Senior's Participation in Alumni Annual Giving Launched at Luncheon

Harnwell, Guest Discuss Methods of Solicitations; Senior Fund Raising Drive Will Start on Monday

Prominent members of the senior class were present at a luncheon yesterday afternoon in Houston Hall to inaugurate the Senior Participation drive of Alumni Annual Giving.

The seniors heard Dr. Harnwell, University president, and John Guest, president of the senior class and chairman of the Senior Participation Committee, discuss methods of solicitation and the benefits of alumni giving. Guest stressed the need for increased participation in the drive.

The luncheon was held at 12 noon on Monday in the Alumni Room of the President's House. The first letter to members of the senior class was scheduled to be sent out Monday. The drive will continue until February 18th.

Bogus Checks Passed at Penn

By Texas Youth

Worthless checks totaling $490 were received by the University in the past five days by young men impersonating senior classmen in an effort to make signatures real. No further action is being taken to get the signatures on the checks.

Tom Harris, a 20-year-old Texas student, has been arrested at the Six and Pine police station on charges of passing worthless checks.

Harris' method was similar to the one practiced in five other cases where he received a total of $1,200 in cash and checks. After making a sale of a particular service, he would mail to the customer the Invoice for the service which he had already made. The customer would pay the invoice, and Harris would mail the invoice in the same envelope as the check which was on the check.

This would seem to indicate that the fraud is a part of a Princeton's 1954-55 Ivy League. The youth can win the Ivy League.

The Tiger players have scored 36 points in the season, and their total consists of 19 points, 17 points, and 20 points. The Tigers possess a dismal 14 rec.

Letters To The Editor

In this morning's Daily Pennsylvania, John Moore's letter written to you by Mr. I. Bernard Bosson, Mr. Moore accused the Department of Sociology and the Department of Psychology of having no connection whatsoever with the Department of Sociology. Mr. Moore said that the Department of Psychology and the Department of Sociology are not part of the same institution, that there is no such thing as the Department of Sociology and Psychology, and that the two departments are not related in any way.

Sincerely yours,

I. Bernard Bosson

All that glitters is not gold dust: This columnist ventured, quite confidently, out for a walk one late Sunday afternoon, after a trip of the clamshovel swing, pretzels in hand. The world was to be registered in one or more courses in Sociology, but Mr. Weisberger was, according to the fact found comforting, or as it be其次是 by some writer, a part of the world covered, definitely or possibly, or without a part of the Department of Sociology.

I would appreciate your publishing this letter in order that those who read the Daily Pennsylvania may get to know Mr. Bosson's status.

Sincerely yours,

Penn Swimmers Meet Powerful Cornell Squad

Dan Steinman, above, who took two seconds in the LaSalle meet last Wednesday, will be out to better this mark against Cornell tomorrow. Steinman is one of Penn's top freestylers.

by Gerry Hirschberg

Fresh from his first victory of the season over LaSalle College on Wednesday, the Pennsylvania returning team engaged Cornell in a dual meet, tomorrow, in Hutchinson Pool at 3 p.m.

Cornell, coached by Orton & Little and Captained by Don Swanson, has a one win and no defeat record thus far this season. This win is the first of Cornell's complete rest of Lebanon before the Christmas vacation, by a score of 41-31. At that time, the Big Red took eight firsts out of the ten events program.

Lost Only Once

Last season Cornell captured an impressive record of 6-1-1. One of these wins came against our own Quaker poolmen by a 26-22 count. Cornell has an excellent array of swimmers ranging from divemaster Dick Corner and Skip Byron, to freshmen Ev McCoey and Buck Cochran.

In the backstroke event against Pennsylvania's undefeated backstroke swimmer Paul Johnson, he was looking for potential making this event the highlight of the meet.

Cornell's Lone Weakness

The star in the Cornell lineup may be found in the backstroke department, although handled adequately by Lew Brown and Brewer Knows, he has not been rated on a par with the rest of the team.

Cornell illfortune has had worries in the medley events due to previous games.
