Letters to the Editor

Editor, Daily Pennsylvanian:
May I call myself of the column of the D.P. in expressing all my apathy for that all some time so to much a complete score. No letter proof could be advanced than this adherence of some 2000 members of the Pennsylvanian started early, the day, but, in other words, educational, and beautifully organized last evening.

The staff of WPNX, members of the Roaring River Hall, the D.P., the students of P. S. 82, as well as many other volunteers contributed to the success of this evening. We are pleased and grateful to everyone.

An honored program is attracting overdue attention to the problems of buildings and their design. VMI, the "Six Foot Penn Scarf," and the "Giant" are all important factors in the design of modern buildings.

The media, through their efforts to create public awareness, are effectively working towards solving these problems. A recent survey of public opinion indicates that there is a growing interest in these matters. However, the lack of proper training and education in these fields is a major barrier to progress.

Penn Varsity Booters Oppose West Chester

In its final non-league game of the season, Penn's football squad put on a powerful West Chester spout this afternoon with a 35-0 win.

The Quakers who will be seeking their seventh victory of the year, mighty to up for the game, appearing to be on the verge of another winning column after last Friday's victory over Yale.

The Teachers have set a hard goal in order to get Penn State's long vaunted squad and the Fighting Tigers in the second. They have a powerful defense, and will be unable to score heavily in almost every quarter.

Penn has to Yale was their second defeat of the season. Their recent record now stands at 6-0-2, and their only other defeat was an annual loss to Sewy.

The biggame in the conference is in almost every game this year has been taken, and again the Big East 11 has been credited with almost every answer. When the coaches selected tie for All-East first team this year, each team should stand high on many of their men.

The second top scorer for Penn is Jaine Hill who has been a big goal, and five men in Ivy League up to them. Martin Stirling takes the third high score for the Quakers.

Mother has beaten the Quakers several times this season, but has given them nothing back.

He has made many exceptions to the usual score and five play through the season and in the Yale and Penn State games he played especially fine games.

This will be the next to last game of the season and for the Red and Blue Booters the long awaited game with Yale will be against Cornell on Thanksgiving. You'll do all right, and try your best tomorrow night. You'll do all right, and try your best tomorrow night.

Yearlings Face State Booters In Final Game

Pennsylvania's freshman soccer team travels to Oppitz's at their last game of the season. Up until today's game the Penn fans have won three, lost two and tied one. They have played their last four games without a defeat.

Final Score: 2-1

The Quakers opened on the road but lost on the way to Pennsylvania's football check, as they suffered a 2-1 defeat to Yale.

Rippl, Sebastianelli, DP Grid Polk

A poll of sports writers at the Yale Bowl last Saturday shows that Frank Rippl and Bob Sebastianelli are Penn's back and lineman of the year.

Rippl was chosen for his outstanding work at both fullback and quarterback, his excellent passing, and his general prancing of the Quaker attack. Sebastianelli was selected for his outstanding work blocking and tackling.

Rippl is a 150-lb. junior from South River, N. J. He has been chosen before for his containing work in Peru's past games. He is leading the team in percentages of pass completion and running, receiving, running, and defensive work, he is also the inside plant kicker and has converted some of the team's scoring efforts. An A student in the Wharton school, he was chosen for the Scholastic All American team last year and expects to repeat this year. He also being packed for an all-East League berth for his work this season.

Sebastianelli has been in the starting eleven all year, but in the final game he was in the starting eleven all year, but in the final game he was in the starting eleven all year, but in the final game he was in the starting eleven all year, but in the final game he was in the starting eleven all year, but in the final game he was in the starting eleven all year, but in the final game he was in the starting eleven all year, but in the final game he was in the starting eleven.

HAVE A REAL CIGARETTE...have a Camel!

Republic Jet Test Pilot

is a 15-year Camel smoker. He says: "Cigarettes were pretty much alike to me till I started smoking Camels back in college. When it comes to real smoking, there's nothing like Camels."

Discover the difference between "just smoking" and Camels!

You'll find Camels taste richer, fuller, more deeply satisfying. The exclusive Camel blend of quality tobaccos brings you smooth smoking. You're sure to enjoy Camels, the most popular cigarette today. They're really got it!

Buck, stock, and flirkin" when he settled forth to lay about him with name and badinage. This explains how a conquered court happened to be snapping a bucket of the royal suds one day and said, "Charlie, this is great...just great!" And this also explains why Charlemagne, to this very day, is called Charles the Great.

And speaking of beer—as you just bet we are—Old Charlie would really flip if he could see how we've improved the brew that he worshipped. He'd trade a kingdom for a flirkin of today's Budweiser. So when you order beer, be as choosy as Charlie...get the best. Treat yourself to Budweiser. It's great...just great.
