Board Announce Winner of "T" Treasure Hunt

Wharton School Dean Selection Board

Dr. Dayton P. Harwood and William H. P. Harwood, Jr., announce the selections of the Wharton School Dean Selection Committee for the position of Dean of the Wharton School.

The committee consists of Thomas A. Buzell, acting Dean of the Wharton School; Alfred G. Hunter, professor of Political Science; Bernard F. Cardozo, professor of Law; Charles E. Mayo, professor of Economics; Thomas C. Corwin, professor of Business; Clarence A. King, professor of Commerce; and Charles W. Ruth, professor of Finance. Professor Ruth, elected chairman of the committee and Professor Corwin, vice chairman.

They will recommend to the selection of likely candidates.

Will Recommend List

The main function of this committee is to recommend to the Board of Faculty a list of candidates who have proper qualifications for the position of Dean of the Wharton School. These qualifications have been laid down by the Board of Faculty and the Board of Trustees, and a list of candidates has been set for the final determination of the Board.

T Treasure Hunt

T Treasure Hunt, the Saturday night event of the day is a treasure hunt for the Lena the Hyena comic strip, illustrated by Basil Wolverton. The Lena the Hyena comic strip features a large, black and white cat named Lena who has a penchant for making mischief.

The Mask and Wig Mask and Wig Mas
t and Wig are Essential To Show's Success

The Mask and Wig Club are a group which you won't see on stage during the show, but the work behind the scenes is essential to the success of the production. The work covers costumes, scenery, stage props, and any other details which come up during rehearsals or shows. The club members are paid for each show and make sure that each is taken care of during the run and all performances. The club is headed by Carl J. Stein, a professional stage manager, and Joanne K. B. Bertelsen, a professional stage manager. The club's goal is to make sure that the show runs smoothly and that the audience is entertained.

Matthews Chosen To Lead
Penn Chapter of AAUP

Professor Robert D. Matthews, of the School of Business and Commerce, was elected president of the University chapter of the American Association of University Professors.

The election meeting, held in the University Hall, was attended by Matthews and other members of the chapter.

The informal dance featured the music of Walt Simpson and G. Edward Janosik of the University Chapel and the third movement of the fourth symphony. The band paraded before the game, by the 1400 Cadets who were quartering the field, in front of the stands, and a half time show was given on the field.

Army Trounces Penn, 35-0
For Seventh Straight Win

Army's 10-0-0 football team, in a style reminiscent of the Blanchard-Davis era of plenty, turned loose three potent All-Americans, Pete Vann, Tom Bell, and Don Hollinder to steamroller the Quakers, 35-0, on Franklin Field, Saturday before a Pennsylvania homecoming crowd of 39,134.

The awesome trio personally accounted for the seven touchdowns as the Cadets won their seventh straight game, a record in the loss to California. The loss services, and policy changes introduced by Coach Dudge, may be a bit too soft for those in the community who feel that the team is not being pushed hard enough.

Pogo on Best Seller List
As Comics Hit The High-Brow
by A. S. Carlin

Comic books long frowned on by many as a pastime of a raw American lower-middle class, have been betrayed, in a sense, by the fact that a comic book is on the best seller lists now. "Incomparable Pogo," in a case of comic books, an exception, a miracle. Pogo is gone in there. He is a new sort of horror and crime comic that is being bought for all sorts of reasons. Comics have long been based by educators and others on the idea that they are thefastest, or most true way of teaching children about the tests of children, and for inspiring them to reading. They may be finding a new era of the comic book. Comics for the lower classes have been to blame first of all on Al Capo creator of the comic book, and some popular books on two distinct levels. Viewed from a distance, they are a bit of a joke, but really easy one can see being satire.

Second to blame for this new look in the form of a comic book is "Pogo," which is a song, with Steve alternately singing and far without Faye Emerson. It is a song, with Steve alternately singing and far without Faye Emerson. "Pogo" the Porcupine, is the best seller on the New York Times Best Seller List. True to admit that some people just don't have any style, but we insist neverthe-

Columbia Fresh Clip
Red and Blue, 6-0
The Pennsylvania freshman football team suffered its third defeat of the season on Friday when it dropped a 6-0 decision to the Columbia Redskins at Baker Field.

The homecoming game came in the first quarter on the second play from scrimmage, when Leon halfback Bradley Howard took a handoff from quarterback Penny Van and ran 63 yards on an off tackle slant to score.

The Quakers, with a strong ground attack, threatened on couple occasions, but the Lion defense held the best attempt of seven attempts—two minutes and seconds.

The Red and Blue are hoping to follow the same pattern today.

Quaker Bootie Tie Navy
In Double Overtime Battle Gator Choo, an All-American last year, scored a goal in the last three minutes of regulation time at Annapolis and forced the Quaker soccer team into a 2-2 double overtime tie with Navy at Annapolis, Friday. The game was called because of darkness.

The Quakers totaled their first goal in the third period on a perfectly executed pass from Bill VanBystroern to sophomores dick Tyrrell, who knotted the count at 1-1. With four minutes remaining in the fourth period Navy's Mike Stokes broke trough to score putting the Midshipmen ahead 2-1.

Theme of United Nations Selected for CA Bazaar

"United Nations at Yuletide", is the theme of the Christian Association's annual Christmas Banquet to be held on Thursday, November 18, from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. in the Associated Student Building.

The event emphasizes Christ- mas and peace and friendship around the world. In- dividual fraternities will bring each feature merchandise from a different foreign country and the en- tire CA will be decorated like an imaginary trip through the coun- tries of the world.

Shirley Paisley will be student chairperson for this event and will be assisted by Jean Crillon as publicity chairperson, John Lawrence as decoration chairperson, John Reim- mers and Borden Shufrin as publicity chairpersons. Most of the goods to be sold will be provided by an advisory committee composed of prominent women in the Phila- delphia area.

WXPN Presents Tuesday Night Quizzes; Five Fraternity Representatives Compete

WXPN will present a series of Interfraternity current events quizzes Tuesday evenings from 10 to 10:30. The quizzes will consist of a rotating panel of five fra- ternity men and women who will be asked questions taken from various sources: international news, national news, the world of sports and the entertainment field.

The questions are chosen from articles in the national news magazines, the New York Times and Herald Tribune and the local Philadelphia newspapers. Battery Norman of the WXPN staff will act as quiz master.

The fraternities for each week's program are chosen alphabetically. Any house that cannot send a representative on the night assigned will receive an alternate.

The two winners of each night's quiz rounds will be invited to participate in the semi- finals. The winners of the semi- finals will go on to the final rounds. The winners of the final rounds will receive a bronze cup with the name of the fraternity he or she represents engraved on it.

Theodore Thomte is producer of the program and the includ- ing is being done by Lynne Schaefer, Todd Bui and Steven Schor.
