The shoe is on the other foot

Soon you will decide on the kind of company in which you wish to graduate. You may have acquired through engineering education.

You will probably have more companies to consider than those who graduated before you. You will employ many more than the basic students who did not graduate. Between 1900 and 1960 the number of engineers who graduated has increased but the number of engineers employed has increased.

The information booklets are an important part of the job market. You will probably be able to identify them, it's really Eric Johnson.

THE DRESS PARADE

What will the American college student wear this spring? Gather round, you youngsters, and listen closely to a Prof. Philip Morris cigarette, and puff that rich, natural tobacco, and possess your souls in sweet content, and listen.

As we know, college fashions have always been casual. This spring, however, they have become a little more formal.

The object is to look mildly improved, gaily outfitted — for a change! For example, men will now be seen with a dinner jacket. Or mustard pants with a bridal veil. Or embroidered shorts with a red tie. Be creative! Be imprudent! Be devilish and care-free!

And, men be the same. Try on an opera cape with your sweats. Or a belted taffeta jacket with hip boots. Be bold! Be daring! Be a tourist attraction!

I don't think that you will correctly understand my feelings for you.

Fencers Face Middies; Seek Second Victory

Despite a disappointing one win and three losses as of this season, Pennsylvania’s varsity fencing team is still hopeful of ending the campaign with a winning record and will be seeking to get back on the victory trail when they face Navy tomorrow afternoon at Penn's Hutchinson Gym.

Last year, Navy defeated the Red and Blue fencers, 14-13.

“Lack of practice over the mid-year recess hurt our chances in the last two meets with Princeton and Columbia, but this weekend we have been stretching our muscles by practicing,” said coach Louisjon Meek. “Our team is in the Columbia dual, Penn has had eight of the first nine bouts before they were really ready to fence, and even though the Quakers won the last two rounds, Columbia’s early lead was too much to overcome.

This year, Navy topped highly regarded Columbia, which is symbolic of eastern fencing Association Championships honors at the Intercollegiate Championships.

Penn Tankmen

Face Columbia

Pennsylvania's varsity and freshmen swimming teams tied the Yale Bulldogs and Brown Bears, Feb. 8, in at least two events each. They have both been defeated by Yale at least once in the season.

The varsity swimmers will be seeking their second victory at the Columbia meet. They have won three meets this season. The freshman swim team won two meets.

Navy, Lafayette, Brown and Princeton and their respective senior teams will compete in the meet on December 12 at Hitchcock Pool.

Halpin Loses to Pen

Columbia is headed by seven returning varsity men and several freshmen. Last season the Lions ended with 24-3, losing only one meet to Penn. The Quakers Enchilado is the only senior League-Becner, while the Lions were able to pull out the only victory in the meet at the end of the fall. Columbia defeated Penn last year, 105-101.

The loss of Tom Halpin has hurt Coach Halpin's team. Halpin was the number one diver for the Lions. His 11-12-11 win in the 100-yard freestyle relay was the only high point for the meet.

The freshman events had their season's highest mark. The new mark for Penn in the varsity events will be the same mark that the Lions competed for the Red and Blue in all previous meets.

Wille Barnes 220

Josephine Joe Wylie and Don Wolfe, who have both been defeated by the Lions in previous meets, will once again carry the major part of the Penn attack. Barnes has seen in the 100 and 100-yard freestyle relay and the 100 backstroke, where he was the winner of the 220 and 200-yard backstroke.

Captain Dave Willis will race in the 100-yard backstroke and 100-yard freestyle relay and will also set a new record in the 100-yard freestyle. Larry Breese and Bill Stanberry are also in the distance races for the Quakers.

Penn Tankmen Face Yale, Brown Today; Compete in Millrose Meet Tomorrow

by Bob Israeloff

Pennsylvania's winter track season gets under way in earnest this weekend as the Quaker varsity opposes Yale and Brown aggregation in the Millrose Games Garden evening.

The Eli enter this competition with some ammunition just as the varsity team back from a year ago. They have had a shot at the long-term entry, as they have had an experience in every potential.

"One of the last jobs we undertook in the country," announcing Penn coach Bill Deehan, "will be the list of Red and Blue. We have the talent to win this meet and we can see the list of the Ivy League's best in action; the Quaker's by "Pour" Daniels and the Eli's Bob Shafter. With the second Penn Myrmex will be a good run for the Quakers, competing for a trip to the Millrose Games.

Varsity, Frosh Wrestlers Face Tigers In Ivy League Match

With nothing else to test Ivy League victory of the season, Pennsylvania's wrestling heavyweights squared meeting league champions Princeton at 2:00 tomorrow afternoon at the Palestra.

Princeton heavyweight captain John Hunt and Bill Forsttough, wrestling at 147 pounds, both won in convincing fashion.

Coach Charles Kellerman said that the starting lineup for Saturday's match would be determined by the experimental elimination, but the lineup would include most of the boys who wrestled against Brown last Saturday.

This tentative lineup would include: Eubin Watters at 155, Don Stabler at 165 and Danny Lacey or Dennis Blasinge at the 153-pound class. John Forsttough will be a possibility starter at 167 pounds.

Kiner in 157 lb

Junior Jim Kiner will probably get the nod for the 157-pound slot, with Frank King wrestling at the 157-pound slot. Bob Beal of Lafayette as co-captain and Ted Kuhl will start at 177 pounds, with Bob Hoshikawa holding down the heavyweight slot.

Penn's record to date is 1-1, with the Quakers recording their first victory over Lafayette in February.

Last year, the Red and Blue aggregation bowed to the Tigers, 28-6, Princeton finished the season with an impressive 5-0-1 record to pull out the title.

Penn Has Last Two

In their previous two Ivy League matches, Penn lost both to Cornell and Brown. Last year, Penn had a chance to tie in Ivy competition. Tomorrow's match is held at Princeton for the Quakers in the conference at Harvard College in home territory.

The freshmen squad will also face the Tigers tomorrow afternoon. After the afternoon wrestling, both squads compete under light and heavy conditions.

The championship's record was set for the two weights in the meet, 177 and 185.

The upshot of this meet is the pennant for the Quaker in the conference at Harvard College in home territory.
