Penn, Princeton Renew Grid Rivalry: 1,000 Princetonians Expected Here

Tigers Rate as Favorites

In Franklin Field Contest

by Dan Daviey

Pennsylvania returns to Franklin Field tomorrow afternoon to meet Princeton in a renewal of an ancient Ivy League football rivalry. Kickoff time is 1:30.

Although the Tigers have been installed as heavy favorites as a result of two consecutive Ivy League victories, the Quaker grididers are not ready to accept their team as an underdog. In fact, Penn Coach Steve Sebo feels that the varsity gridiron got him some scoring for this contest since he considers Princeton a much better team than Harvard and Blue had in its best chapter. No. 1 Princeton beat the Quakers 5-0 two years ago.

However, Sebo cautioned that the Quakers have been unseated by many people, and that they are not a bad team. "It's a good team that edged the Quakers, 13-7, last year," he declared. "Their defense is good, and the Quakers have veteran players on it."

Sebo will be in a strong position to force Princeton to perform. All-American tackles Royce and Bean have been installed on the injured list, and he is not sure that his replacement will have as much action. However, his replacement, freshman Dave Masiero, 175-pound tackle from Pennsylvania, is running and has turned in outstanding performances at practice.

Fullback Dick Martin is the only Princeton back for whom Sebo is not too certain. Martin handed the ball on more than 50 per cent of the Quaker downs, and sophomore quarter- back John B. John round out the backfield. The Tigers will be strong at fullback, the position Sebo rates as his best for four weeks with a shoulder injury.

Beito plans only one change in the starting lineup--junior Charlie Getting is the new guard.

McCarthy At Quarterback

McCarthy, who replaced quarterback Neil this week, was selected to the first two teams and was by many people, and that they are not a bad team. "It's a good team that edged the Quakers, 13-7, last year," he declared. "Their defense is good, and the Quakers have veteran players on it."

THE OPEN TAP

by Joy F. Frank

As we look ahead to another home football game, the highlight of the weekend seems to be the Frosh Ivy Day which will be held at Houston Hall on Saturday. October 20th, the Grand Commissar, Paul Green, chairman of the affairs has done a bang-up job in.cppp the program for the day which will include the big game with Manchester. In addition, 4.00 p.m., the Frosh Band will entertain the assembled throng. The game will be Ed Speigel, Daire, who are only $1.50, obtainable at Houston Hall. More than a dozen, are on hand to show whether or not you appreciate the love the Band is worth on your behalf.

For fraternity men... This being the first major weekend of the football season, many of the houses are going to be in full swing come Saturday night. At 1-3 F Monday night, the men of Sigma Chi and Phi Delta Zeta will be giving a dance at the University, but it otherwise yeas on the produce more satisfying reviving the spirits of many.

A New Twist...

Celebrating victory at post-game parties, many of the houses will be doing a lot better than last year. Last year the students were able to show their might to Princeton this year!

During the doleful season which we underwent last year, we do not remember one game to which the students came without consulting that we could win. This year, however, the weight of accumulated losses seems to be perceiving the crisis of many. Some of us tend to forget that this year we are not on vacation, and our team has been improved on last year's and that it has shown fine promise.

If it's only 1-3, which is getting to be the traditional score for Penn-Princeton games, keep in mind that we can win and that the support all of which give to the team on Saturday will go a long way toward determining whether or we do.

... An Old Tale

Last year the editor of The Daily Pennsylvaniaian sent a terse note from his corresponding number on The Daily Princetonian before the Penn-Princeton game advising him to warn the squad of the danger of falling into disuse at the University, but it otherwise yeas on the produce more satisfying reviving the spirits of many.

Shirley Booth is currently starring in "The Desk Set," William Marchant's new comedy, now at the Forrest Theatre. The property has already been purchased by Hollywood, and we understand is new that "Emmy" was not to replace them and their jobs are secure.

Miss Booth dominates the play. Not only is she on stage 90 percent of the time, but she also gives a performance that is hard to top. Mary Oildea, like a good little efficiency expert, and the now-human efficiency expert, and the feminine Inefficiency of the plane for Mexico."

The action of the play, to quote the program, "proceeds in the Reference Department of a large and televised television community. The final reference department is staffed by four women--two have been hired, the other three searching strenuously for unmatched mates. Miss Booth, one of the searchers, is the department head, possessed of a prodigious memory. She is also conducting a long, vague office romance with a vice-president-to-be, Henry Stevens. Miss Booth's two companions are Clarice Blackbird, the married woman, who has an affair with her husband, and Miss Moffat, young blond, and husband-hunting. Office comedienne, still wary of masculine advances, begins her "fashion, Heretics, to look the plane for Mexico."

Booilers Oppose Brown In Open Game Tomorrow
by Ed Epstein

Seven lettermen will be in the starting lineup tomorrow morning, when Pennsylvania opens its 51st season of intercollegiate soccer against Brown University at Providence, Rhode Island.

Coach Charley Scott plans to fill the other four berths with three graduates from last year's successful freshman team and a former junior varsity performer.

The Quakers are seeking to make their initial winning streak in the form of Ivy League soccer titles. Last year, they defeated the defending champions, Cornell, 2-0, in the last week of the season. The Quakers also defeated Dartmouth, 1-0, to claim the Ivy League title.

The scanner has forced Coaches Bob Hennessy and Ed Weiss to find three replacements from last year's successful freshman team and a quartet of sophomores. George Wardle, Ethan Scott, and Walt Schroth at the forwards, and last year, and a good group of sophomores with whom he will attempt to better the 3-1 record of '54.

Scott Rebuilding Team

Penn's list of replacements is the widest of a rebuilding process to replace 11lettermen who departed last year. This year is the last year that the Quakers have sponsored a full team, and it will not be known if he can play until game time.

The organizational meeting and medical exam for all candidates for the varsity, fencing team, and any freshman wishing to try out for the freshman team will be held this afternoon at 3:30 p.m. in Hutchinson Gym.

Fencing Coach Arthur Wise. All sophomores interested in helping for crew manager should report to the varsity, fencing team office before 5 p.m. The ticket office is open to 5 p.m. daily.

Looking at all the Checkered Flags, the Winning car—Everyone!

Every checkered flag signals a Chevrolet victory in official 1955 stock car competition—not only against its own field but against many American and foreign high-priced cars, too!

Let's translate these victories into your kind of driving. You've got to have faster acceleration to win on the tracks. And that means safer passing on the highways. You've got to have better springing and suspension. For you: safer and happier motoring. You've got to have big, fast-acting brakes and easy, accurate steering. More things that make your driving safer. Come in and drive a Chevrolet yourself.
