Tossing Empty Beer Cans and Bottles

Invokes Prohibition at Harvard Games

by Bob McCleave

Dry as the Sahara, Boston students are raising the cry for prohibition at Harvard Games.

The students, who have been in the forefront of the campaign to curtail the drinking of beer and other alcoholic beverages, say they are trying to persuade spectators from across the Charles River.

The students say this is not a protest against alcoholism or hard-core drunkards, but a movement to cut the number of beer drinks served at events at the university. Harvard authorities say there is no evidence of an alcohol problem at the college.

Shell Cordovan — Butt Different

There is an important difference between Waddor’s and most Cordovans—something you can’t see in the thin lines of this fashionable plan-toeucher, but you’ll feel it in the minute you slip it on. Secret of the Waddor’s perennial popularity derives from its choice leather: not ordinary shell cordovan but hand-out from amazingly flexible, plant-salvaged Shoe Butter that assures utmost comfort. Lloyd & Haig’s exclusive patented flexible construction eliminates breaking in, assures comfort from the first step.

An extraordinary shoe, the Windsor. You could pay dollars more without getting better looks or longer wear.

LEAVES OF IVY

We all make mistakes . . . Here is a passion quoted directly from a recent issue of Speech and Drama Review.

"The type of Ivy League schools, Princeton's and other athletic scholarships. Princeton's famed 'angels' occur with an added attractiveness of character, luxury, and opportunity of research. The type of Ivy League schools and the college market are also used for the 'angels.' This expresses the genuine musical sheets and repose base again . . . pause . . . ah-h . . . reply. Ivan

Late Cues
Come the other Ivy League schools, and any students . . . anybody for a cue, for a cue like Ivan, again. One, two, three quarters of the act is quite a cue. "Paleface distraction. Aside from the leading ladies these females manage to find their way to second floor Houston. On the subject of cues and distraction—once in a while you might hear a cue, hear it again . . . pause . . . ah-h . . . reply.

Duke Rodrigues the third "angel" got caught with a josh intake from his pipe and conduct quite get his line. Improvised props are another amusing aspect to these rehearsals. A fan bandering or a base drum make the college market team. Newspapers, however, are quite the full military dress Bill Zimmerman a pleasant young gentleman precisely holds a dinner plate in the crook of his arm, the for the day.

An unusual feature of "My Three Angels" are a Bergers who are associated with the college market team. The "angels" are Bergers as are other prominent students. For the Bergers are working hard and enjoying every minute of the spectacular performance.

This observer left that rehearsal room of Bermuda shorts, khakis, or discarded high heels in a walk for the nearby pacing, impatient dates, looking forward to seeing the curtains go up on "My Three Angels" on December 8 and 10.

From the Headline of the Week . . . Students at the University of Chicago are sending 2,000 cakes of soap to the Y. M. C. A. of the college. One of the cake of soap bears a different signature and the message, 'This wouldn't hurt McCrathy—vote centerY.'

RODEO WINNER
In Frosh Dorm
Football Final

Rodney captured the freshman dormitory football championship by defeating Ashhurst, 14-8, in the Big Quad yesterday.

Rodney scored on the first series of plays following the opening kickoff when, on third down, Eddie Wilson got in behind the Ashhurst defensive backs and gathered in a long pass from Joe Reimert for the touchdown.

Ashhurst took the ensuing kickoff and marched steadily downfield only to be stopped by an interception on the Rodney one-yard line. On the following series, the Ashhurst offense was stopped at the four yard line in the end zone to give Ashhurst a safety.

Early in the second half, Rodney Bulldog Rodney intercepted a pass deep in Ashhurst territory. A short Reimert-Dave Jones pass gave Rodney a lead of 12-2. Ashhurst came back with its longest single gain of the day on a pass from Ray Redlich to Ken Jacobson. Brooker then hit Redlich on a pass from Ray Brooker to give Rodney a lead of 12-2. Army and Navy held down the ninth position in the A.P. poll for the fourth straight week in Country's Top 7.

Freshman Booters Win Again,
As NE Catholic High Bows, 3-1

Pennsylvania's top notch freshman soccer team swept to its fifth victory in six games by outscoring Northeast Catholic High, 3-1, on Stewart Field yesterday.

In beating NE Catholic, a team that sported a 9-3-1 record and numbered among its triumphs three wins over college freshman squads, the yearlings scored once in each of the first three periods and didn't yield the Northeast goal until the final period when Coach Joe Devaney reig in a host of substitutes.

Farrell Shaftel scored the first Quaker goal at 12:05 of the opening period from Jerry May all adding the winning goal just before the end of the first half. Charlie Barry counted in the third period for a Pennsylvania insurance goal.

Center half Walt Schroth was elected captain of this year's frosh booters by his teammates. Captain Charlie Barclay countered in the first half of the Ohio State game.

A short Rennert-Dave Jones pass gave Rodney a lead of 12-2. Army and Navy held down the ninth position in the A.P. poll for the fourth straight week in Country's Top 7.
