching as they standardized previously unbeaten Duke, 24-14, at Durham. Vann, who stayed in on field with a sprained ankle, was the key to the Cadets' defense as he raced 64 yards for a touchdown. He has scored six touchdowns on the season and four this year.

Vann Sparkles Passing

Army's answer to Ralph Guglielmini was Bob Kaysky, who added two halfback passes to the lineup as he scored twice for the Cadets and Vann tossed three touchdown passes.

150 Grid Team Closes Season Against Cornell

Pennsylvania's lightweight gridders wind up their season tomorrow when they travel to Ithaca for the big game. The Quakers, after dropping their last three games, rebounded last week and toppled Villanova, 12-9.

A win would give the lightweight a final record for the campaign of 2-3. The team, according to several key men, still has a chance in the starting lineup for tomorrow's game. Quarterback Frank Birch has a bad ankle and it does not relate to his treatment. Charlie Anderson will open at the signal-calling post.

The Quakers will be top rate in defense of their title won last Sunday. The Cornell encounter was a battle between evenly matched teams.
