Colonial Eleven Even As Penn Seeks 1st Win Over Once-Beaten Foce
Quakers Seek Revenge for Defeat Last Season; Yankee Star for Southern Conference Elim

by Hugh J. O'Brien

Seeking to snap a 10-game losing streak, the Quaker football team will set off against a long winless string at noon tomorrow in a contest with Franklin Field against an eager George Washington team. They hope to assert themselves after last week's setback by Florida knocked them from the unbeaten ranks. The Colonial's, with a delegation of 17 players from Pennsylvania and six from New Jersey, are eager to dis- play their prowess before their home fans. Last week's setback at the hands of the Quakers was a wake-up call for GW because of this fact.

The Colonial's can also be characterized as a team that is a team of opportunists. The Quakers could make every interception, which was really a Wake-Up call for GW because of this fact.

The backfield also possesses the same rawv reviews, with each back possessing good speed, owning exceptional pass receiving records, and having reputations as adept tacklers. Each back also possesses well along with quarterback back Bob Sturm, who completed almost half of his passes last year.

GW Attack Potent

Although George Washington piled up 613 yards rushing, without a pass completion, many screen plays, and many screen passes, Coach Doris Duke expects his team to hold the Colonial attack in check. Doris has praised the team's general overall improvement and expects the option play to be handled well. Doris will start the same eleven that lost to Pitt, with the exception of injured quarterback Jack McCarthy, who will be replaced by Dick Ross. Third stringer Vince Kelly will probably see much action also. An adept T-formation quarterback who can't play as a fresh be
