Uber Selected To Play At Annual Frosh Hop In Bennett Hall Lounge

Dance To Feature 'Blue Light' Theme; Tea in HH Begins Freshman Events

For Senior Pictures Deadline Extended

— COMMITTEE—

Camille Appel Lectures in HH Nov. 29

"Religion and Psychiatry" will be the title of a lecture to be given Tuesday, November 29, at 4 p.m., in Bennett Hall Auditorium, by Dr. Leon Zilberg, assistant professor of the psychiatry department of the University of Pennsylvania.

Dr. Appel's lecture will be a patient study of a mental patient, its effects, and its complications. The subject will be a case of schizophrenia, a mental illness, and the complications of its case will be described.

Appel is president of the National Academy of Religious and Mental Health, and also of the Joint Commission on Mental Illness and Health. He is past president of the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology.

Appel is currently serving as president of the National Academy of Religious and Mental Health, and also of the Joint Commission on Mental Illness and Health. He is past president of the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology.

Dr. Appel is President of the American Academy of Religion and Mental Health.

Appel is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, and the Harvard Medical School.

In addition to his duties as chairman of the psychiatry department of the Medical School, Dr. Appel is director of the Clinic for Functional Diseases of the University Hospital, and chief of Neuropsychiatric Service at Allegheny General Hospital.

Student Health Will Move To New Location Monday

The Student Health Service will be moved Monday, November 29, to a new location in the Gates Pavilion of the University Hospital, the first floor, west corridor, and will be under the direction of Dr. Paul E. Schroeder, director of the Health Bureau.

Dr. Appl's office and the other offices and clinics in the Health Service will be closed Monday, November 29, to facilitate the move. The Student Health Service will reopen Tuesday, November 30, at 8 a.m.

University Takes New Film Color

A motion picture, to be shown in the morning of the day of the American Association on the University of Pennsylvania, will be the film "The Fighting Camel" for the first time in the evening of the day of the American Association on the University of Pennsylvania.

At the time of the move, the film will be handled by the University of Pennsylvania Students' Association, and will be shown in the gymnasium of the University Hospital.

The film will be shown in the gymnasium of the University Hospital, and will be shown in the morning of the day of the American Association on the University of Pennsylvania.

The film will be shown in the evening of the day of the American Association on the University of Pennsylvania.

Penn StateColumbiaEleven: Status of Benham in Doubt

CLAUDE BENHAM

PENN STATE

Penn StateColumbiaEleven: Status of Benham in Doubt

CLAUDE BENHAM

PENN STATE

Penn StateColumbiaEleven: Status of Benham in Doubt

NAACP Fight for Integration Will Continue, Shorter States

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People in the Bronx, New York, will continue to advocate for civil rights, and will continue to support the struggle for integration.

In his report to the board of directors of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Dr. Alan L. Marshall, president of the University of Pennsylvania, said yesterday:

"The NAACP has been working for the past year toward the goal of increased civil rights for African Americans. Our ultimate goal is to achieve full equality for all races."
Quite a few elaborate parties have been planned this week. For instance, the weekend of the yesday, a multitude of Sigma Chi members will sponsor a formal dance in the Madison Club. The affairs, however, are not unless observation notes.

As usual, parties tonight will feature the usual fraternities and sororities. Beta Epsilon Delta is having a joint party with Sigma Pi. At the Lammie Floor will be a dance in the closing gathering. . . . Alpha Epsilon Pi will have a divided band after the game with the Quaker City Benchmen who scheduled to play there at night. Since Zeta Chi’s 75th year will provide the music at Alpha Sigma Phi tomorrow evening.

Beta Sigma Rho is having a dinner dance at a hotel tonight, Chadds Ford and will feature the dinner dance band. Beta Theta Pi is having a post-game party tonight and will hold a closed round party at their house. Beta Sigma Rho will feature the dinner dance band and host a buffet dinner feature Jimmy Morse’s orchestra at the event. It’s something.

Delta Epsilon is having a Thanksgiving dinner dance with 1,500 tickets to be featured at Kappa Xi along with the Hughlton orchestra, . . . Kappa Sigma is having a red round party tomorrow night.

Phi Alpha will house brother Donald and his friends with a post-game cocktail party. Don Livingston and his orchestra will provide some of the sounds there in the Thatta Thel. . . . Phi Delta Theta is having a punch party right after the game. Phi Delta Epsilon is having a spaghetti dinner to be followed by dancing in the music of James’s “Cherie” Five. . . . The Big Reposi- tion will provide the music at Phi Kappa Psi tomorrow night. . . . Phi Kappa Psi is having a red round party. Phi Sigma Delta is having a buffet dinner for their Sophomore reception.

Forrest Weekend at Phi Lambda Phi and Psi Epsilon Psi will have a closed band with the closing band for their Sophomore reception.

While still, the Blue Notes will play at their dinner dance. Sunday afternoon at the Phi Delta Theta house will entertain for them. . . . Sigma Xi’s Buffet will feature a buffet dinner and informal dance. Tau Delta Phi is having a Thanksgiving dinner after their round party tomorrow night.

Buddha Talk
by Larry Kneifl

Though sparkling shape while Bruce Montgomery has smoothed the often complex arrangements and vocals, the whole product displays the firm, capable hand of Robert Wachtel. In short, Wachtel has brought particular mention. A choreographic highlight is the “Callahan Dance” Hosts of the dance written in a slightly stylized version of gymnastic exercises. Yet, “The Olds are Right,” in which a group-arranged chorus line exhibits individual agility to a non-American tune. This happens to take place in a horse parade disguised as a beauty party.

A ballad, “Man With A Dream” is perhaps the strongest song in the performance. It delves into the psyche it receives. Bedford demonstrates a humorous hints with an equally droll lyric line in “Burahanita.”

The waltz of fluid to Riviera provided music and fun at the Warwick Hotel. From all indications, the party will be really great. About 500 to 600 persons are expected and which will be sold at the door.

Accidents. While on their way to, while, or while returning from Yale this past weekend, Frank Brits, “Chuck” Loughran, Right Way, twee doux, Bob Davis, Don Jackson, and Eau Bloue will hit the music on their way to. While returning from Varsity, “Chuck” Loughran was voted the hand of the week—three nights later. He is a member of the Big Dance Band and has been released from the hospital for a nose shaker of the week.

Do You Need a Ride Home?

Need a Roof Over Your Head?

Have a Phonograph To Sell?

Lost Something?

For Best Results Use the CLASSIFIED COLUMNS OF

The Daily Pennsylvania
3443 Woodland Avenue
EV 6-0100—EXT. 535, 536

Up to 20 Words $1.00
Deadline: 3 P.M. Day
Preceding Issue
Penn Lightweights Meet Tigers in Season's Final

Penn's 13th football team closed out its season against the Princeton Tigers this afternoon at 3 o'clock on Murphy Field. The Lightweights, who have already won their 4th game of the season, will actually clinch second place in the Eastern Intercollegiate Football League if Princeton also wins its game against Brown.

The Lightweights have 5 wins and 1 lose thus far, while the Tigers are 3-2-1. Princeton will need to win to keep alive their chances of a tie for the title, since a win for Penn would make them champions of the E.I.F.L. for the fourth time out of six years.

The game will be played in the new West Philadelphia Coliseum, which replaced the old one which stood in the place of the old stadium.

John Delaney, Hugh O'Brien, and James B. McFarland were named as the team's three captains by their teammates.

Quaker Cagers Play First In 1956 League Competition

(Continued from page one)

The question arising is: will Penn be ready for the A.I.L. now that their game with Columbia has already been canceled?

One student of football has been quoted as saying that Benham is due. He doesn't normally miss an important game. Penn has reached a peak of form that will have to be taken into consideration by Princeton. Penn has won 9 of its 12 games, and Princeton only 4.

Should Benham play, his team would be at a decided disadvantage. If he doesn't play, then Princeton would be at a disadvantage.

The question now is: will Princeton be ready for Penn? Princeton lost last week to Columbia, and it is difficult to say whether the team is ready or not.

The game will be played at 1:30 on Saturday afternoon.

Benham's Status in Doubt

As Penn Battles Lions

Should Benham play, his team would be at a decided disadvantage. If he doesn't play, then Princeton would be at a disadvantage.

The question now is: will Princeton be ready for Penn? Princeton lost last week to Columbia, and it is difficult to say whether the team is ready or not.

The game will be played at 1:30 on Saturday afternoon.

Three All-Ivy Stars Return for '56-'57

Pennsylvania's varsity basketball team, which returns to action against the Princeton Tigers this afternoon at 3 o'clock on Murphy Field, will actually clinch second place in the Eastern Intercollegiate Football League if Princeton also wins its game against Brown.

The Lightweights have 5 wins and 1 lose thus far, while the Tigers are 3-2-1. Princeton will need to win to keep alive their chances of a tie for the title, since a win for Penn would make them champions of the E.I.F.L. for the fourth time out of six years.

The game will be played in the new West Philadelphia Coliseum, which replaced the old one which stood in the place of the old stadium.

John Delaney, Hugh O'Brien, and James B. McFarland were named as the team's three captains by their teammates.

Quaker Cagers Play First In 1956 League Competition

(Continued from page one)

The question arising is: will Penn be ready for the A.I.L. now that their game with Columbia has already been canceled?

One student of football has been quoted as saying that Benham is due. He doesn't normally miss an important game. Penn has reached a peak of form that will have to be taken into consideration by Princeton. Penn has won 9 of its 12 games, and Princeton only 4.

Should Benham play, his team would be at a decided disadvantage. If he doesn't play, then Princeton would be at a disadvantage.

The question now is: will Princeton be ready for Penn? Princeton lost last week to Columbia, and it is difficult to say whether the team is ready or not.

The game will be played at 1:30 on Saturday afternoon.

Benham's Status in Doubt

As Penn Battles Lions

Should Benham play, his team would be at a decided disadvantage. If he doesn't play, then Princeton would be at a disadvantage.

The question now is: will Princeton be ready for Penn? Princeton lost last week to Columbia, and it is difficult to say whether the team is ready or not.

The game will be played at 1:30 on Saturday afternoon.

Three All-Ivy Stars Return for '56-'57

Pennsylvania's varsity basketball team, which returns to action against the Princeton Tigers this afternoon at 3 o'clock on Murphy Field, will actually clinch second place in the Eastern Intercollegiate Football League if Princeton also wins its game against Brown.

The Lightweights have 5 wins and 1 lose thus far, while the Tigers are 3-2-1. Princeton will need to win to keep alive their chances of a tie for the title, since a win for Penn would make them champions of the E.I.F.L. for the fourth time out of six years.

The game will be played in the new West Philadelphia Coliseum, which replaced the old one which stood in the place of the old stadium.

John Delaney, Hugh O'Brien, and James B. McFarland were named as the team's three captains by their teammates.

Quaker Cagers Play First In 1956 League Competition

(Continued from page one)

The question arising is: will Penn be ready for the A.I.L. now that their game with Columbia has already been canceled?

One student of football has been quoted as saying that Benham is due. He doesn't normally miss an important game. Penn has reached a peak of form that will have to be taken into consideration by Princeton. Penn has won 9 of its 12 games, and Princeton only 4.

Should Benham play, his team would be at a decided disadvantage. If he doesn't play, then Princeton would be at a disadvantage.

The question now is: will Princeton be ready for Penn? Princeton lost last week to Columbia, and it is difficult to say whether the team is ready or not.

The game will be played at 1:30 on Saturday afternoon.

Benham's Status in Doubt

As Penn Battles Lions

Should Benham play, his team would be at a decided disadvantage. If he doesn't play, then Princeton would be at a disadvantage.

The question now is: will Princeton be ready for Penn? Princeton lost last week to Columbia, and it is difficult to say whether the team is ready or not.

The game will be played at 1:30 on Saturday afternoon.

Three All-Ivy Stars Return for '56-'57

Pennsylvania's varsity basketball team, which returns to action against the Princeton Tigers this afternoon at 3 o'clock on Murphy Field, will actually clinch second place in the Eastern Intercollegiate Football League if Princeton also wins its game against Brown.

The Lightweights have 5 wins and 1 lose thus far, while the Tigers are 3-2-1. Princeton will need to win to keep alive their chances of a tie for the title, since a win for Penn would make them champions of the E.I.F.L. for the fourth time out of six years.

The game will be played in the new West Philadelphia Coliseum, which replaced the old one which stood in the place of the old stadium.

John Delaney, Hugh O'Brien, and James B. McFarland were named as the team's three captains by their teammates.

Quaker Cagers Play First In 1956 League Competition

(Continued from page one)

The question arising is: will Penn be ready for the A.I.L. now that their game with Columbia has already been canceled?

One student of football has been quoted as saying that Benham is due. He doesn't normally miss an important game. Penn has reached a peak of form that will have to be taken into consideration by Princeton. Penn has won 9 of its 12 games, and Princeton only 4.

Should Benham play, his team would be at a decided disadvantage. If he doesn't play, then Princeton would be at a disadvantage.

The question now is: will Princeton be ready for Penn? Princeton lost last week to Columbia, and it is difficult to say whether the team is ready or not.

The game will be played at 1:30 on Saturday afternoon.

Benham's Status in Doubt

As Penn Battles Lions

Should Benham play, his team would be at a decided disadvantage. If he doesn't play, then Princeton would be at a disadvantage.

The question now is: will Princeton be ready for Penn? Princeton lost last week to Columbia, and it is difficult to say whether the team is ready or not.

The game will be played at 1:30 on Saturday afternoon.

Three All-Ivy Stars Return for '56-'57

Pennsylvania's varsity basketball team, which returns to action against the Princeton Tigers this afternoon at 3 o'clock on Murphy Field, will actually clinch second place in the Eastern Intercollegiate Football League if Princeton also wins its game against Brown.

The Lightweights have 5 wins and 1 lose thus far, while the Tigers are 3-2-1. Princeton will need to win to keep alive their chances of a tie for the title, since a win for Penn would make them champions of the E.I.F.L. for the fourth time out of six years.

The game will be played in the new West Philadelphia Coliseum, which replaced the old one which stood in the place of the old stadium.

John Delaney, Hugh O'Brien, and James B. McFarland were named as the team's three captains by their teammates.

Quaker Cagers Play First In 1956 League Competition

(Continued from page one)

The question arising is: will Penn be ready for the A.I.L. now that their game with Columbia has already been canceled?

One student of football has been quoted as saying that Benham is due. He doesn't normally miss an important game. Penn has reached a peak of form that will have to be taken into consideration by Princeton. Penn has won 9 of its 12 games, and Princeton only 4.

Should Benham play, his team would be at a decided disadvantage. If he doesn't play, then Princeton would be at a disadvantage.

The question now is: will Princeton be ready for Penn? Princeton lost last week to Columbia, and it is difficult to say whether the team is ready or not.

The game will be played at 1:30 on Saturday afternoon.