President Harnwell's decision to rehire Steve Sebo to a new three-year contract as head football coach was unjustified, illogical, and unwise. If Dr. Harnwell's decision to rehire Steve Sebo is unjustified, illogical, and unwise, his advice to these committed trustees is to resign.

His decision was based upon a letter written by trustees.

He did not have the advice of those trusted men whom he constantly seeks out in his formulation of all top-level administrative decisions.

He did not seek out, but had at his disposal the unvarnished opinions of the sophomores and junior lettermen winners of this year's football team.

The unvarnished opinions are revealed in columns one and two.

From the prises and cita statement, it seems clear that he was most greatly influenced by three main factors.

He stressed his "personal character and integrity in keeping faith with established policies designed to further the University's educational purposes."

In effect this means that Sebo has been rehired as a football coach with a 3-year contract that can be extended by the Trustees after the next three years.

He has been rehired with the advice of those who have not been consulted.

The Sophomores and Juniors have been consulted.

"I certainly expect to keep the same coaching staff be next year," said Sebo, adding that the "way this season turned out was beyond our wildest dreams."

He felt real good," a next-year football player said.

Sebo's Qualifications Led Harnwell; Decision May Antagonize Committee

Trustees Opposed Renewing Contract

(Continued from page one) Another member of the Committee who wished to have his name withheld said that the position made up his mind long before the Committee made its recommendation.

"I firmly believe," he continued, "that the president's decision was based primarily on his desire to establish absolute political "neutral" in the realm of University athletics. There can be no other justification for the president's decision and I am certainly wondering whether any of the committees from the Council of President made its recommendation on this matter reasonably."

--James C. Patterson, president of the general student council, attended at his home in New York, would make no official comment on the decision.

Patterson was present at the December meeting, at the instigation of Dr. Alfred H. Williams, chairman of the Board of Trustees, although he (Patterson) is not a member of the Advisory Council.

Other members of the committee include: John Wilkins, Everett Day, Gordon A. Hardewick, Frank Maddaj and H. Newell Burnham.

THE GIFT HORSE

The college life is a busy one, especially at this time of year. With going to classes and studying for exams and preparing a full social schedule and constructing enough free time to get away for a few days, it is easy to see how it is possible for a student to lose his money or his mind. And the last thing society understands is for them to use their income to buy a horse.

Therefore, to aid you in your Christmas shopping, I have gone into the market place and selected for you a list of gifts, notable for their originality. Perhaps the most original gift of all this year is a man of Philip Morris Cigarettes. "Original?" you ex-cline, your busy young eyewalds rising. "Why, we have been giving cards of Philip Morris for years!"

Tou're righ, but each time you give Philip Morris. It is a new treat, a fresh delight, a pleasing surprise. Each card this year is a different picture, and is just as good as the first one you ever tried.

Another gift destined for certain popularity this year is a gift certificate from the American Dental Association. This certificate, good at any dentist's office in America, is accompanied by a handsome gift card which is engraved this lovely poem:

My Merry Christmas, little dog, do you need some real candy?

Propylazine? Porcelain caps?

Bridgework to snap up those Shiny braces that will straighten?

Inlays? Filling? Upper plates?

Merry Christmas to health,

And the rows beneath.

All-American honors in his junior year, is Livnack's pride and joy. Rodgers has averaged a shade over 22 points in the Owl's four contests to date, and he took almost personal charges to the tip-top with the Tigers, with 23 minutes, 18 seconds and, amazingly, enough, also rebound his. He also contributed 27 points in a losing cause against the Buckeyes.

Backing up Rodgers will be three other seniors and a junior, his first, seven foot make-up. Peter Going provides the Owl's with plenty of stride length as he heads the "giant" Penn five, but neither Rodgers nor Goring has done much scoring since.

However, junior Jay Norman has been helpful from the floor. He posted an exceptional 77 per cent field goal average in tallying 17 points in the Owl's last contest. Also, Dick Remskar, the other starting center, tallies 10 markers against the Tigers.

Livnack indicated earlier that the youngsters sophomores Franklin might be a surprise starter for the Owl's in place of Gomo. Speaking of surprises, it's a B. H. Barnum University practice to select a big one Saturday, and helped to upset a little bit of history.

Penn Lifters Loses
