Pennsylvania To Hold Quakers Oppose
Spring Healing Smoker Point State Five; In HH 7 p.m. Monday Seek19th Victory

Representatives of Various Staffs Will Be Present
To Explain Operation of Paper to Future Healers

The Daily Pennsylvania will hold its spring healing. Set for Monday at 7 p.m., in the Smith-Harrison-Pennsylvania Rooms of Houston Hall.

Representatives of the News, Sports, Features, Photography, and Business Staffs will be present to explain the function and operation of their staffs and the over-all operation of the paper to prospective heellers.

A poster in newspaper work is not necessary. The healing programs will be operated to allow healers to learn while carrying on the everyday work of newspaper staff.

Dales Of News Heeler

The news heeler for the staff will be instructed in writing and gathering news. They also serve as a source of information on campus news.

In addition to taking pictures, photolJOaphers heellers will learn about film work and how to operate the darkroom.

Sports heellers will come earlier in the morning, and then acquire themselves with all the details of the University's sports program, both intramural and intercollegiate.

Business Heellers

Heellers for the advertising department will be given a personal session in selling advertising space. Promotion department heellers will participate in studying the various methods to increase circulation, and how to arrange the amount of space distributed to the different departments. Engaged in surveying advertising layouts and line arrangements, and in connection with sports and feature articles.

Franklin Society Building, 3411 Wanda Avenue. Prising prices are on the ground floor, and are in connection with the billing service on the second floor.

Senator Humphrey Will Appear
At Int'l House; To Talk on Gov't

Senator Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., will lead an informal discussion on governmental problems March 13, at 7 p.m., in the Rehearsal Room of Houston Hall.

The senator, Humphrey, who recently appeared in a television panel show that afternoon, will be the guest of International House for the evening. His purpose is to give foreign students a chance to meet and talk with a United States senator. The discussion is mainly open to foreign students, but any other interested students are also invited.

Since Humphrey earned his Ph.D. from the University of Minnesota in 1939, and received his A.B. from the University of Louisville the following year. He served as an assistant instructor of political science at both schools. In 1943 and 1948, he was a visiting professor in political science at MacKean College, Montana State University, and the New York University Law School. He was elected to the National Guard in 1943, and was mayor of Minneapolis from 1946 to 1949.

Humphrey was elected United States senator from Minnesota in 1948, and was re-elected in 1954. He is a member of the Democratic party.

The event will be held on March 10, 12, and in the afternoon sessions of March 11. The event will be limited to 120 guests.

Radio Station WXPN Presents
H. G. Wells’ “War of the Worlds”

The “War of the Worlds,” a drama by H. G. Wells, will be featured on the hour and one-half “Radio and the Play” production which station WXPN will present Thursday, March 19, at 5 p.m.

Wells’ drama was originally adapted for radio by Howard Koch and first presented by Orson Welles on his Mercury Theater on Sunday evening, October 30, 1938. The presentation was later broadcast when it was first released in American radio history.

The radio play will be featured in the first hour of the show and one-half special production. In the remaining half hour, WXPN will present the Tuesday news bulletin report on the unprecedented reaction of the Mercury Theater radio presentation produced on that Sunday evening two days earlier.

Rehearsals began last week for a major play that was to be produced by Steven Lipset and Thomas Fink. In “The War of the Worlds” program, two of the three hundred characters will be played by Humphrey.

“Radio and the Play” is to be produced by Steven Lipset and Thomas Fink. In “The War of the Worlds” program, two of the three hundred characters will be played by Humphrey.

Dorm Council Holds
Dance Tomorrow

Sargeant Hall or at the Museum this evening. The dance will be held on the ground floor and will be open to all guests. The dance will begin at 8 p.m. and end at 11 p.m.

Both Albert Bishlow, moderator of the council, and Miriam Versh, member of the council, emphasized that the staff of the council, the students of the council, and the members of the council will be responsible for the success of the dance.

Radio Station WXPN Presents
H. G. Wells’ “War of the Worlds”

The “War of the Worlds,” a drama by H. G. Wells, will be featured on the hour and one-half “Radio and the Play” production which station WXPN will present Thursday, March 19, at 5 p.m.

Wells’ drama was originally adapted for radio by Howard Koch and first presented by Orson Welles on his Mercury Theater on Sunday evening, October 30, 1938. The presentation was later broadcast when it was first released in American radio history.

The radio play will be featured in the first hour of the show and one-half special production. In the remaining half hour, WXPN will present the Tuesday news bulletin report on the unprecedented reaction of the Mercury Theater radio presentation produced on that Sunday evening two days earlier.

Rehearsals began last week for a major play that was to be produced by Steven Lipset and Thomas Fink. In “The War of the Worlds” program, two of the three hundred characters will be played by Humphrey.

“Radio and the Play” is to be produced by Steven Lipset and Thomas Fink. In “The War of the Worlds” program, two of the three hundred characters will be played by Humphrey.

Dorm Council Holds
Dance Tomorrow

Sargeant Hall or at the Museum this evening. The dance will be held on the ground floor and will be open to all guests. The dance will begin at 8 p.m. and end at 11 p.m.

Both Albert Bishlow, moderator of the council, and Miriam Versh, member of the council, emphasized that the staff of the council, the students of the council, and the members of the council will be responsible for the success of the dance.
Seven Types Matriculate at Pennsylvania; Clotheshorse, Athlete, Commuter Typified

by Jay F. Frank
Illustrations by A. D. Beard

With the recent importance placed on psychology and character analysis, I have endeavored to ascertain the various matrices that characterize the student body of the University of Pennsylvania. I am convinced that no matter how one may interpret the personalities of individuals, they can be categorized into certain types as determined by their appearance and personality. This is the species Pennsylvania.

Number 1 is the exemplar. He is an extremely casual person, easily recognizable by the patterned trousers or the extreme facial hair to which he is above all a stylist with weekend dates from the riverside. His hair is combed to a range of charcoal grays, brown and tans. Tennis shoes are also a common part of his attire. In the winter he can be easily recognized by his overshoes. In winter weather by his Baracuta raincoat. He is definitely not the studious type, and can seldom be found at the same school for more than a semester. His favorite cocktail is a martini or a gin and tonic. He usually is seen out shopping for food. (Because it is fashionable. Of course.)

Number 2 is the intellectual. He is usually very conservative in dress. His absent-mindedness keeps him late for most engagements and looking rather grubby during the week. He is easily recognized by his beard, a well-stocked library (18th Century), and a somewhat disorganized crop of hair. His dating range is for the opera, ballet, lectures (especially reading lectures) or fancy parties. He usually is seen out shopping for food. (Because it is fashionable.)

Number 3 is the clotheshorse. He is typified by frequent letters home expressing the desire to have additional costly textbooks, money to join Houston Hall, etc. He dresses in the latest styles, being the first to don the white dinner jacket and knee length pants with combined shirt or tie recommended by Chips. Brooks Brothers, J. Press, or Peter Allen are his favorites. He is highly fond of tennis, squash, golf and cricket as opposed to football and baseball. He is usually very friendly with a large, engaging smile. He can be found in the best social circles sporting well-dressed, underwear. His versatility enables him to dabble in extra-curricular activities, and frequently sports an honor hat or possesses a class officer. Big corporations seek his name upon graduation of the Wharton degree.

Number 4 is the college athlete, the unseasoned jock. He is expected to perform on the football field rather than an English son. He is friendly. He is expected to be working on his thesis, dealing with the process and manufacture of the putty knife. His home ranges from Bethlehem or New Castle, Pa. to Trenton, New Jersey. He was originally bound for Tennessee, Maryland and Cal before being persuaded to come to Pennsylvania. His Wharton is easily recognizable by his D of D T-shirt, but he definitely you don't even have to look.

Number 6 is the commuter. He lives for the weekends. Country quiet and relaxed during the week, he turns into a veritable ghost at 3 p.m. Friday between trips to E. Va. or Vassar. He can be found in local restaurants between classes. Sad-eyed or just making a general presence of himself. Besides disappearing in an off-campus scene, he also looks forward to weekend dates but seldom bothers to call before Thursday night. He thrives on clothes, compliments, and his own ego.

Number 7 is the computer. He can be seen equipped with his briefcase and lunch bag, helping for the books in the bottom of College Hall. His days run from 9 to 6. He is habitually addicted to pin-striped suits, white shirts, and bright ties. He is a part of the world is often misunderstood by the white dinner jacket and knee-length pants if recommended to wear. The weekends are for most engagements, but in drafts you don't even have to look.

Letters to the Editor

Editor, Daily Pennsylvanian;

It was very interesting to read Mr. Al- jen's letter commenting on Dr. Bode's position on the military support program in Formosa. I should like to discuss several points of the letter. First of all Mr. Alden's letter clearly demonstrates a political awareness of some potential of some of the Points Dr. Bode has made. He also presents the true picture of Formosa's military situation. Formosa is now being defended by a military establishment of only four to five million men as compared to the Red Chinese military force of two to three million.

Mr. Alden asserts that "the presence of American military forces in the area is al- ways a reminder to the Orientals of the political, economic, and military ties they have with us." This statement overlooks the fact that the presence of American military forces in Asia is looked upon by the majority of the Asians with fear and suspicion. It will be well to remember that the history of the United States in that part of the world is often misunderstood by the Chinese. Because of their own experiences during the old colonial and imperial; the mere presence of Occidentals in their home lands. The determining factor in the struggle between the Communists and the West for the allegiance of Asia's vast popu- lations is, I believe, the effectiveness of the political and economic programs carried out by the United States. The absence of military force will impress the Asians, but it will loses every attempt made by us to impress the Orientals.

There is no doubt about the fact that the policy of assurance and strength is essential to maintain our prestige in Asia; but it is important to realize that such a prestige must be based on a realistic basis. The American people expect many things from us which we are not ready to fulfill. It is high time for us to realize that the mere presence of military forces is not in itself the key to the supremacy in Asia.

Name withheld on request.

Notice to the editor may be addressed to:

WHARTON'S

(On Campus)

206-208 South 36th Street

Visit SHOWY'S famous old-time Restaurant

412 Arch St.

Since 1874

Sale!! 30% Reduction on brand new tuxedos

- Single Breast

- Satin Lapels

- All Wool Lightweights

- Midnight Blue

former $87.00

now $49.00

FILTER TIP TAREYTON

Gives You True Tobacco Taste

And Real Filtration, Too!

PRODUCT OF THE

American Tobacco Company

412 Arch St.

Visit SHOWY'S famous old-time Restaurant
Varisty, Frosh Matmen Host F&M; Quaker Swimmers Face Columbia

Memen Seek 8th W In Contest Against Lions

In quest of their eighth win of the season against seven, Penn's men's team, will try to edge out the Columbia in a dual meet today at 4 p.m. in New York. Coach Jack Medica terms the Columbia contest as "the best" among the five dual meets that Penn will try to win.

The Line-up

The Quakers' record is 10-0-2, and the men's team will be hoping for a clean sweep. The Lions are 6-3-0, and the meet will be held at Columbia University in New York. The Lions will be led by Bob Robinson, 130 pounds, and the Quakers will be led by Jack Medica, 165 pounds.

Coaches

The Lions' preparation will be led by Coach Fred Lane, and the Quakers' preparation will be led by Coach Jack Medica.

Coaching Tips

Coach Medica says that the Quakers' dual meets will be held at Columbia University in New York. The Lions' dual meets will be held at Columbia University in New York.
Betas Alpha Pi Bid Meeting Penn State

Betas Alpha Pi business meeting scheduled for today at 1:30 has been cancelled.

Managerial Board

The Managerial Board will hold a meeting for the purpose of selecting a newlaws for the coming year on Tuesday at 7:30 in the Alpha Xi Delta house.

Kids and Key

Kids and Key Society will meet at 8 p.m. in Houston Hall.

Young Republicans

Young Republicans meet today at 1 p.m. in Room 11, Houston Hall.

Franklin Society

Franklin Society will hold a teaser on the Rush and Permanent Rooms of the General Assembly Rho Chi on Tuesday at 7 p.m. in the Delta Chi house.

WXPX

WXPX Program Board will meet in Houston Hall, Room 11, 1:15 this afternoon.

Yachting Club

Pennsylvania Yachting Club will meet in the Campus Yacht Club Room, 7:30 p.m. today.

Mack and Wig

Mack and Wig will meet in the Houston Hall Room 11, 7 p.m., today.

MENU

LUNCH 11:30-2:00 ROAST LEG LAMB, MINT JELLY 7:30-1:00 BAKED SUGAR CUBED HAM

Houston Hall

Caggers Seek Win Against Penn State

The Caggers will try to keep their slim hopes of a post-season tour-ning alive by trying to win the 1951-52 season tonight against Penn State. The meet will be held in the indoor field in the Rec Hall at 8 p.m.

Bach Program Offered By Philadelphia Orchestra

An all-Bach program will be offered by the Philadelphia Orchestra as a pre-concert in the Billy Wilder-Franklin Roosevelt Memorial on today and Sunday.

Lacrosse

The lacrosse alumni will meet on the last day in the schedule which has four times the 73-00 men and two pennant teams on the board. The meet will be held in the indoor field in the Rec Hall at 8 p.m.

Frosh Swimmers Meet Lions Today

Pennsylvania's freshman men's swimming team played in New York on Sunday and Monday in a dual meet at Morristown Heights.

Henry Named New Freshman Mentor

John P. Henry has been named as the new freshman lacrosse coach, it was announced late last week by Pennsylvania Athletic Director Jeremiah Ford. He replaces Bob Mathews, who was appointed varsity coach three weeks ago.

Henry is a former all-America selection at Penn State, and played in the North-South all-star game in 1951.

Lacrosse Notice

All candidates for the Varsity and Freshman lacrosse teams are subject to renuinion on the New York Field. All players are invited to try out for the team.

Managerial Board Meets

There will be an election meeting of the Athletic Managerial Board at 7:30 p.m.
tonight at Alpha Gamma Pi fraternity.

Alas, today at 1:30 on the weightlifting time sheet, the Keward Lions will be taken.

of the spring filmart series... "Je million..."

...tonight, 9 p.m., university museum auditorium... tickets for series at houston hall and at door...

the st

of the spring film art series... "Je million..."

...tonight, 9 p.m., university museum auditorium... tickets for series at houston hall and at door...