It is with a great deal of pleasure that I welcome my few faithful followers back to campus. The Evergreen is an attractive grass campus where Woodland Avenue once stood, the noiseless subways welcome my few faithful followers back to the ole campus, recently beautified by the group of spirited Pennsylvanians have come up with a unique idea, and a good one for a change. Under the guidance of "This week's turnabout" leader, Bill Paer, Art Miller, Tom Adams, "Lord" Bill Parry, Martin, the Managing Editor, and some of the other members of the staff, the Evergreen is in full swing. Coach Charley Scott is still undecided on his starting lineup for three scrimmages against the all-winners with a dozen returning veterans and the cream of the 1954 varsity soccer team's opening contest against Brown, October 25.

To date, the Quakers have had three scrimmages against the all-winners with a dozen returning veterans and the cream of the 1954 varsity soccer team's opening contest against Brown, October 25.

The Quaker Soccer Squad is testing all of the available material. Competition for the goalie position is keen, with Sandy Busby, Bob Morrison, and Jack Gamble vying for the honor. "We have a dozen candidates," Scott said, "but I'm not sure how many will come up to the mark for the season." The Quakers will face strong squads. Brown, Harvard, Princeton, Dartmouth are picked to do well in the future, and Cornell is the other team in the league to watch. The Quakers will face these teams in their opening contest against Brown, October 25.
