Quaker Cagers Battle Hawks in City Contest, Seek First Series Win

St. Joseph's Aim For Tourney Bid

Pennsylvania's basketball team, wildcats in City competition for the first time in five years, is using the same technique to upset the dope and throw the City into an excitement high as that of Joseph's quietness in tonight's Palestra doubleheader finale.

Villanova and Washington and Lee go at it in the 7:30 opening.

The Hawks, soaring mightily as a 14-14 mark, have a double target to shoot at. They need a win tonight or tomorrow to go into next week's tournament with a 21-8 record, since the Owls are 21-7. The Owls will try to do the same and then wait to see if and when the Hawks go at the Owls.

On addition for the Hawks is a possible post-season appearance in the National Invitational Tournament, with a large 21-7 record, since the NCAA has four fixtures.

Dr. Haun, dean of St. Joseph's, said tonight that he was greatly interested in tonight's P ili game.

Debate Held Tonight

"Papa John"+

A two-man team from England was admitted to the United States for a debate at the Student Council tonight at 7. Harry Keesler, English professor, and a law student from England, will present arguments on the subject of American law versus English law.

The debate is open to all students and is sponsored by the Student Council.

The event, which is being sponsored by the Council, will be open to the public and no admission will be charged.

Dorm Room Rent Increase Not Anticipated, Harris Says

We do not anticipate any increase in dormitory room rent next year and there are no plans to add a tax on the dormitory room bills, Harris said today.

Harris said: "When you move into a dormitory, you are not allowed to come back and change your mind. You are not allowed to come back and leave when you get tired of the room.

"You should not move from the room you are in, and you should not move to another room. You should not move into a new dormitory while you are still living in the old one.

"You are not allowed to change your mind. You are not allowed to change your room. You are not allowed to change your room in any way."

Students Resign Highball Posts In Protest Move

In a group that said that "we were unwilling to lend our names to a magazine that was run uncontrollably by a small minority," the group of the members of the board also said: "It is almost certain that the magazine would be managed by a publishing company that would do it for us without our aid, and would guarantee the magazine on an annual subscription.

Scholarships May Increase Because of Rise in Tuition

Considerable Portion of Tuition Increase Will Be Used for Aid, Rhodes States

Many scholarships will increase next term due to the rise in tuition. This is the first time that a scholarship has been increased because of the rise in tuition.

According to Rhodes, a considerable number of scholarships will increase next term.

He said: "The University does not have the power to guarantee the student a scholarship because of the rise in tuition, but the University will guarantee the student a scholarship as long as the student is willing to continue his studies.

 Rhodes also said that the University does not have the power to guarantee the student a scholarship because of the rise in tuition, but the University will guarantee the student a scholarship as long as the student is willing to continue his studies.

The Athletic Manager

Penn's Forgotten Men

by Lloyd Swain, Jr.

While the players have little time to worry about anything except earning the money in the big game, the manager is always there in the background. He is the main figure in the background, always there with the equipment, ready to do his job. For the first team, the manager is always there to see that the team is ready to play. For the second team, it is the same. The manager is always there, ready to help.

DIARY OF A COED

MONDAY: Prof. Frommefrit sprays quin in English in this morning. If Shakespeare didn't write Canterbury Tales, we'd be learning rugby in our history classes instead of Shakespeare at our universities. Today we had a home football game, and the coach of our team, a real live coach, has won the trophy. He's a great coach, and we're all very happy. It was a great day, and we all went to the party after the game. We had a lot of fun, and everyone was very happy.

TUESDAY: It was a very hot day, and we all went to the beach. We had a great time, and everyone was in good spirits. We all had a lot of fun, and we all went home very happy.

WEDNESDAY: We got our marks in English lit last night, and we all did very well. We all went to the party, and everyone had a great time. We all went home very happy.

THURSDAY: Package was delivered. It was a lovely package, and we all opened it. We all had a great time, and everyone was in good spirits. We all went home very happy.

FRIDAY: Got our marks in American history, and we all did very well. We all went to the party, and everyone had a great time. We all went home very happy.

SATURDAY: Went to a dance with Norman. We had a great time, and everyone was in good spirits. We all went home very happy.

SUNDAY: Get to see another appendectomy.

SQUASH TEAM BATTLES TIGERS

Still seeking its first win in three seasons, Pennsylvania's varsity squad meets Princeton in an

 Ivy League match tomorrow at Tigertown.

Princeton is led by outside Terry

Evans who plays in the number two slot. Their number one man is Raymore Waddle while Jim

Martin and Steve Black are the top players on the strong squad.

Princeton's record is

and its lineup is comprised of five men. A jammed packed and two games for the varsity as their only loss. Steve Black,

the Penns' top man in the squad, will probably be the leading factor in the match.

The Penn team will probably see Axel Anderson in the number one slot, and Paul Paulsen and Peter Paulsen in the other double positions. The Penn's squad is comprised of

Chris Clarke, Steve Black, and

IT'S FOR REAL! by Chester Field

LOUIE, THE LOUSE

He strolled through a keyhole into my house,
A dignified, well-bred upper-class louse;
He smiled in a most superior way
And said, "Man has just about seen his day.
If you'll take my advice for what it's worth
Trot try to be beyond reproach
In your dealings with the roach . . .
Bedbugs, ants and spiders, too.
Don't forget . . . WE'RE WATCHING YOU!"

MORALS Well . . . until Louis takes over, your pleasure BIG. Smoke

The '57 Chevy can give lessons on taking curves and holding the road to just about any car going.
Few cars at any price are so beautifully balanced and so smooth, sure and solid in action.

A car has to have a special kind of build and balance to keep curves under control. And nobody outdoors Chevrolet in that department! It "corners" with all the solid assurance of an honest-to-goodness sports
It doesn't throw its weight around on turns because it carries its pounds in the right place.

And if the road should turn upward, Chevy can take care of that nearly, too—with up to 245*h.p.*

Come on in and take a turn at the wheel of a new Chevrolet.

Chevy, standard and super—here's Chevrolet all over, roomy, power-looking at the test at Sport Coupe.

how big is

In considering a career opportunity, big dedpends a lot on the attitude towards young engineers of the company you work for.

West Virginia isn't the largest company in the pulp and paper industry (although there are not many larger). Few, however, can point to our investment in product and production research, quality control and the development of new manufacturing techniques.
This is a climate that hundreds of young engineers have already found attractive and stimulating. It has also laid the groundwork for bigger and bigger expansion in the immediate years ahead.

There are unusual and challenging opportunities for chemical and mechanical engi-ners at all of our six plants—particularly at Tyrone and Williamsburg, Pennsylvania.

'Chalmers Barr, Personnel Director, will visit your campus shortly. He would like to talk with you. Be sure to see him.
Contact your placement director for time and place.
