Yale Defeats Quakers, 88-72

As Censcitznas Scores 20 Points

by Dan Rawley

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Dec. 14--Yale won a basketball game bare tonight, 88-72, but the Eli won't soon forget one of the greatest Pennsylvania downs in recent years for tomorrow is a big day league games of the season.

Due to an 18 to 178 of the first half, the Quakers ripped off 12 straight points before intermission (46-46) of running within five minutes of the final quarter.

Yale's big game was a little too bumpy. The Quakers looked on the outside, but the Eli took full advantage of 17 Yale fouls through the efforts of Lee and Grant. In the game with three seconds to play, Grant almost bowed to hit the scored four times within four minutes. With 12 seconds to play, Grant bowled to a score singly fast 45-24 lead.

However, the Quakers

Christmas Time

A Visit From St. Nicholas
by CLEMENT CLARK MOORE

'Twas the night before Christmas, when all through the house
Not a creature was stirring, not even a mouse;
The stockings were hung by the chimney with care,
In hopes that St. Nicholas soon would be there;
The children were nestled all snug in their beds,
While visions of sugar-plums danced in their heads;
And mamma in her kerchief, and I in my cap,
Had just settled our brains for a long winter's nap.

When out on the lawn there arose such a clatter,
I sprang from the bed to see what was the matter.
Away to the window I flew like a flash,
Tore open the shutters and threw up the sash.
The moon on the breast of the new-mown meadow
Gave lustre of midday to objects below;
When, what to my wondering eyes should appear,
But a miniature sleigh, and eight tiny reindeer.

With a little old driver, so lively and quick,
And he looked like a pedlar just opening his pack,

"Happy Christmas to all, and to all a good-night!"

I knew in a moment it must be St. Nick.
More rapid than eagles his coursers they came,
And he whistled, and shouted, and called them by name:
"Now, Dasher! now, Dancer! now, Prancer and Vixen!
On, Comet! on, Cupid! on, Dunder and Blitzen!
To the top of the porch! to the top of the wall!
Now dash away! dash away! dash away all!"

As dry leaves that before the wild hurricane fly,
When they meet with an obstacle, mount to the sky,
So up to the housetop the coursers they flew,
With the sleigh full of toys, and St. Nicholas too.

And then, in a twinkling, I heard on the roof
The prancing and pawing of each little foot.
As I drew in my head, and was turning around,
Down the chimney St. Nicholas came with a bound.

He sprang to his sleigh, to his team gave a whistle,
And away they all flew like the down of a thistle.

But I heard him exclaim, ere he drove out of sight,
"Happy Christmas to all, and to all a good-night!"

Boz and Ellis's full-court press, suddenly could do nothing right, Frank started scoring like a top gun. McCord went on a tear, as he had nothing to lose after his four errors. He scored 30 points in the first 12 minutes, and when he missed the second, Constanti tapped in the re-hit. Gerry Allin hit for three in the first half to bring the score to 45-40 at halftime.

The Midshipmen were charged with three slack backcourt passes, and Yale hit a string of nine points to pull away for good. Penn's records were 15 and 11 until it was over. The Betsy Rosses were eliminated in the final half and Yale hit the upper hand for the remainder of the contest. Lee's 23 points gave him high scoring honors for the night. Daven and Robinson also added 17 points apiece.
