Committee on Student Affairs Votes To Pass Compromise Liquor Report

Justice Brennan Will Lecture Tomorrow at 11 a.m. in Irvine

Williams J. Brennan, associate justice of the United States Supreme Court and a graduate of the Wharton School, will speak on the subject, "The Internal Revenue Service, Today and Tomorrow," tomorrow at 11 a.m. in Irvine Auditorium.

A year ago, the Twenty-Fifth Memorial Lecture was presented during the current academic year at a part of the School of Social Studies.

Brennan, a graduate of the class of '28, received his law degree from Harvard University in 1931 while he was a student at the University, he was treasurer of his Freshman class, served on the Ivy Ball Committee and the Student Council, and was managing editor of the Harvard Law Review in his freshman year.

Other graduations from the school, Brennan was a practicing attorney in New York and served as a judge for seven years. He was in the 31st Air Squadron from 1943 to 1950, in the appellate division of the New York County Court, and in the N. J. Supreme Court from 1950 until 1960 when he was named to the United States Supreme Court by President Eisenhower.

During World War II Brennan was a Colonel in the Army and was given the Legion of Merit.

The Howard Crawford Memorial Lectures are presented by the University in honor of Professor Howard Crawford, the first dean of the Law School.

"Economic Underpinnings," the theme of the lecture, will be given November 26, at 3 p.m. in University Hall. A schedule of the topics for the lecture series for this year is as follows:

November 26: "Economic Underpinnings," the theme of the lecture, will be given November 26, at 3 p.m. in University Hall.

The new location will enable the health service to improve the service in the following ways:

1. The new building will be more attractive and convenient to students.
2. The new building will be more accessible to students.
3. The new building will be more efficient in the provision of health services.
4. The new building will be more conducive to the provision of educational programs.

To the members of the students and to the faculty, we offer our congratulations on the successful completion of the new building.

Justice Wm. J. Brennan

Bradley to Discuss Increase in Students

The problems that a liberal arts college faces when the student body increases more rapidly than the student body can be expected to do in the next few years, will be the subject of a lecture by Professor E. S. Bradley, the Blue coach of the University, on Monday, November 26, at 3 p.m. in University Hall.

The lecture will be given in the Physical Science Building.

Student Health Service Facilities Transferred

The Student Health Service and its facilities to the new building, which must be ready by the time the lecture is delivered, will be discussed in detail by Professor E. S. Bradley.

On January 15, 1960, Professor E. S. Bradley, director of the health service, addressed the Student Council in a luncheon meeting at the university.

"I think it's time we started thinking about something else to talk about," he said.

"As an example, I think it's time we started thinking about something else to talk about," he said.

"It's time we started thinking about something else to talk about," he said.

Editors Discuss Ivy Gridle League At AP Meeting

By Bernard Schwartz

Coleman, the managing editor of the Columbia"Tetons," was elected president of the Associated Clubs and Columbia mentor Lou Little was chosen to serve as the Columbia mentor at the annual meeting of both the major and minor clubs.

The auditions are open to all students, both men and women, who wish to participate in the group. The auditions will be held in the Alumnae Library on November 26, at 3 p.m. in University Hall.

As a group, the Tetons are said to make their feelings known to the students who face the challenge of college life. The Tetons are a group of students who meet to discuss and plan the activities of the university.

"I don't agree entirely with the Ivy rules," the Blue coach added.

"I don't agree entirely with the Ivy rules," the Blue coach added.

"I don't agree entirely with the Ivy rules," the Blue coach added.

To the members of the students and to the faculty, we offer our congratulations on the successful completion of the new building.

Justice Wm. J. Brennan

Bradley to Discuss Increase in Students

The problems that a liberal arts college faces when the student body increases more rapidly than the student body can be expected to do in the next few years, will be the subject of a lecture by Professor E. S. Bradley, the Blue coach of the University, on Monday, November 26, at 3 p.m. in University Hall.

The lecture will be given in the Physical Science Building.

Student Health Service Facilities Transferred

The Student Health Service and its facilities to the new building, which must be ready by the time the lecture is delivered, will be discussed in detail by Professor E. S. Bradley.

On January 15, 1960, Professor E. S. Bradley, director of the health service, addressed the Student Council in a luncheon meeting at the university.

"I think it's time we started thinking about something else to talk about," he said.

"As an example, I think it's time we started thinking about something else to talk about," he said.

"It's time we started thinking about something else to talk about," he said.

Editors Discuss Ivy Gridle League At AP Meeting

By Bernard Schwartz

Coleman, the managing editor of the Columbia"Tetons," was elected president of the Associated Clubs and Columbia mentor Lou Little was chosen to serve as the Columbia mentor at the annual meeting of both the major and minor clubs.

The auditions are open to all students, both men and women, who wish to participate in the group. The auditions will be held in the Alumnae Library on November 26, at 3 p.m. in University Hall.

As a group, the Tetons are said to make their feelings known to the students who face the challenge of college life. The Tetons are a group of students who meet to discuss and plan the activities of the university.

"I don't agree entirely with the Ivy rules," the Blue coach added.

"I don't agree entirely with the Ivy rules," the Blue coach added.

"I don't agree entirely with the Ivy rules," the Blue coach added.

To the members of the students and to the faculty, we offer our congratulations on the successful completion of the new building.
Poor Richard's Almanac

by Charles H. MacNamara

There are articles on a pet hospital, neurology, smoking for 3 years. "I had Viceroys for 3 years."

Bells Are Ringing

by Lewis Merkin

"Bells Are Ringing" proves once again the undeniable superiority of expression writing and expression ability. If anyone thought there was any doubt, then the opus has a degree in the box. The first Broadway magazine as Barry Comden and Adolph Green, Jerome Robbins, Zeffie Jones, Jack Wrather, and the Theatre Guild have collaborated to install, as the noted service operator who can't help mixing in with the service. While a statistical number 27 million phones to make her famous, and his phone is to state that she promises a mixture between both cuts and clients.

A Busy Life

There is consensus that the praise of a busy life is a praise for a vogue thing they color no more personal contact between operators and clients. Prevented from personal contact, Ella decided on personal action. Calling herself "Bellissima Bella," she marched into Miss' apartment, forcing her to finish her own manuscript.

Guest Dowc Teved

Next victim in the Kemnich, a dentist whose rather pratique Tin Pan Alley. Ella's opinion of him is in the air, and so on both sides of love, but by the way they wind up together. Even with crazy char-acter, the Bentley Comdon-Adolph Green script is unbelievably believable. The humor steaks up on, creeps around, and then those there are articles on a pet hospital, neurology, smoking for 3 years. I had Viceroys for 3 years.

Viceroys are Smoother

by Charles H. MacNamara

There are articles on a pet hospital, neurology, smoking for 3 years. I had Viceroys for 3 years.

Bells Are Ringing

by Lewis Merkin

"Bells Are Ringing" proves once again the undeniable superiority of expression writing and expression ability. If anyone thought there was any doubt, then the opus has a degree in the box. The first Broadway magazine as Barry Comden and Adolph Green, Jerome Robbins, Zeffie Jones, Jack Wrather, and the Theatre Guild have collaborated to install, as the noted service operator who can't help mixing in with the service. While a statistical number 27 million phones to make her famous, and his phone is to state that she promises a mixture between both cuts and clients.

A Busy Life

There is consensus that the praise of a busy life is a praise for a vogue thing they color no more personal contact between operators and clients. Prevented from personal contact, Ella decided on personal action. Calling herself "Bellissima Bella," she marched into Miss' apartment, forcing her to finish her own manuscript.

Guest Dowc Teved

Next victim in the Kemnich, a dentist whose rather pratique Tin Pan Alley. Ella's opinion of him is in the air, and so on both sides of love, but by the way they wind up together. Even with crazy character, the Bentley Comdon-Adolph Green script is unbelievably believable. The humor steaks up on, creeps around, and then those...
Penn Lightweights Deadlock Princeton Eleven in Finale

The final game of the season for Princeton's 11-man team was a 5-5 tie with Princeton. The game was played Friday afternoon at Shuart Field.

The 1956 Pennsylvania 11-man football team faced with Head Coach Warren Hineman and his assistant, Joe Drigan. Penn ended their season Friday by tying Princeton, 17, on Murphy Field.

Brown Opposes Lions To Open Ivy Grid Card

Columbia will play Brown in Providence, Saturday, September 28, 1957, to open the second formal Ivy Grid Card season, as suggested in the league schedule which was released by Penn's director of athletics Jerry Ford. These two teams opened the first year's conference at Baker Field in New York. The Browners this harvest moon victory 21-0.

Once were the complete Shugam round schedulined who played by the member teams. The first full week of competition will be October 5 when all eight squads will meet. All matches of Columbia will be at the Shugam Field in New York. The Columbia-Harvard grid card meet will be Harvard's.
NOTICES

PHILATELIC SOCIETY

New-Beginner classes in stamp collecting throughout the school year are presented by the Student Stamp Club.

PHILANTHROPY

CURR. STUDENT PROJECT IN PROGRESS

In order to help support the Student Stamp Club, a current student project is in progress. Students are encouraged to donate their unused stamps to this cause.

PHILMATHEMATICS

Join the PhilMathematics Society for a fun and engaging experience in mathematics.

PHILANTHROPY

New-Beginner classes in stamp collecting throughout the school year are presented by the Student Stamp Club.

PHILANTHROPY

CURR. STUDENT PROJECT IN PROGRESS

In order to help support the Student Stamp Club, a current student project is in progress. Students are encouraged to donate their unused stamps to this cause.

PHILANTHROPY

New-Beginner classes in stamp collecting throughout the school year are presented by the Student Stamp Club.

PHILANTHROPY

CURR. STUDENT PROJECT IN PROGRESS

In order to help support the Student Stamp Club, a current student project is in progress. Students are encouraged to donate their unused stamps to this cause.

PHILANTHROPY

New-Beginner classes in stamp collecting throughout the school year are presented by the Student Stamp Club.

PHILANTHROPY

CURR. STUDENT PROJECT IN PROGRESS

In order to help support the Student Stamp Club, a current student project is in progress. Students are encouraged to donate their unused stamps to this cause.

PHILANTHROPY

New-Beginner classes in stamp collecting throughout the school year are presented by the Student Stamp Club.

PHILANTHROPY

CURR. STUDENT PROJECT IN PROGRESS

In order to help support the Student Stamp Club, a current student project is in progress. Students are encouraged to donate their unused stamps to this cause.

PHILANTHROPY

New-Beginner classes in stamp collecting throughout the school year are presented by the Student Stamp Club.

PHILANTHROPY

CURR. STUDENT PROJECT IN PROGRESS

In order to help support the Student Stamp Club, a current student project is in progress. Students are encouraged to donate their unused stamps to this cause.

PHILANTHROPY

New-Beginner classes in stamp collecting throughout the school year are presented by the Student Stamp Club.

PHILANTHROPY

CURR. STUDENT PROJECT IN PROGRESS

In order to help support the Student Stamp Club, a current student project is in progress. Students are encouraged to donate their unused stamps to this cause.

PHILANTHROPY

New-Beginner classes in stamp collecting throughout the school year are presented by the Student Stamp Club.

PHILANTHROPY

CURR. STUDENT PROJECT IN PROGRESS

In order to help support the Student Stamp Club, a current student project is in progress. Students are encouraged to donate their unused stamps to this cause.

PHILANTHROPY

New-Beginner classes in stamp collecting throughout the school year are presented by the Student Stamp Club.

PHILANTHROPY

CURR. STUDENT PROJECT IN PROGRESS

In order to help support the Student Stamp Club, a current student project is in progress. Students are encouraged to donate their unused stamps to this cause.

PHILANTHROPY

New-Beginner classes in stamp collecting throughout the school year are presented by the Student Stamp Club.