Pre-registration Held Next Week

Pre-registration for all University organizations will be held from Monday to Saturday. These students enrolled in the College can make appointments to register by coming to the College of Education. Submissions, junior, and senior students, are required to contact their advisors during the registration period. The names of all Wharton students who have pre-registered will be posted outside of Room E-115. They are:

Pre-registration is held on the courses which students will take and the approximate size of the various classes can be worked out before registration is held at the beginning of each semester. No new changes will be made in the pre-registrations before the registration period begins the following week. The freshmen in the Wharton School do not have to see their advisors before pre-registration.

Record Photo Proofs To Be Returned by 5

Photo proofs will be returned to those students who have pre-registered for the courses in which they wish to enroll. They will be returned to 2141 Woodland Avenue. Members of the Junior Class, Robert W. Cawley, editor-in-chief of the 1957 Record, announced that he commented that the proofs are kept on hand to ensure that the pictures of each student's choice appear in the Record.

Levy Cites Percentage Increase of 5.64; Goal Set at Start of Campaign Exceeded

A new high of $13,124.04 was collected in this year's Campus Chest Drive, exceeding the goal of $12,000 which was set at the beginning of the campaign. Dr. William J. Levy, general chairman of the drive, who made the announcement, said that the figures are not final, as some money is still outstanding. He also pointed out that the total is an increase of 5.64% and an absolute increase of $1,124.04. The total amount which was raised last year was $12,451.87, Levy said, which means that the percentage increase was over last year's $2,518.87, and Levy's prediction that the amount collected was set against the goal of $12,000, based on last year's total.

The School of Medicine

In the Tradition

by Joe Corriere

There are many benefits which can be obtained at the University of Pennsylvania. We have helped the world and we have helped each other. Many students are able to afford able, as are liberal benefits and numerous courses. The library and its benefactors are interested in the welfare of the school.

In order to make these courses accessible to all

students, the library and its benefactors

are interested in the welfare of the school.

students, the library and its benefactors

together have established a number of scholarships, prizes, and fellowships for the benefit of the students. In addition, there are many organizations and clubs on campus that offer various opportunities for students to participate in extracurricular activities.

Penn Wrestlers Losing Depth in Lifting Weight

Having the dawn to post a miraculous season, Penn's wrestling team has

In recent years, the University Men's Wrestling Team has maintained a strong presence on the national stage, frequently competing against some of the top teams in the country. However, the recent season has presented challenges for the team, particularly in the areas of depth and consistency. The team's performance has been affected by a combination of factors, including injuries, changes in roster, and the impact of the pandemic on training and competition. Despite these obstacles, the team continues to work diligently to improve and compete at a high level in the upcoming season.
