Cast Announced by Dr. Barone Opera 'Orefeo ed Euridice'

The cast for the first of the Music Department's three major productions, the opera 'Orefeo ed Euridice,' by Christoph Willibald Gluck, was announced yesterday by Dr. Joseph Barone, director of music at the University.

The date of the presentation, which Dr. Barone said he hoped would be before Christmas, would be examined to determine the schedule of midyear examinations for the cast.

Loss of Income Reported in Poll Of Eating Places

Restaurants and hatcheries in the University area reported a 12 to 20 per cent loss in trade. A few restaurants reported no loss as a result of the Common plan, saying that they usually do business almost entirely with University students.

One of the local restaurant owners said that he felt that the Common was a good idea, that it should be modified so that it would not be necessary for all University students to be present in order to increase their business that would usually be expected with University students.

Another restaurant owner, who did not wish to be named, said that the Common was not a good idea and that he would not continue to do business with University students.

Penn Players Announces Cast of Production 'Crucible'

William Raser, Charlotte Sherborn, Adele Roos and Robert Civita have been announced as the cast members for Penn Players' production of Arthur Miller's 'Crucible.'

The production, which has been created under the direction of John Proctor, will be performed in the Reciting Hall at 8 p.m. on Monday, December 12. Admission is free to all members of the faculty.

The production of 'Crucible' is an adaptation of Sherman's play, 'The Crucible.'

Educational Survey Conducting Systematic Study of Functions; Will Aid Students, Teachers, Scientists, Growth of University

Dr. Joseph H. Willeit (left) and Dr. Malcolm G. Preston (right), Directors of the Educational Survey, stand in front of the survey's new laboratory, which was dedicated yesterday in a study of all the University's educational functions.

The educational survey was established to improve all of the University's functions by determining the extent and quality of those educational and administrative services which are sponsored by the University and are necessary to the efficient and effective functioning of the University as an educational institution.

Pennsylvania Will Prepare Initial Plans for Lounge Beneath Junior Balcony

Trautwein Will Announce Plans for Lounge Beneath Junior Balcony

Trustees Allowed $5,000 for Sketches; Estimated Cost for Center Is $400,000.

George K. Trautwein of the Trautwein and Howard architectural firm has been appointed as architect for the lounge beneath the junior balcony. Mr. Moore, business vice-president, said yesterday.

The selection of the Trustees of the University on October 17, 1956, 89,000 was appropriated for preliminary drawings of the proposed lounge. Trautwein will begin work on those drawings in the near future.

In preparing these sketches, the architect will work closely with Gene D. Gloneck, president of the student affairs; George R. Petersen, vice-president of the University of the University, Moore said.

Cost $140,000

It is estimated that the cost of the lounge rooms will be $140,000, including the necessary furniture and equipment, which will be furnished by the University.

According to Moore, the lounge will be ready for occupancy in January, 1958.

Penn players announced cast of production 'Crucible'

The production has been created under the direction of John Proctor, will be performed in the Reciting Hall at 8 p.m. on Monday, December 12. Admission is free to all members of the faculty.

The production of 'Crucible' is an adaptation of Sherman's play, 'The Crucible.'

The educational survey was established to improve all of the University's functions by determining the extent and quality of those educational and administrative services which are sponsored by the University and are necessary to the efficient and effective functioning of the University as an educational institution.

Wise Award Fund

Started for Seniors

The Sigma Nu Award Fund, which has been established by the Sigma Nu fraternity, Godfrey P. Harwell, president of the University, and the alumni of the University, will be used to provide financial aid for seniors who have achieved outstanding academic records.

The fund, which was established by the Sigma Nu fraternity, will provide financial aid for seniors who have achieved outstanding academic records.

The fund will be used to provide financial aid for seniors who have achieved outstanding academic records.
Letters to the Editor should be addressed to the Editor of The Daily Pennsylvaniaian.

The Letters Editor should be double spaced at 40 characters per line.
Princeton Nips Penn, 67-64, In Overtime League Game

Saturday night at the Palestra, Pennsylvania's varsity basketball team showed they had the dollars and sense to use them advantageously, instead of shooting, especially from the foul line, cost them at 6:27 overtime decision to Princeton.

Princeton, in their first Ivy League game of the season, looked anything but a team that was scheduled to lose by 27 points, and had to come from one point deficit with 6:27 remaining in the game to send the contest into overtime.

Senior guard David Marshman, who scored the winning basket at 6:07, scored Penn's 19 points in the final four minutes, and Penn won their 18th straight. The win was the fifth straight for the Quakers.

Steve Thomas and Michael Connelly of the 18-point Penn team scored the most points.

Penn finished fourth in the Ivy in the first half at 6:07, and led Princeton, 31-28, in the second round.

The win was the third in a row for the Quakers.

For the game, Saturday's winner, David Marshman and John Martin, averaged 18 points for Penn. Penn defeated Princeton, 67-64, in the first half of the nine-point win.

For the Quaker counter, John Martin, who averaged 18 points for the game, led Penn. Penn defeated Princeton, 67-64, in the first half of the nine-point win.

For the game, Sunday's winner, John Martin, who averaged 18 points for the game, led Penn. Penn defeated Princeton, 67-64, in the first half of the nine-point win.

The win was the third in a row for the Quakers.

Steve Thomas and Michael Connelly of the 18-point Penn team scored the most points.

Penn finished fourth in the Ivy in the first half at 6:07, and led Princeton, 31-28, in the second round.

The win was the third in a row for the Quakers.

Steve Thomas and Michael Connelly of the 18-point Penn team scored the most points.

Penn finished fourth in the Ivy in the first half at 6:07, and led Princeton, 31-28, in the second round.

The win was the third in a row for the Quakers.
Wharton Graduate is Financial Editor

Pen Bryn Story, a 1941 graduate of the Wharton School, has been named financial editor of the Philadelphia Inquirer. Walter F. Annenberg, executive editor of the Inquirer, announced yesterday.

Pen Bryn is also a member of the Pen Bryn, R.B., and has been assistant financial editor of The Philadelphia Press.

After graduating from the Wharton School, Pen Bryn worked for short time for H. C. Byllyson & Company, Philadelphia. He then was a reporter for the Philadelphia Record before joining the Inquirer four years ago.

He lives in Newtown Square, Pa., with his wife and three-year-old daughter.

Classified Ads

OPPORTUNITIES—Proxy.
1. Cattle owner, have 300 head of Black Angus. Will take 5000 for high. Call or write.
2. Cigarette distributor, want to take 3000 cases of Prince. Add now.
3. Have 4000 turkeys, want 5000 now. Call 919.
4. Own 200 head of hogs. Will take 4000 for 5000. Call 929.
8. Own 100 head of cattle. Will take 5000 for 5000. Call 929.
10. Own 500 head of cattle. Will take 5000 for 5000. Call 929.

50,000 Books
All One Price. Ten— 50¢
S. W. Cor. 21st & Market
10 A.M. to 9:30 P.M.

LEE WOLKOVICH's Delicatessen
4018 Cheesman St.
Delicious Pizza with Sandwiches To Groups
WE DELIVER
CALL BA 2-4471
Open Tonight till 12

Magic Zen
Chinese Restaurant
414 N. 16th St.
Open 11 A.M. to 10 P.M.
Order Delivery
Call 236-5236

See page 3 for Varsity Shop
Annual Sale... come to save.

Penn Reading Clinic Will Offer Course Starting February 4

The University Reading Clinic will offer a one-week course for improving the reading and study skills of all Penn students starting February 4.

The course will emphasize such study skills as mastering textbook assignments, taking notes, using time efficiently and preparing for and taking examinations, as well as aiding students in reading faster and with greater comprehension.

First meeting from 10 to 10:30 a.m. on Monday, February 4, at 1 p.m. A second meeting will be held on Tuesday and Thursday at 1 p.m. Beginning February 18, a third group will be organized through conference room number 16.

All interested students must first schedule an interview for a conference with the clinic director, Philip L. Pederson, in 1618 Eells Library Annex, 3415 Lat-more Street, E 60-410. Refund prior to February 3.

No 'Stiff' for Phila.; Kansas Bid Refused

In a move to pacify the fans who showed up for the game, the Penn administration made an effort to keep the playing time down to under two hours and arranged for the game to be played on a hard outdoor surface.

The Kansas coach, according to Ford, stated that he felt it was important to keep the game short and that the number of penalties should be reduced. He also stated that he felt it was important to keep the game down to under two hours.

The Kansas coach was quoted as saying that he felt it was important to keep the game down to under two hours and that the number of penalties should be reduced.

Hungarian Stars To Perform at Penn

The Palace and Hanoverian Gym will be the site of a mammoth basketball rivalry Monday
when the touring Hungarian Olympic Team will face the University of Pennsylvania's
Sports Federation, in a sale-ning, swimming, weight lifting, and basketball event.

The game will be followed by a dance.

Intramural Basketball

The Independent Undergraduate Basketball League will sell Thurs-

January 19, at five.

Basketball Date Night

Date nights for this week are

Fordham, 8-11 points, in the third in four Bl

The triumph

of this world. It's all cigarette . . . not bin-

Any way you light It, •Lu-

You might rub two sticks together

— but it'll take you hours to see the light. You might

With the Tigers,

put in a jump shot to

in a

In overtime Ivy League Fray

In Intramural Basketball

Freshman Five Beats Templars On Late Surge

(Continued from page three)

straight-from-the-shoulder late in the half with Paul Keen, Alex De Laet and Cornett being the initials.

Stealing the top to open the sec-

Foreign Film

eral group and foul seven at 23-23 and 27-27. With Mas-

and Cornett showing the way

Penn put the Kama away. Kelso hit on a

To Perform at Penn

Three months after

the game and IVnn \\n
This week will also sell be-

in the Auditorium

in the Auditorium

In overtime Ivy League Fray

And Cornett being the initials.

Stealing the top to open the sec-

General group and foul seven at 23-23 and 27-27. With Mas-

and Cornett showing the way

Penn put the Kama away. Kelso hit on a

To Perform at Penn

Three months after

the game and IVnn \\n
This week will also sell be-

in the Auditorium

in the Auditorium

In overtime Ivy League Fray

And Cornett being the initials.

Stealing the top to open the sec-

General group and foul seven at 23-23 and 27-27. With Mas-

and Cornett showing the way

Penn put the Kama away. Kelso hit on a

To Perform at Penn

Three months after

the game and IVnn \\n
This week will also sell be-

in the Auditorium

in the Auditorium

In overtime Ivy League Fray

And Cornett being the initials.

Stealing the top to open the sec-

General group and foul seven at 23-23 and 27-27. With Mas-

and Cornett showing the way

Penn put the Kama away. Kelso hit on a

To Perform at Penn

Three months after

the game and IVnn \\n
This week will also sell be-

in the Auditorium

in the Auditorium

In overtime Ivy League Fray

And Cornett being the initials.