Debate Council Elects R. E. Fast As President

Robert E. Fast was unanimously elected president of the Debate Council at a meeting last night in the Franklin Room, according to Robert S. Hoy, secretary. Hoy later read a statement from the new president of the Westphal Pioneers, the group which has been the topic of Christian Association controversy in recent weeks.

Two other proposals for voted on at the meeting. One was to propose that a special session of the council be called to discuss the Greek system. The other was to propose that a new committee be appointed to study the system of the society.

Fire destroyed the rear porch and a small area in the rear section of the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity house at 364 Walnut Street early this morning.

The fire started from a chimney in the house, and was caused by a reedman extinguishing the flames and destroying the studding of the porch.

There was no injury reported, but the room was damaged.

An estimated crowd of 300 students and neighbors observed the fire, and a fire alarm was sounded.

ROBERT E. FAST

Robert E. Fast, a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, was unanimously elected president of the Debate Council at a meeting last night in the Franklin Room, according to Robert S. Hoy, secretary. Hoy later read a statement from the new president of the Westphal Pioneers, the group which has been the topic of Christian Association controversy in recent weeks.

Two other proposals for voted on at the meeting. One was to propose that a special session of the council be called to discuss the Greek system. The other was to propose that a new committee be appointed to study the system of the society.

Fire destroyed the rear porch and a small area in the rear section of the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity house at 364 Walnut Street early this morning.

The fire started from a chimney in the house, and was caused by a reedman extinguishing the flames and destroying the studding of the porch.

There was no injury reported, but the room was damaged.

An estimated crowd of 300 students and neighbors observed the fire, and a fire alarm was sounded.

ROBERT E. FAST

Robert E. Fast, a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, was unanimously elected president of the Debate Council at a meeting last night in the Franklin Room, according to Robert S. Hoy, secretary. Hoy later read a statement from the new president of the Westphal Pioneers, the group which has been the topic of Christian Association controversy in recent weeks.

Two other proposals for voted on at the meeting. One was to propose that a special session of the council be called to discuss the Greek system. The other was to propose that a new committee be appointed to study the system of the society.

Fire destroyed the rear porch and a small area in the rear section of the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity house at 364 Walnut Street early this morning.

The fire started from a chimney in the house, and was caused by a reedman extinguishing the flames and destroying the studding of the porch.

There was no injury reported, but the room was damaged.

An estimated crowd of 300 students and neighbors observed the fire, and a fire alarm was sounded.

ROBERT E. FAST

Robert E. Fast, a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, was unanimously elected president of the Debate Council at a meeting last night in the Franklin Room, according to Robert S. Hoy, secretary. Hoy later read a statement from the new president of the Westphal Pioneers, the group which has been the topic of Christian Association controversy in recent weeks.

Two other proposals for voted on at the meeting. One was to propose that a special session of the council be called to discuss the Greek system. The other was to propose that a new committee be appointed to study the system of the society.
Philadelphia Spotlights
by Franklin Brown

The brightest spotlight this weekend, however, is here in one Ivy Armitage, where the Freshman Wiggers will savour laughter all night with "Green and Bear It!"
The book has been turned out by veteran producer Frankie Brown, who, having become acquainted with the spirit of the project, has remedied this by introducing the Psi I fraternity red circle of impromptu artists into this show, and all cannot be singled out. Whistling for its own good.

The plot involves the 'Green' party, their aspirin, must be mentioned for the grand climax of high praise, not only for their talent, but also for their excellent audience of the year, let's make one thing clear. Nancy Castor and Keith Jordon seem to have the Ivy Hall and make it a success.

The Philadelphia theatre season is gaining in strength, and the magnificent talent which has been uncovered so far by the Freshman Wiggers will be quite a sight to behold. Nancy Castor and Keith Jordon seem to have the Ivy Hall and make it a success.

The Philadelphia theatre season is gaining in strength, and the magnificent talent which has been uncovered so far by the Freshman Wiggers will be quite a sight to behold. Nancy Castor and Keith Jordon seem to have the Ivy Hall and make it a success.

The Philadelphia theatre season is gaining in strength, and the magnificent talent which has been uncovered so far by the Freshman Wiggers will be quite a sight to behold. Nancy Castor and Keith Jordon seem to have the Ivy Hall and make it a success.
Penn Cricket Club Opens Season With Fords

The Pennsylvania cricket team will open its first season under University association since the war when it engages Haverford College at Haverford, Pa., on April 22.

The game will mark the 1st anniversary of inter-collegiate cricket competition in this country, the first game between the Quakers and the Fords took place in 1934. This is also the 6th renewal of the series between the two schools.

Quaker Linksmen Beat Season With Fords

Clarey-born Fred Jerauld, who had seen playing in the No. 3 slot, led the Quaker attack. Jerauld, who was unable to schedule any practice matches, had his workday against the Citizens.

Quaker Linksmen Beat Season With Fords

The Big Red is also deep in the running events. Princeton's set up a 7-3 log, two and six wins.

Quaker Linksmen Beat Season With Fords

For the first time in three years The Quakers will be out to top Penn's dominance of the league. In 1954, winning last year by one-half mark. has dropped but one of 25 games and 10-9 victories.

Quaker Linksmen Beat Season With Fords

The Tigers have displayed fine power in 6-0 losses against Army, and Princeton, two schools. Coach John Henry's

Quaker Linksmen Beat Season With Fords

The Penn's freshman lacrosse team of 1954 displayed fine power in its first season of play. In 1954, winning last year by one-half mark. has dropped but one of 25 games and 10-9 victories.

Quaker Linksmen Beat Season With Fords

The Tigers have displayed fine power in 6-0 losses against Army, and Princeton, two schools. Coach John Henry's

Quaker Linksmen Beat Season With Fords

The Penn's freshman lacrosse team of 1954 displayed fine power in its first season of play. In 1954, winning last year by one-half mark. has dropped but one of 25 games and 10-9 victories.

Quaker Linksmen Beat Season With Fords

The Tigers have displayed fine power in 6-0 losses against Army, and Princeton, two schools. Coach John Henry's
Frosh M & W Performance Held Tonight at 8 in Irvine Auditorium

The Dancing Chairman of the Freshman Mask and Wig Show

“Green and Blue II,” which is to be presented in Irvine Auditorium tonight at 8 p.m. is rated by its producer, Leo Baum and Kirby Flininick, as the finest of many Mask and Wig productions. This chorus, together with the glee chorus, hashes for managerial positions on the last climax of the company of the show.

(Continued From Page One) and Wig shows. Music for the show was composed mainly by Ronald I. A University orchestra will also be used under the direction of Robert Longley. Paul Mask and Wiz undergraduate chairmen.

A crew of over twenty-five will be working backstage. The majority of these persons are hosts. Other stage positions will be filled by Mask and Wig Club members.

Several specialty numbers will be featured in this year’s show. These numbers will mainly be performed by the seventeen dancing chorus members. Undergraduate chairman for this year’s freshman show is James H. Dugan, who is aided by guest coach Nelson Barnes, coach Michael Malan, and stage managers Welles Green and Lester Baum.

Members of the Mask and Wig undergraduate club have aided in coaching these freshmen Mask and Wiggers to their initial attempt on the stage here at the University. The show is one of those in which there are more than 100 secondary school junior and seniors of the General Alumni Society and Mask and Wig as part of Pennsylvania Day.

Briefs

Frosh Concert
Tunes for the Philadelphia Orchestra. Free Public Enemy are available at the Harrisburg Information Desk. Those interested may obtain tickets to the program for more than one of the concerts.

Pennsylvania Day
There will be a complete menu of events for tomorrow, beginning at 11:30 a.m. This program will include the annual Princeton-Penn football game.

In addition, there will be a complete menu of events for tomorrow, beginning at 11:30 a.m. This program will include the annual Princeton-Penn football game.

Princeton Pride
There will be a complete menu of events for tomorrow, beginning at 1:30 p.m. The menu will include the annual Princeton-Penn football game.

Princeton Pride
There will be a complete menu of events for tomorrow, beginning at 1:30 p.m. The menu will include the annual Princeton-Penn football game.

Princeton Pride
There will be a complete menu of events for tomorrow, beginning at 1:30 p.m. The menu will include the annual Princeton-Penn football game.