Activity Interest
Up, Griffin States

Student interest has been maintained or increased in undergraduate activities, Martin 1. Griffin, chairman of the athletics committee, told the Undergraduate Council last Wednesday.

In a survey made of undergraduate activities, Griffin's committee found that the best qualified freshmen are enthusiastic and student interest is not as keen as in previous years. Griffin said that more students have been accepted into the clubs to which they have been recently elected. An invitation from a member of one group will usually result in more interest in that group.

The only two clubs which are declining are Camera and Craw.

The Motorcade which is scheduled for a Purim Carnival will enter Woodland Avenue at 2 p.m. on Monday, March 21st. A Purim Carnival will be held Sunday afternoon. A member of the committee announced that persons wishing to make the trip should arrive at the Motorcade point at 4:30 p.m. and then travel with the motorcade. A special committee will plan a series of activities for the students who participate in the motorcade.

The Motorcade to Princeton will be held on Wednesday night. The motorcade will be escorted by a Pennsylvania victory, of course. Tigers Oppose Penn Matmen
Both the varsity and freshmen fencers finish the home season at the Palestra tomorrow against Princeton.
The two matches will be run simultaneously starting at 3:30 p.m. on two courts under identical conditions. The reason for both varsity and freshmen having to be run together is because of the time limit due to the finals of the Intercollegiate Tournament which will be held the following week in the Pennsylvania-Princeton tussle.
The Red and Blue fencers, after losing in the opening match to a strong Stevens Trade school, 8-12, have won their last four in a row.
Coach Robert Matthews will start the lineup that shows Matt Brown, Mark Franklin and Marshall last Wednesday. The split was 133 pounds. Richard Nowak, 130; Mark Franklin, 147 pounds. Jim Palm, 128 pounds.

WILLIE LEE—Holds High Jump Record
Ending the indoor season, the Quaker trackmen will compete in the Heptagonal championship at Drexel, tomorrow, as Heptagonal sprint champ Alan Klein and IC4A sprint titlist John Haines will watch their teammates from the sidelines.

Because of the injuries to the ace duo and other Quaker stars, the Pennsylvanians are not expected to do well in the team competition between the eight Ivy schools and Army and Navy.
Cornell's balance is expected to be equalized by the deciding factor in unseating Yale from the top spot.

Captain Lee is the major threat for the Quakers having won the high jump last year. Haines, having twice soared 6'6" to set a Pennsylvania record, looks as a favorite over Yale's Roger Meyer (5'11") and Army's Red Hall (6'2") despite a hip injury that has been bothering the Quaker standout.

Other potential point getters for Penn include: sprinter Berman against number four and five men in the hurdles mark also is endangered Having done 57'8" and placed second. Hains will watch their teammates from the sidelines,.
