Tryouts Begin in Irvine
For Frosh M&W Show
Every Night This Week

The Mad Ad’s, Frosh Production, Features
Combined 24-Man Singing, Dancing Chorus

Tryouts for dancing, glee and cast positions in the Freshman Mask and Wig show, ‘The Mad Ad’s,” will be held today, tomorrow and Friday of this week, beginning at 8 p.m. in the Memorial gymnasium, stated Charles Meredith, undergraduate chairman.

For the first time in the 17-year history of the Freshman Mask and Wig show, a combined 24-man singing and dancing chorus will be featured in the presentation. In the past, candidates were selected for only one of the departments.

The dancing and glee coaches will choose this group together. “It is hoped that the combined group of positions may sign up as dancers and singers, who have no experience in either dancing or singing. In order to be chosen for a position in the chorus, a person must be a member of the Freshman class or a new freshman,” said Meredith.

This new idea is in direct contrast with that used in past years. Previously, separate vocal and instrumental choirs were provided for, and a candidate had to consider himself in dancing or singing. In order to be chosen for a position in the chorus, a person must be a member of the Freshman class or a new freshman, stated Meredith.

Those interested in heading for Mask and Wig managerial positions may sign up at this time. Tryouts for vocal directors will be held Friday at the Mask and Wig headquarters

“There is no limit as to the number of men who may try out,” said Meredith; stated Charles Buraette, junior, Mask and Wig business manager.

Justice Stearne, Penn Grad, Dies

Justice Allen M. Stearne of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, a member of the University School of Law, class of 1905, died yesterday in Hahnemann Hospital. He was 73 years old.

Justice Stearne had been in the hospital since February 13, suffering from a virus infection. He entered the hospital only two days after receiving a honorary doctor of laws degree from the University at mid-winter commencement. It was his last public appearance.

The jurist had been on the bench of the Supreme Court for 13 years. He served without pay until 1964. He had contributed many articles to the University Law Review and the Temple University Law Quarterly.

He was a member of the Union League of which he was president during 1911 and 1912. Other offices held in the Swedergnian Church, the University of Pennsylvania, the University Law Association, and the Pennsylvania Bar Association.

Justice Stearne was regarded as a fearless worker, who spent much time settling the records that came to the Supreme Court for final decision. He despised the practice of assigning to him but to have been reached to meet a particular situation rather than in accordance with an established principle.

He is survived by his wife, the former Mary H. Fineman, a daughter, Mrs. Dorothy M. Hartko, three grandchildren, and a sister.

U.S. Constitution, Court’s Ruling Violated by Florida, Gray States

The state of Florida is not living up to the constitution of the United States or to the recent anti-segregation ruling handed down by the Supreme Court, Dr. William Gray, former president of Florida A&M University, stated last night in the Christian Association of the Association of Scientists.

He maintained that even when the state practiced what they referred to as the separate but equal doctrine, “they merely lived up to the ‘separate but equal’ part of the equal. He mentioned that the South has two sets of standards for the educating of colored children and white children.

He brought out the fact that the colleges were not equal by showing that of 300 persons admitted to Florida. Add is for a Master’s course only six possessed a reading ability equivalent to that of a normal ninth grade.

He mentioned that at present in Florida there were only 19 schools that did not offer the second of education. He feels that this is a farce.

Gray stated that many persons are employed at the University of Pennsylvania that do not possess as high qualifications as some Negroes who are unable to obtain positions. He said that he knows of only two Negroes who are teaching in the public schools. He feels that this is a farce.

Sir T. E. Robins is currently governor-general of Southern Rhodesia. Yet he is already in the public eye, and there are great things for which he is leisured. This is not surprising. George Robins is a past editor of The Daily Pennsylvanian.

A select group of young men will have their opinions of a lifetime to follow in the path of famous personalities when they attend the 730th I.U. meeting in Houston. Only twice a year are the double doors of the Franklin Society Building opened to receive prospective members. It is for the heights of fame and success which membership on The Pennsylvania staff offers. Contact with the great and greatest, the opportunity to have one's hand constantly on the pulse of our bustling campus, are the thrills which are implicit in membership of the campus' only daily newspaper.

A vast variety of vistors is offered. Only the future great need apply.

What Have The Men Listed Below Got In Common, Aside From The Fact That All Of Them Are Pennsylvanians And That All Are Successful?

George Wharton Pepper
Attorney, Former U.S. Senator From Pennsylvania

The Late Owen J. Roberts
Former Associate Justice, U.S. Supreme Court

Guy della-Cioppa
Vice-President Of CBS

Walter Yust
Editor, The Encyclopedia Brittanica

It is no secret. All of these men faced their first responsibilities as Editors-in-Chief of The Daily Pennsylvania. These are countless others who were on The DP during its 71 years of existence and who contributed to the rich tradition for which it stands.

You can add to this developing tradition by entering the Spring heeling competition. It opens tonight with a smoker at 7:30 p.m. in Houston Hall. If you want an activity to put on your record, why not make it the best one?
The University's Physical Plant . . .

The University's physical plant is constantly being expanded, remodeled, and altered to keep up with the needs of the student body and changes in the surrounding area. Many of us, casually looking around campus, see some of the obvious examples of this plant development.

All of these projects are ultimately released from the office of the Business Vice-President. Probably one of the most recently published of these projects is the proposed law school dormitories. (See number 1 on map.) At present, the University has commissioned an architect to draw up plans for the law school dormitory. The architectural firm of Carroll, Oriole and Van Allen has been commissioned to draw up plans for the new dorms. It is expected that the new dorm will be occupied by the Fall of 1956.

Another important project has recently been revealed in the athletic facilities of Murphy Field. Plans have been delayed, however, due to the construction of the Schuykill Expressway.

The map shows some of the current projects that have been released from the Business Vice-President's Office. Included is the Law School Dormitories (1), the women's dormitories (2), Woodland Avenue (3), and the Schuykill Expressway (4).

The Westinghouse Man With The Facts will be here on MARCH 7

Ask your placement officer for an appointment NOW!

You'll soon have to make that crucial decision . . . where to start your career. But, before you decide, you owe it to yourself to talk with the Westinghouse Man With The Facts. He'll be here on campus on the above date to interview engineering graduates. Be sure to get on his schedule. He wants to talk with Electrical, Mechanical, Chemical or Industrial Engineers, Physicists, Mathematicians and Metallurgists. Ask him about career opportunities at Westinghouse . . . the million-dollar Education Center with its complete training program . . . how you can select a career in an industry of your choice, doing the kind of work you enjoy . . . Master's and Ph.D. degrees at company cost . . . chances for advancement . . . how other men made fast progress. He can tell you . . . he has the facts.

You'll want to know, too, about the big Westinghouse expansion program and how it offers you exciting opportunities for growth. And, about interesting and rewarding work in such promising new fields as nuclear energy, automation, design, automation, semiconductor, military and industrial electronics. There's plenty of room to move around . . . and up . . . at Westinghouse.

A frank talk with him will help you make a sound decision. So, contact your Placement Officer now and have him make a date for you with the Westinghouse Man With The Facts.

Freshman Five Seeks Eleventh At Hill School

Les Tanneur’s freshman ruggers, riding high after a 41-7 victory last week, almost scored a similar win at Potomac’s 3rd Annual Multinational Rugger Classic March 2nd.

The Haydon-Quaker Hill School, which will travel to Potomac today to meet a team from Hill School and Millfield, hopes to add to its reputation as one of the top three American rugger teams.

The Haydon-Quaker Hill School is coming off a 50-38 triumph against the Explorers last week. Fourteen of the Quakers’ 17 points were scored by junior playing his first game of the season.

The Haydon-Quaker Hill School will play three games in the next three days. They will meet Millfield today, then Potomac tomorrow and it will conclude with a match against Princeton Prep.

Penn Varsity Mermen Face Unbeaten LaSalle

Pennsylvania’s varsity swimming team faces an unbeaten LaSalle squad this afternoon at the Hutchinson Pool in a meet which promises to be one of the closest of the season.

It’s been a whirlwind year for the Quakers. Their impressive three-meet streak was halted last week by a 45-39 defeat by Penn. However, LaSalle has lost only one meet this year. The contest promises to be a real thriller.
