POOR RICHARD'S ALMANAC

by Morton Miller

The future currently growing over the foundations of the United States is so far advanced that we are only now reminded of the due discussion of the twenty之内th anniversary of the first issue of The Busy Body. We recommend it as required to all who would have the advantage of the works of this great writer. On the 10th of March last year, W. P. Boche and Milton M.
Gordon, the authors, are teachers of political science at Harvard College. They are well versed in the method of treating the subject, by their natural tendency to follow the intellectual lead of the times and to desire new ideas in the manner of the imagination of the great writer, the author of the Almanac.

Four Opinion Groups

An interesting point of view that will be of major interest in this year: the opinions of the majority of the population, and the opinions of the minority. At the present time, the majority of the population is in favor of the educational survey. It will increase the intellectual and financial picture and enhance the welfare of the state.

The Reviewing Stand

Boon Island Days

by Arthur Lindstrom

The historical novel has been much abused, both by writers and critics, for some time. Robert Roberts is one of the few authors who has successfully bucked the trend, having proved his artistry and skill in "Northwest Passage." Once again, in "Boon Island," he demonstrates his craftsmanship in the portrayal of a historical background and the general population of the country. The amazing story of a shipwreck and survival in the North Atlantic. The reader will feel I shock and awe at the adventures of the captain and his shipmates as they try to stay on the island.

Shipwreck Did Occur

Research has uncovered the historical background. The cargo ship called "NW Passage" was shipwrecked in Boon Island to express his artistry and skill in the portrayal of a historical background and the general population of the country. The amazing story of a shipwreck and survival in the North Atlantic. The reader will feel shock and awe at the adventures of the captain and his shipmates as they try to stay on the island.

Illuminating the sea with orange lights, it is dawn, a hypermaudlin tribute to the lovers. Salivating for the next installment of the island. The novel is an interesting one.

Intramural Cage Squads Begin Finals This Week

Bets Theta Pi, last year's winner, Phi Kappa Sigma, Tau Epsilon Phi and Kappa Nu are the four teams which will vie for the Inter-Fraternity Basketball crown this week as the finals of the tournament begin tonight at Hutchinson Gym.

In the Dormitory League, Mask and Wig, Memorial Tower and Dorm A, First and second place, will continue their respective divisions and will be battling for the Dorm Crown won last year by Ward. Four squads Newman Club, Birthday Dorm, the Clowns and the Emissaries will produce a winner this week in the finals of the Blue League.

Bets Top Blue League
Bet defeated Delta, Tau Delta, 53-19, to win the Blue Division. While the win made the Bets previously undefeated Sigma Alpha Epsilon to win the Red Division. Dethroned TEP finished third in the Green loop, and Phi Kapp won the Gold loop with a 6-1 mark.

This evening Bet will play TEP while Kapp will engage P兄suite in the finale. Mask and Wig will battle Dorm A in the last of the intramural round robin tourney in the Dorm leagues.

Returning Finals
Aside from Phi Kapp Sigma, all squads finished in the last place season in the I-F league. Bet won the tourney with KN finished third and TEP was eliminated in the semi-finals. Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Delta Sigma Rho and Delta Tau Delta, three squads which made the semi-finals, were defeated in the semi-finals. Beta Sig and Delta Tau Delta was defeated by Bet.

Temple, Hawks Matched in Palestra Tripleheader NCA-A-bound Temple meets city champion St. Joseph's in a regular season game Monday afternoon, and LaSalle clash for the second place and Penn enters Princeton in the Long Islands. St. Joe and LaSalle are tied at the top with 11-5 records. St. Joe gets a 77-68 victory over Phi Kappa Sigma, Tau Epsilon Phi, last year's winner, Phi Kappa Sigma, Tau Epsilon Phi and Kappa Nu are the four teams which will vie for the Inter-Fraternity Basketball crown this week as the finals of the tournament begin tonight at Hutchinson Gym.

The Men's College Basketball tourney will be held this week. The tourney is open to all college-aged men who can supply the trophies, which, in high, was awarded to the winner. This is the third time the tournament has been played.

CAN YOU THINK BEYOND MACH 2?

Designing Airborne Vehicles of the Future traveling at speeds so great that this air becomes a blazing, solid wall... is the challenge that North American offers to aerodynamicists and engineers who specialize in this most other sciences.

Join North American's engineering operations at Los Angeles. Here's where the F-100 SUPER SABRE—holder of the world's first supersonic speed record—was designed and built. Share the knowledge and experience that has led to North American's supersonic supremacy. Be a part of a compact team of top engineers and scientists. Work on the most advanced projects right from the start. Enjoy personal rewards and recognition from challenging assignments.
