Disciplining of Four Follows Friday Morning Disturbance

Discipline Committee Suspends Two Students; Places Two Others on Conduct Probation

Disciplinary action has been taken against four University students as a result of the "general disturbance" that occurred early Friday morning, according to George B. Peters, dean of men and chairman of the University committee responsible.

Two students were placed on conduct probation for the remainder of the academic year; one student was suspended from the University for the first semester of next year; another student was indefinitely suspended.

Two other students were arrested by Philadelphia police for disorderly conduct; they were fined as a result of many disciplinary actions against them by the police in the student body.

Among the windows that were broken was that of the law office of Dean Peters—the second time in recent weeks that an occurrence of this nature has happened.

The University Disciplinary Committee suspended four fraternity members this week, and placed four other fraternity members on conduct probation for violating University regulations.

Three of the fraternity members were suspended for two years; the fourth was suspended for two years.

The fraternity members put up a petition to the Pennsylvania Higher Education Board to remove them, but the petition was denied.

Coyne Announced Lacrosse Manager; Epstein To Assist

Coyne is secretary-treasurer of the Board of Directors of the Wharton School and is also a member of the Wharton School Foundation.

The faculty is still debating the question of the lacrosse and the basketball teams, and a decision is expected to be made on the question in the near future.

THE SPORTS PARADE

By John Dugan

Although the current campus connection between athletes and student financiers is comparatively weak on this predominantly nonrugby crowd, the University should realize it is under no legal obligation to support a team. The students are entitled to freedom of opinion and, if a majority of them are against rugby, the team should be disbanded.

- Gary Scott, the halfback picture also looks pretty good. Joe Callahan, who moves to right half from his quarterback post of a year ago, and Neil Hyland figures as starters with Frank Riley and Charlie Montgomery.

With Stan Chaplin and Leon Hardy one-two at fullback, that side can definitely be rated as the team's strongest position. Both proved their running ability last year and Chaplin showed the defensive ability to make him one of the best all around players on the team. Stan's 4.1 yards a carry was tops on the squad and he also led the team scoring.

The outlook on the line is not quite as favorable. The key men in the running game, Sebo, is expected to be around for the fall campaign.

Baseball Squad Drops Decision To Explorers

Pennsylvania's varsity baseball squad continues to find it almost impossible to win close ball games, and as a result the Quakers may find it difficult to finish the season above the .500 mark.

The Red and Blue dropped its fifth one-run decision of the year at Murphy Field Saturday, an 8-7 decision to LaSalle, to bring its mark to 8-9. Penn has two games remaining, the first with Lehigh Wednesday and the second with Villanova at home on Wednesday. Penn State at University Park on Saturday.

LaSalle Scores First

The LaSalle contest followed almost to the letter the script of the Lehigh contest the day before. The visitors jumped to an early lead, with the Explorers rallying to go ahead, only to have the Explorers come back with two runs in the ninth to win.

Both of LaSalle's winning tally came as the result of Penn errors. Trailing 7-4, the Explorers bracelet first on Bill Merck's single, George McDowell singled and after two men popped out to shortstop Mike Fidlon, Glenn Linn hit, driving in McGee. Bob Donnell, scored the tie-breaking run on the same play when the ball got away from centerfielder Jim Conlin.

Quakers Tally Six

Penn bunched six of its scores into two frames. The Quakers tallied three in the fourth on a single triple and Tony Piankousko's two-run home run.

Maione, who hurled only 1 2/1 innings, was the winning pitcher.

Netmen Finish Season With Win Over Lehigh

The Pennsylvania tennis team gave Coach Wallace Johnson his 24th winning season in 28 years at the helm of the Quaker netmen when it closed out the 1955 campaign by hammering Lehigh, 8-1, Saturday at Bethlehem.

Penn triumphed in all singles matches and two out of three doubles events to bring its season mark to 10-5-1. Captain Charles Rieger opened with a 6-3, 6-2 destruction of Jack Windy, and Morris Krome demolished Mike Wind, 6-3, 6-1. Bill Collins, the Engen's number three man, bowed to Ben Brown by 6-3, 6-3. Ted Mooch conquered Charles Roth, 7-5, 6-4, and Paul Merly handed John May.

Rieger and Brown bested Wright and Collins in three sets, 6-2, 2-6, 6-3. Mouk and Ralph Friesman then lost the only match of the day to the Knights 6-4, 5-3, 6-4.

The freshman team recorded its first shutout of the season and its fourth win without a loss. It will meet the AEP/PLP team Wednesday to face Kappa Sigma in a return double elimination tournament which will determine the final I-M title later this week.
College Students Fill Small Part Of Draft Quota
by Raymond J. McGlone Since volunteers are now filling most of the needs of the armed forces, it is a 15 to 1 chance that a 18 or 20 year old college student will be inducted into the armed forces against his will.
According to a recent issue of the U.S. News and World Report, local draft boards have 1,796,000 draftable youths available for the next year's draft. Of these, the draft boards will call only 15,000. This means that most of the one and one half million youths on the draft role are not likely to be called at all. This means that the average of one call for every 57,600 eligible men.
The draft boards around the country have been drafting men and more men in their late 20s and 30s due to the "oldest man first" rule. This rule forces the local draft boards to take the oldest men first when filling any advisory quotas.
Students graduating from college are now most likely to be called into the draft since they are more likely to be in the military age group. The inspection for draft eligibility will continue to volunteer for military service. The students, many graduates of the Class of 1952 will not be called.
Graduates who are not called by draft boards will face the threat of being drafted until they reach the age of 30. That threat could possibly intercede with any impending marriage, planned and home buying.

Freshman Nine Blanks Tigers Spurred by the brilliant one-hit pitching of Al Brodbeck, Penn, Pennsylvania's freshman baseball nine drilled the Princeton nine 22-0, Saturday, at Murphy Field.

Princeton's lone hit in the first inning when the ninth labeled the leading run. After Brodbeck retired the rest of the side in that inning and continued to do so for the next six innings.
Only two other Princeton men reached base for the remainder of the game, one in a walk in the seventh inning and the other in the eighth. The Quakers were held to five hits and were hitting for their third run in the sixth.
It was the fourth victory of the season for Penn, which has lost six.

Golliday Wins Relay
As Haines Is Disqualified
The anticipated duel between Pennsylvania's John Haines and Cornell's Don Golliday in the Colliery Relays 100-yard sprint was never materialized, as Haines was dis qualified due to Haines stumbling.
Jim Golliday, who has had the world record since 1950, 9.86 ahead of defending champ Dean Smith of Texas, Art Pat cok, the ICAA champ from Penn pitching to Pete Hesterman, 9.86.
All told there were seven false starts with Haines and Golliday the only non-qualified. Both Haines and Golliday were dis qualified and world's hurdles world record holder Jack Davis was later ruled out of his specialty.
Haines is expecting to return to California later in June and Poland with the NCAA championships.

The Bows were rarely better as they kept a steady best throughout the race and finished over a month ahead of the Princetoners.
In the first quarter, the two crews matched stroke for stroke, but thereafter the smooth Quaker Eight rode into the lead and steadily pulled away from the Big Red.

To make the victory even more outstanding, Cornell maintained a higher stroke than the Pennsylvaniaians during the race, but were still unable to conquer the consistent Quakers. The light weights traveraged the regulation one and five-sixteenth mile course in 2:18, over four seconds faster than the Big Red. This was nine seconds better than the time of the Penn heavyweight crew, which defeated Rodgers on the same course an hour later.

Penn thus wins the Matthews and ends its season with the best
