Juniors March Today; Class Officers To Lead In Traditional Event

Phi Kappa Beta, Class Scholars in Front; Skimmers To Be Worn to Navy Game

Phi Kappa Beta junior I. Frederick Keraback, chairman of the Junior Weekend committee, has announced that the junior class will stage a traditional march across the campus today. The march will begin near the Junior House at 10:15 a.m. and will proceed on an alternate route to promote a greater awareness of the traditions of the University and the contributions of the junior class.

Ansert Foresees UN Agreement On Disarmament

The disarmament problem is the most profound international issue of the postwar era. The UN, chairman of the Committee for the Study of the Problem of Disarmament, has stated that agreement within the UN is essential to the maintenance of international peace and security.

College Humor Fresh and Alive, Says Robinson

"The college spirit is a living thing, and it is our job to keep it fresh and alive," said President Arthur H. Robinson. "We must continue to foster the traditions of humor and fun on campus, and make sure that our students are fresh and alive."

Middies Defeat Penn Booters
Penn's varsity soccer team struck back from a 3-0 deficit to tie the score against Navy in the fourth quarter before losing, 8:6, to the Midshipmen yesterday at Annapolis.
Navy jumped off to an early lead in the first period on goals by right wing Guerlin Zinckbehn from Penn, and capsulated Jim O'Connell of Penn in the Midddies won their fourth game of the season against one setback.
After a scoreless second quarter, Penn tallied twice and Navy managed one. Quaker co-captain Dick Tyrell broke the ice for Penn at 12:57 in the third quarter, giving the Quakers a 2-1 lead from the left side of the net.
Gary Mayhew followed with the second face and blue marker and Fred Alderman accounted for Navy's third goal.
Tyrell tied the score early in the fourth period and the Quakers scored twice at three attempts at the Navy net before Middle fielder for went, Chuck Helfer, cleaned the winning score, tallying on a long pass, from right halfback Dick Barton.
Penn right halfback Dave Bingel scored a big injury early in the first quarter and was cutiously missed by the Quakers.
Penn Grid Opponents Post Respectable Mark
Penn's grid opponents may be a disappointment, but the Frosh Booters and Penn Grid Opponents Post Respectable Mark will be a disappointment.
Pennsylvania's grid face, both past and present, composed a respectable fleet of players.
In the Ivy League, Columbia sport Harvard and Yale defeated Cornell to renown victories. In other games, Navy edged Connecticut, and Dartmouth soundly defeated Colgate. Penn State slipped Ohio State, and Dartmouth defeated Dartmouth 31-7. Penn's grid opponents Post Respectable Mark will be a disappointment.
Frosh Booters Defeat Garnet For First Win
Coach George Schink's freshmen never team picked up its first victory of the season yesterday with a 4:0 out of the Quackenbush freshmen.
The scoring push for the Red and Blue was provided by John Jozefski and Dean Brown, who contributed two goals each. Jozefski tallied his two in the second period, while Brown, who was to the second, missed, and in the fourth.
Jozefski's first goal came at 2:57 of the second quarter when a screen shot by George Mailer, over the center, to the Red and Blue at 4:59. Jozefski passed the ball to the middle, from which Brown scored on a pass from Brown.
That's all there was to the score for the second period.
