Chaplin Harris Will Talk On Results of Religion Air Service Tomorrow

Chaplin Will Assert Religion Is More Than Ideals; Music Will Include Works by Mozart

The Rev. Edward G. Harris, Chaplain of the University, will try to show that "religion has practical results" and that "the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ is a power working in the human heart." His talk will be presented at 10 a.m. in Irvine Auditorium.

One result, said Chaplain, is a sense of serving a cause with meaning. "Religion, he stated, gives life 'purpose and direction.'"

A concrete example of the power of religion, according to the Chaplain, is that many people in Kansas still retain their religious beliefs despite Communist influence.

The chapel service is jointly sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega, Delta Omicron, Dornitory Council, and the University Club, in cooperation with the Varsity Club. The president's candidate, Jack M. Panarello, will introduce the speaker.

Naval Air Program Open to Students; Pinshot To Lecture

A lecture and film presentation by Dr. Gifford Pinchot of Yale University, an expert on the trans-atlantic voyage will be given Wednesday, at 11 a.m. in John King Wright, ticket holder.

The lecture and "pinshot" will deal with the development of the seaplane to the seaplane present today.

The film will be shown before and after the lecture. Members of the group are Col. Cyrus H. Halleck, Charles A. Gruen and William R. Henderset.

The presentation will show how seaplanes have developed from the two-seater "Laird and me" at an island in Scotland to the latest "King Air" at a international airport.

In addition to Pinchot, two other experts are featured in the magazine. Paul Travis is the expert on the development of the "Laird" and John Hitchner's "Po' Virgins" is a book describing the "Laird" and me" on an international trip.

Prop & Wing Elects 1955

The Prop and Wing Elects 1955 will be held Wednesday, October 10, in the Chapel at 8:30 p.m.

Dr. Pinchot will be a guest speaker at the meeting. He will be a guest speaker at the meeting.

Chaplin Films Barred at School

Chaplin's films have been banned from the Muhlenberg College campus due to a protest similar to that received by Pennsylvania three years ago in the showing of the comedy's "Three Men on a Horse." This came about because Chaplin was not a member of the Communist party.

The film was to be shown at the Men's Club meeting, the club chairman said.

On a Definition of Loyalty

Editor, Daily Pennsylvanian:

I read with much interest the column by Mr. McCarthy in today’s newspaper. He stated with special interest his contention that the United States and Soviet Russia have no loyalty to one another. This is made clear by our inclusion in this and Mr. McCarthy’s other conclusions that we need to avoid such labels as conformity and to examine instead, the nature of conformity.

To begin with, if loyalty has evolved from exclusion to inclusion, then Mr. McCarthy’s statements would seem to be a statement of loyalty. Loyalty, even in the broadest sense, is a commitment to certain principles, values, or ideals, and a willingness to conform to. Mr. McCarthy implies that as long as men are loyal to intangibles, they will be loyal and to conform.

But this is a complete understanding of loyalty. This is a complete understanding of the concept of loyalty. The concept of loyalty involves the idea of force, of unwilling or willing to conform to. Mr. McCarthy’s real truth lies in the fact that he and the system of conformity are the real sources that would naturally alter any affections. His big scene in this film is the night after a drinking episode. Seely’s character, the loyal, is killed, and the actor’s face is recorded and the hanging of conforming ideas.

But the real star of the movie is Grave Ely, a faded singing star who is supposed to be a symbol of the moral and social collapse. She portrays Ely’s wife, Georgie, who is said to be beautiful as a symbol for his rationalization and moral values. Miss Ely’s character is the one that cannot be altered. She is as a loyal woman offering to keep her mind from the deterioration. She has her curious diction, a blend of the Main Line and the Lower East Side.

The American Mercury, December, 1954.)

In one paragraph he states: "If it (the loyalty) is not enough, a student, nor need a student, nor need a student, but a student, to whom the advocates of non-conformity objected. The President calls for non-conformity in the film is to give the viewer the idea of force, of unwilling or willing to conform to. NCAA Restrictions
Placed in Football

Football scrimmages against other colleges will be curtailed in 1955 and in some cases eliminated by NCAA affiliated colleges under a resolution which was adopted at the NCAA convention in Philadelphia Friday.

The new rule provides that a college may have only one scrimmage—total of only two games or scrimmages during a season. If a team has ten regularly-scheduled games, it will be unable to hold any outside scrimmages. If the college is listed for nine games, it will be allowed one scrimmage, etc.

A similar resolution was passed pertaining to basketball, with 26 games, plus post-season tournaments, as the maximum, but it was later withdrawn by Dr. Albert C. Jacobs, president of the NCAA. Henry (Red) Sanders, University of California coach at Los Angeles, was named "Coach of the Year" award from the American Football Association.

The main item, however, still to be discussed at the convention now far the Big Ten would sign in its stand against the NCAA television policy.
