HUP Blood Bank Low; Friars Society Sponsors Drive To Hike Reserve

$10 Credit To Be Given Student Health Service
For Each Pint Donated; Funds To Boost Services

A long-term blood drive to replenish the University Hospital's depleted reserve will begin this week under the sponsorship of the Friars Senior Society, Jerome B. Makowsky announced. For each pint of blood donated, the Student Health Service will give $10 credit to be used by undergraduate employees on food tickets, X-rays and blood transfusions, services which were not included in the donors' services in past years.

Emeritus Professor Makowsky said that listen has a feeling that men's and women's facilities appealing for blood are depleted, and that credit for the additional will be welcomed. The drive is to be sponsored by the Friars immediately after the dedication of the new Schodrich, director of the Student Health Service.

"An important point is that the drive must be a steady one, so that blood can be stored for only three weeks, so that no credit will be renewed, and the credit will be valid in reserve for a short period only. If the supply would be adequate, Makowsky added.

Award Given
A 3rd-year residence will be given to each freshman and dormitory, at least one of the members and residents, respectively.

"The blood shortage at the hospital is so severe that three weeks ago all surgery except that absolutely necessary was canceled," the medical director informed. Last year the hospital received 566 bloods.

To give blood, a donor must be over 21, and have the written consent of a parent or guardian.

An article in yesterday's New York Times magazine has this to say about the place of the teacher in College education: "If College is worth the time, energy and expense, then 'brain washing' courses have opened a new vista in the preparation of the teacher. It is, indeed, the kind of arms manual of sufficient basis for military training. The kind of "brainwashing" or "confessions" by men subject to treatment which stretched their enunciation of the breaking of their mental and physical discipline of ideological warfare has reached such a fever pitch that normal physical and mental limitations no longer are considered as acceptable for the kind of arms manual of sufficient basis for military training.
