Nichols Gives Address Highlighting Exercises At Philo Anniversary

University Activity Has 143rd Birthday

"The Mind You Find May Be the Only One You Lend," was the title given by Dr. Roy F. Nichols, vice-president of the University and dean of the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, who will highlight the one hundred forty-third anniversary exercises of the Philomathean Society to be held today.

The Philomathean Society, the oldest activity at the University, will hold its annual exercises this afternoon in the Texas Union. Dr. Nichols will address the students in an appropriate address to the group.

Barbershop Groups Sponsored by HH

At the Houston Hall Barber Shop Contest will be held on Saturday at 4 p.m. in the Franklin Building, with guest judges taking the places following the dedication.

After the reception, there will be a dedication ceremony, which will be followed by speeches from Dr. Roy F. Nichols, hearing from lunch at the Union Building, and announcement of the dedication of the new building. The dedication ceremony will be given to Reverend Edward A. Sargent, president of the University, Charles Ludlow, a Phi Beta Kappa member of 1910, who will address the group.

In commenting on the growth of the society, Burt said that it was "the first step in the development of the University and the society will address the society as the society of the University."

"You know," he said, "sometimes I think the government should not be in the business of trying to control what we do, but actually, I think that's what it's all about, isn't it?"

The conversation took place as the sun was setting behind the city's tallest buildings, casting long shadows on the streets below.

"What do you mean?" I asked, trying to sound casual.

"Well," he continued, "I think the government is really just trying to control what we do, and that's why they're so interested in what we do, isn't it?"

I didn't know how to respond, so I just nodded my head in agreement.

"And that's why they're so interested in what we do, isn't it?" he repeated.

I sighed and said, "I guess you're right."

Booters Face Dartmouth
with in a full lineup for the season against Dartmouth. Penn State won a 5-0 game over Dartmouth last year, and with a two-quarterback system and three fullbacks, it will be tough for Dartmouth to find a way to stop them.

JV Gridders Oppose Frosh

The opening game of the season against Dartmouth will be the last fourth period for A. M. and the last game for Dartmouth. The Penn-JV Gridders will face each other in a full lineup for the season.

Auditions Will Hold

Penn State will hold auditions for its football team. Auditions are open to all Penn students, and those interested should contact the football office for more information.
