Chaplain Harris Speaks
On 'Making God Real'
At Chapel Tomorrow
Friars, Hexagon, Mortar Board, Sphinx
Will Sponsor Christmas Service at 10
The annual Christmas Chapel will be held tomorrow at 10 a.m. in Irvine Auditorium.
The Rev. Edward G. Harris, University Chaplain, will speak on "Making God Real." The Chapel is sponsored by the three men's honorary societies, Friars, Hexagon, and Sphinx; along with Mortar Board, the women's senior organization.

In his talk, Chaplain Harris will use personal experiences and events as illustrations of his topic. He will select his subject because of the many questions men ask about God but are confused when they speak of Him.

With Christopher McCutcheon, at the organ, the program will open with "Variations on a Motet" by Dupre. John C. T. Alexander, by Chaplain Harris, following the program the two choral groups which perform in the Chapel, will present "The Messiah," "Three Shall Be Many," "O Come, All Ye Faithful," and "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing." "It Came Upon the Midnight Clear," which Max Reger, at the organ, will play "How Brightly Shines the Rose," which will be repeated, for the sixth consecutive year. The music will be followed by Robert F. Godsall, director of Mortar Board, "Fitzpatrick, abbot of Friars, will give the Call to Worship.
The invocation will be read by John Otto Reinemann, director of sociology at the University, Mr. Reinemann will discuss "The History and Development of the American University."

Four leading authorities in the field of juvenile delinquency Saturday night the club members had their own annual party. Summer school will greatly increase the total volume of tuition received by the University.

President of the University and President of the University stated, "The problems of the world are the problems of the University. The University is one of the most effective agencies that this nation has for solving the problems of the world."

"We can't be rededicated until we are dedicated," said Rabbi Wice. "We must struggle for freedom. It was the refusal of the Maccabees to accept that the world would be divided up between Jews and Gentiles. The struggle for freedom led to war. Rabbi Wice added.

The policy is motivated by a fear of war. The grant is the largest single appropriation in the history of the University. The grant will be used to bolster the "Great Man," a number of higher education institutions, to provide more and varied educational opportunities. The attitude of the faculty towards administration is expressed in the words of President Clayton G. Harrell: "This is the richest Christmas present the University ever had."

- All Steamed Up

Someone thought we had a fire up here yesterday, but it turned out to be only a superfluity of steam coming from the radiators. We are confident as of now that the older buildings on campus, namely College Hall, the chemistry building, and our own Franklin Society Building are equipped with the most efficient, silent the hottest, radiators ever built. We personally suspect that not a little bit of the steam is piped straight from the furnaces. Combined with the classic casement windows so common in the University, our heating system is probably the greatest aid and abetment to the common cold since the invention of the rainy day football game. This is no attempt is made to regulate the heat.

Item: At a chemistry lecture last week the instructor complained about the heat, and commiserated with anyone who might faint during the hour. For this lecture the radiators were so cold that most of the students had to don overcoats.

Would welcome most of the acquisition by the engineers or demons who control the heat, whoever or wherever they be, to put in a thermometer to replace the calculator they now use to determine whether or not to turn on the boilers.

Let The Letter To The Editor

Editor, Daily Pennsylvanian:

In the Daily Pennsylvanian for giving a wide space and showing favor to the students association and for holding,and accepting, the India students association, but on reading the letter of L. S. Gnou, I feel that there is a misunderstanding of the activities of the Association. The functions organized by the Association are aimed at serving the community and not the interests of the members, and it will not be a misuse of language to say that the incentive behind all such activities is not a desire for fame but the satisfaction that everyone owes towards the alma mater.

This is not to inhibit a pro-association organization and when it organized the event of 6th December, and tried to invite Mr. V. K. Krishna Menon here on the campus, it had no less a host of expediency. I agree that it is ridiculous to charge $0.01 from one who wants to hear the lecture of the man of one's admiration, but not only that, it is our national custom to do it, and I am sure that if the reference we may point out the Diwani Function, Hindu Festival of Lights which was celebrated by the Association in the Christian Association house on November 17th, was completely free and open to all, and was attended by so many people that we could not provide suitable facilities for all and many had to see the whole program through a window, most of us would not mind.

But if you could understand the spirit of the Association, you will see why they were forced to charge that much from those who wanted to utilize the Association's facilities.

Within the short time available for the arrangement, we could not have arranged the event in a proper and due to the limited space and time we had so little time to arrange for the others. All the members of the Association also had to work in their daily routine and if you expect me to understand the efforts of the Association, you can understand the cooperation of all our friends in making our function a great success.

Is It Nobler To Give?

December 6, 1955

Dear Sir:

I am past 70 years. I was born July 22, 1935. I see you are so good to the needy family on Christmas as if you can help me I will be so glad. I had nothing for Thanksgiving. I am on public welfare. I get $60 a month. I have gas, electric, rent and food to get out of this. What made me so short for Thanksgiving was I had to buy cool.

So I would be awful glad if you could do anything at all. If you alone, I have a small house in the rear.

So I close wishing you a very merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Yours,

Two Jazz Combos Spotlighted At Dixieland Party For Students

by Marc Franklin

Willie de Paris, Stan Rubin and their Dixieland Jazz combos will be featured at the largest Yule flutist at Lehigh University Saturday.

From 1:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m., without admission, jazz at its best will be played at the Frolics Ballroom on route 22 between Allentown and Bethlehem, Pennsylvania.

A crowd of over 1,400 is expected to attend.

Willie de Paris, new featured at Jimmy Ryan's on 52nd Street in New York, has won wide acclaim from such music authorities as Marshall Herstein, Robert L. Thompson and John W. Wilson. The Saturday Review called de Paris the "King of the Big Horns" and his work has been praised by such well known publications as the Herald Tribune. His music is the only one of his typecombining the fabulous New Orleans Jazz traditions with the swing rhythms and harmonies of big bands.

The de Paris band has played in many parts of the world as well as in the United States. In Europe he has appeared at such famous places as "The Palladium" in London, and "The Moulin Rouge" in Paris. Stan Rubin is also well known to College jazz listeners. This group originated at Princeton and thus warrants the name of "Tipetown Five." Rubin's RCA Victor Records and personal appearance engagements have established his band as one of the finest in college band circles. His Carnegie Hall Concert during Thanksgiving Vacation was attended by a capacity crowd which gave Rubin a tremendous ovation for some fine "dixie."
