Frosh Football Rally To Be Held Tonight

The all-frosh football rally honoring the freshman football team and its coach will be held tonight at 1:15 in the South Quadrangle, not as originally stated in The Daily Pennsylvania.

Coach John Hunter, Theodore Hoek, chairman of the Athletic Committee and president of the Freshman Class, will open the rally. The freshman football team will also be in attendance. Afterwards, the University Band, along with the cheerleaders, will lead the group in song and traditional football motions.

This year's team has had the first successful season since the 1920s and will be led by the services of the Clinic. The Coach will open with the same line-up which performed to such excellent advantage last year against Lebanon Valley College, the University Band, the Freshman Class, and George Wardle open on the line. George Wardle, the point man, has been the main cause of Cornell's improved position in the league, and he is expected to do his utmost in this game.

University Reading Clinic Offers Various Courses To Help Students With Study, Comprehension

by Kenneth W. Sehers

One of the most important and most unheralded services provided to students in the University Reading Clinic, directed by Dr. Ralph C. Preston, is the Reading Clinic. The Reading Clinic is not concerned with helping students to improve their reading speed or fluency, but rather at helping them to improve their reading comprehension. Students who have reading problems can benefit from the services of the Reading Clinic. If a student seeks the assistance of the Reading Clinic, he will be able to improve his reading comprehension.

Time Alters University Customs; Shift in Perspective Displayed

Next Year, Too?

Although the Deans’ Committee has decided that the ten-day examination period will be in effect again next year, it seems to us that while there is still time, the decision should be reconsidered and an attempt should be made to seek a two-week examination period with the three-days central registration process. We realize that the alternative to the ten-day plan, which would bring students back a week earlier in the Fall, was rejected because of the invalidity of dormitories reads for students a week scheduled for or perhaps it could be held during the last registration during the evenings of the week. We realize that the alti

Editor, Daily Pennsylvanian:

When I read M. D. Daly’s derogatory article on the "costume change" in the Whitaker School—women had arrived on the scene. It was made clear that a change had taken place, but no conclusion was drawn as to the effect of that change. On this date, a manifestation of that change was applied to the University, and substantially enough minded to perceive it. The change which was the first reading smaller placed on the racks, for instance, produced for your paper. Does this augur of the eventual dominance of women in the University? I believe you, I beg you, this change is the beginning of moving from the amiable feminine trinity, to oust the male populace, even the smallest imperception of importance. It is known for certain for all of us to forget about feminine presence. The most insignificant beginning which possessed by "the best minds of past centuries," would appear to save the second-year-men a headache, head-
Yearling Gridders Close Season Against Cornell

Cornell's freshman football squad looms as the only obstacle to Princeton's victorious yearnings and the best season a Penn freshman eleven has enjoyed since 1956, when the Quakers traveled to Boston to claim the 1956 championship.

The Red and Blue take a 2-1 record into its final game as compared to the 1898 aggregate. The Harvard impressive depth and strength lies in their late-season successes. Coach John Jaffurs has arranged three squares, each with a line averaging 220 pounds or better, to send the Big Red to its last two victories over Colgate and Wyoming Seminary—the un-expected scoring ground for in- teresting football.

Cornell started slowly, bowing to Yale, 29-3, but fought back from a 19-2, hard-pressed defeat, to its powerful Princeton, 12-12. Its last two triumphs give the most squad a 2-2-1 log.

"Nine" Attack
Tom Sherlock has been hand- some with the running game for Cornell, having passed the "Nine" attack, which had stalled three touchdowns to lead the Cats in the scoring department. Halfbacks Terry Wilson and Bob Himmelbert carry the Cornell attack.

That's the population of the Mason City district, Iowa, area where Jack MacAllister (Iowa U. 50) is Manager for Northwestern Bell Telephone Company. How would you like this kind of job?

As Telephone Manager I represent Mason City to my company, and vice-versa. Among my customers are bankers, farmers, homemakers, merchants... each with different questions and problems about telephone service. Through public information and good business office service, my people and I do our best to furnish the answers.

My assignment calls for varied activities—sales, public relations, office supervision. One minute I'm describing a new construction program to a group of business men... the next explaining a new service to a rural customer.

It's a job with lots of variety and responsibility, and I enjoy every day of it. My supervisor is 75 miles away, 95% says Jack, and that puts me pretty much at my own place— lke the way I like it."

Jack MacAllister graduated with a B.S. in Commerce and started with Northwestern Bell about five years ago. As Telephone Manager at the age of 28, he is typical of the many young men who are being called into telephone careers. Smaller opportunities exist today with other Bell telephone companies... also with Bell Telephone Laboratories. Western Electric and Bell Telephone Corporation. Your Placement Office has all the details.
